

SANTA AND REINDEER, WITHOUT SNOW — Santa Claus and his reindeer look strange without snow, but are shown here in the summer at Reindeer Ranch near Redmond. Santa and his deer will make an appearance in Klamath Falls Dec. 18. Santa will hear the wishes of children, who can also pet the reindeer.

Santa, Reindeer Slate Visit Here On Dec. 18

Santa Claus, complete with reindeer and sleigh, will make his annual appearance in Klamath Falls Wednesday, Dec. 18, on Main Street between Fifth and Sixth streets.
 The appearance is sponsored by the Klamath Merchants Association. Santa Claus and his reindeer come from Reindeer Ranch near Redmond.
 The five reindeer will be in pens and children will be allowed to pet them. Santa Claus will hold court in his sleigh, hear the wishes of the youngsters and hand out candy. Santa and his reindeer will be on Main Street between 4 and 9 p.m. Dec. 18.
 The reindeer were originally flown from Alaska to Redmond and domesticated and climatized by John Zumstein.
 It takes about two years to climatize a reindeer and from one to two years to harness-break them.
SPIDER'S SIGHT
 Spiders are able to see in eight directions at once because most species have eight single-lens eyes, symmetrically spaced, but, though the spider is sensitive to movement and light, it is nearsighted.

Supreme Court Denies Child Slayer New Trial

SALEM (UPI)—The State Supreme Court Wednesday denied condemned child slayer Jeanne June Freeman's appeal for a new trial.
 The high court, in a unanimous decision, upheld a Marion County Circuit Court decision which denied her plea for a new trial under the state's post-conviction relief act.
 It is the second time the State Supreme Court has upheld her conviction and death penalty for the 1961 slaying of six-year-old Larry Jackson, who was thrown into the Crooked River Gorge in Central Oregon.
 The ruling exhausts her state court appeal possibilities.
 She can still appeal to federal courts.
 The United States Supreme Court has twice refused to hear her case.
 Miss Freeman would be the first woman to die in Oregon's gas chamber.
 Miss Freeman is 22.
 Miss Freeman's attorneys, in her appearance before Marion County Circuit Judge George A. Jones, had asked for a new trial on the ground that she had been deprived of her constitutional rights under both the United States and Oregon constitutions.
 The Supreme Court said that the grounds set forth in the post-conviction petition were essentially the same as raised in the direct appeal.
 The high court said her attorneys confused new or additional evidence with new or additional grounds.
 Miss Freeman, who three times has won stays on scheduled executions, is at the State Penitentiary here.
 It is expected the Jefferson County Circuit Court in Madras, where she was tried on the murder charge, will re-set an execution date unless a federal court appeal is filed almost immediately.

FIRE HITS PLANE
 DOUGLAS, Isle of Man (UPI)—Fire broke out Wednesday night in the undercarriage of a Cambrian Airways Viscount as it was taking off on a flight to Manchester, England.
 The pilot braked the craft to a halt and the 27 passengers escaped uninjured.

Lodge Not Ike's Only Choice As GOP Candidate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Key Republicans are being assured that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was not making Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge his personal presidential choice when he urged him to enter the race for the 1964 GOP nomination.
 A spokesman for Eisenhower was said to have contacted Republican leaders this week to emphasize that all the ex-President intended was to broaden the field of prospective GOP presidential candidates.
 Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, Mass., chairman of the Senate GOP Conference, were among those given the assurances.
 Lodge, who was Richard M. Nixon's vice presidential running-mate in 1960, has made it clear he has "no intention" at this time of seeking the presidency next year.
Wide Open Contest
 But with the shift in Republican prospects arising from President Kennedy's assassination, a wide open nomination contest for the GOP is shaping up and Lodge could be in the scrap.
 Dirksen said he received word that Eisenhower's recommendation to Lodge that he return from South Viet Nam to enter the presidential race was "misinterpreted" as indicating that Eisenhower had made Lodge his first choice.
 Saltonstall, who served with Lodge in the Senate, has said he favors an unpledged Massachusetts convention delegation. Bay State Republicans it was clear, would favor Lodge if he became a candidate or let it be known he would be a contender. But they would not want to be caught "out on a limb."
 Eisenhower has rattled off lists of party presidential prospects whom he regards as fit for the job on many occasions.
