

Pelican, Hornet Matmen Travel For Cavemen Invitational Meet

The Henley Hornets and the Klamath Falls Pelicans head for Grants Pass today for the annual Cavemen Invitational mat tournament which calls seven grappling teams from Oregon and California.

For Bob Creed's Hornets, the tournament will mark the first test of the season, while DeLance Duncan's strong Klamath Falls Pelicans enter their second meeting of the young season.

Last weekend, the Pelicans traveled to Portland for the annual David Douglas tournament and ended a close second behind the host Scots among some of the top teams in the state.

The Pelicans based upon their third place finish in the state last year and their fine showing in the Portland "Tournament of Champions" last weekend, are considered co-favorites with the host Cavemen for tournament honors tonight.

The Hornets will face the junior varsity teams of the larger A-1 school squads, with the tournament divided into A and B classifications.

Team scoring will be compiled in both divisions, thereby giving the Hornets a good chance of opening the campaign with a victory.

Other teams scheduled for action are Reedsport, Del Norte of Crescent City, Calif., Medford and Marshfield in addition to Henley, Klamath Falls and Grants Pass.

Scoring is based on AAU classification whereby wrestlers are rated on "number of bad marks."

To clarify: If a wrestler wins via a fall he has no bad marks; if he wins via a decision he receives one bad mark and if the match is a draw both men receive two bad marks.

Each man wrestles three times and the boy with the least number of bad marks wins.

Team totals are figured from

Prep Scores

Oregon Prep Basketball
Parkrose 43 Gresham 32

(MacLaren Invitational)
Portland Christian 75 Valseit 52
Chemawa 76 Colton 59
MacLaren 58 Detroit 49

Team scoring will be compiled in both divisions, thereby giving the Hornets a good five points received by a boy winning; three points from a wrestler taking a second place and one point for a third place. By using this method of scoring, all wrestlers have the opportunity of engaging in three matches. In other tournament scoring methods, a loser of two matches is eliminated. Next weekend the Hornets entertain the Ashland Grizzlies in the first home match Saturday at 1 p.m., while the Pelicans are of until Dec. 28, when they host a mat tourney.

Beavers Try California In Pair; USF Loses To Oklahoma City Five

By United Press International
Now that USF is temporarily out of the running for consideration as the West's best basketball team, a couple of other hot contenders for the honor will be severely tested tonight.

It was 42-41 at halftime, but the tall Oklahoma quintet dominated the early going in the second half by outscoring the Dons 19-9 in one stretch. Sharpshooting Bud Koper hooped 34 for the winners, while Dave Lee and Ollie Johnson each scored 21 for the losers.

UCLA is at Lawrence, Kan., for another harsh weekend in enemy territory. The Bruins battle Kansas State tonight and Kansas Saturday.

and idle Stanford are the early line favorites to dominate Western basketball this year.

Francisco State at Detroit, and Santa Barbara at Idaho.
