

Klamath Again Tops Flu Statistics

For the second consecutive week, Klamath County led all other Oregon counties in the number of influenza cases reported, information from the State Board of Health has indicated.

A report for the week ending Nov. 30 disclosed that 75 cases of the disease were reported in the county, compared with Clackamas and Benton counties, which each reported 57. Next came the city of Portland with 43, followed by Lane County, 33; Multnomah (not including Portland) and Jackson counties, 27 each, and Malheur County, 26. Eighteen other counties reported incidents of the disease in lesser numbers.

Total figures for the state revealed that 484 cases of influenza were reported for the same week, representing a decrease from the 491 cases reported during the previous seven-day period.

The next most frequent communicable disease noted in the state during the most recent report period was measles, 34, followed by pneumonia, 29, and German measles 23.

The breakdown of communicable diseases in Klamath and other Southern Oregon counties for the last report period is:

Klamath, 77 cases: Influenza, 75; pneumonia and rheumatic fever, one each.

Deschutes, one: Syphilis (non-infective), one.

Jackson, 31: Influenza, 27; measles and German measles, two each.

Josephine, four: Influenza and pneumonia, two each.

Lake, 16: Influenza, 16.

Visiting Judge From Bend Scheduled To Hear Three Cases Here Next Week

Judge Robert H. Foley of Bend is scheduled to try three cases next week when he sits in Klamath County Circuit Court.

Judge Foley was assigned to sit in the local court next to alleviate congestion caused by temporary absence of Judge David Vandenberg Sr.

Judge Foley will try the forgery case of Ray Walsh, the assault with a dangerous weapon case of Darlene Sanchez and Darlene Crume and the assault with a dangerous weapon charge against Velma Lucille Banelos.

Miss Sanchez and Mrs. Crume are accused of shooting at a man and attacking him with a meat cleaver earlier this year.

Mrs. Banelos is charged with shooting of Klamath Falls businessman Frank Bogatay last June. The 31-year-old woman, police said, shot Bogatay in the foot because she believed the merchant to be responsible for introducing daylight savings time.

Her trial had been scheduled for next year, but was set up this week.

Walsh's trial is slated to begin Monday with the two assault with a dangerous weapon trials to follow in Judge Foley's court.

Bali

new! Balinese stretch-strap bras fit better

- 1. a unique design concept of sheerest Lycra® spandex leno, gossamer in appearance, but firm in action.
- 2. a fabulous dimensional stability is the design basis of this beautifully curved bra. For the first time, Lycra® spandex straps are an integral part of the basic design. Straps swing up in a curving line from Lycra® spandex bias sides and back.
- 3. new, too, the back closure of the straps with Bali's exclusive "Adjusta-tape" fastening, made with a link that slides into a looped tab to allow for individual adjustment. Sleekly smooth, this strap closure offers positive locking in its unique design.
- 4. silhouette line and shoulder straps are outlined with soft Helanca® nylon facing.
- 5. upper cups are hand-clipped nylon lace.
- 6. sheer under cups are gently rounded by a layer of nylon voile bonded to marquisette.
- 7. non-roll feature, in side under bosom, is created of a sliver of tricot-covered foam rubber.
- 8. Bali bow assures fine fit and perfect separation.
