

Loss Of Levy Prompts Much Uncertainty In Bear Camp

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — The only thing which seemed certain about the University of California coaching situation today was that nothing was certain.

Athletic Director Pete Newell Thursday refused to set a date on when a successor might be named for Marv Levy who is expected to resign Wednesday.

"It could be almost immediately or it could be quite a while yet," he said.

Names prominently mentioned include Dee Andros, Cal graduate who piloted Idaho to a 5-5 record this year, and members of the current staff, including all-time all-star pro guard Dick Stanfel, Jim Culom and John Nikevich.

Meanwhile, Eddie Erdelatz, former Navy coach who was considered for the job four years ago before Levy was chosen, said he wanted no part of the job now.

"I haven't been contacted but it would do no good," he said. "I'm not interested. I'm very happy with my job (vice president of the California Financial Corp.) and I would never leave it for football."

Newell and Levy both discounted the importance of the alleged player revolt which some say led to Levy's resignation.

Newell said a meeting of players was held Tuesday and an unidentified representative came to him with the players' complaints.

"I don't know the exact number of players who exacted their complaints, but I can say they did not come in with a 'fire Marv' attitude. They just had some things they felt they had to say and they did."

Asked about his future plans, Levy said only "I haven't made up my mind yet what's in the future. I resigned for personal reasons. And I don't wish to comment further than that."

Toledo Stops NYU At Garden; Loyola Wins; Duke Dropped

By United Press International
Madison Square Garden is a "mecca of jitters" for many visiting college basketball teams.

The Garden, however, failed to terrorize Toledo Thursday night. Instead, it proved to be a nightmare to homebred New York University as the Rockets upset the third ranked Violets, 87-74.

NYU was the third upset victim among top ranked teams this week and the top-ranked Loyola of Chicago Ramblers twice escaped this fate against considered inferior opposition. Loyola squeezed past Western Michigan, 105-102, Thursday, after a hair-raising 113-108 overtime victory against Detroit Tuesday. Second-ranked Duke fell to Vanderbilt and No. 4 Arizona State lost to Bradley on Wednesday.

Scouted NYU
Toledo, now 5-0, had scouted NYU in the Tulsa and North-western games and sports pinpointed the Violet weaknesses. Jim Cox, who scored 33 points for the Rockets, said the team decided to let NYU star Barry Kramer do whatever shooting he could and concentrate on the other players.

Kramer, however, was hamstrung by Jay Bell, who held last season's second-leading scorer to 23 points. Happy Hairston tallied 25 for NYU.

Loyola piled up an 18-point halftime lead over Western Michigan and then had to fight back a late Bronco surge that was led by Manny Newsome's 44 points.

Ron Miller netted 33 points for Loyola and Les Hunter added 23 to the Rambler total.

Providence Wins
Providence, 1963 National Invitation Tournament champion, defeated St. Louis, 72-66, as John Thompson scored 25 points. The Billkens closed to 68-66, but four straight free throws closed the gap on the Friar victory.

Wally Jones tallied six straight points in the final minutes to lead undefeated Villanova to a 58-36 win over Buffalo.

Notre Dame set a school scoring record with a 107-60 triumph over Valparaiso. The Irish, led by Larry Sheffield's 26 points, hit 50 per cent of their shots.

In other games, Iowa edged Southern Methodist, 73-70, with Dave Roach tallying 29 points for the Hawkeyes; Bud Koper scored 34 points in Oklahoma City's 97-84 whipping of San Francisco; Texas Christian rallied to beat Florida State, 66-60; and unbeaten Memphis State used superior height to flatten Marquette, 88-74.

And, oh yes, Shimer set a new collegiate record of 47 consecutive losses as it was beaten by Clinton Junior College, 128-69.

Fernandez Favored In Return Ring Go

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cuban Florentino Fernandez is favored at 8-5 to turn the tables tonight on Argentina's Juan (Rocky) Rivero in their second nationally televised battle of middleweight knockout specialists.

The Cincinnati Royals were without the services of stars Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas.

The Los Angeles Lakers took to the court without Ace Elgin Baylor.

But both the Royals and the Lakers won the only two games played in the National Basketball Association Thursday night as their teammates filled the gaps.

The Royals defeated the New York Knickerbockers 112-102 as Jack Twyman hit a personal high of 31 points for the Royals. Wayne Embrey scored 25 points and grabbed 25 rebounds and Arlen Bockhorn did the playmaking with 13 assists while scoring 12 points. Len Chappell had 22 points to top the Knicks.

In Los Angeles, the Lakers got a 37-point effort from Jerry West and fine defensive work from Gene Wiley to down the Baltimore Bullets 120-105. Dick Barto also added 29 points to the Los Angeles cause.

A severe cold sidelined Baylor, a pulled thigh muscle kept Robertson out and a bruised lower back idled Lucas.

LEWIS GETS AWARD
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Al Lewis of California Western in San Diego has been named National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) coach of the year for California. Lewis' lifetime coaching record is 104 victories, 23 losses and 11 ties.
