

Players Club

The Players Club met Dec. 4 at the Legion Hall. Hostesses were Helen Cook, Dorothy Neet and Margaret Holliday. The Christmas theme was carried out in decorations and refreshments.

High score for bridge was held by Ruth Heidrich and second by Ada Mathews. Gretchen Enman was high in pinochle and Betty Allen, second.

The next meeting will be Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall. This meeting will be the Christmas party and gift exchange. Members are requested to bring gifts, not to exceed one dollar.

The mistletoe was the first official state flower in America. Oklahoma adopted it in 1893, while still a territory.

Yule Party

DUNSMUIR — The annual Christmas party of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, Unit 4718, was highlighted with Christmas decorations and a gift exchange. Dinner was served to the members in the VFW Hall and games completed the evening.

Contributions to baskets for the less fortunate were also brought to the party and money was raised for the Cancer Fund. Helen Grochel contributed embroidered pillowcases for this latter project. The auxiliary is currently readying a shipment of gifts to Camp White for hospitalized veterans.

World's largest full-fashioned cashmere knitting plant is located in Cleveland, Ohio.

ANNOUNCED — The engagement and forthcoming wedding of Danice Kay Colwell and Richard Raymond Arch is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Colwell. The marriage ceremony will take place Dec. 26 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The future bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Scott, graduate of Klamath Union High School, is attending Chico State College.

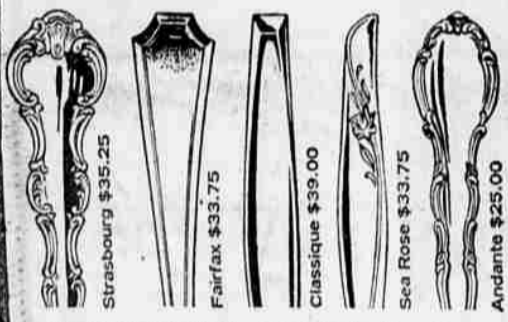

BETROTHED — Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logsdan announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie, to Richard Neathamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Neathamer. Both families are Klamath Falls residents. The future bride will be graduated from Klamath Union High School in June. Her fiance is serving with the Navy. No date is announced for the wedding. — Photo by Ferebee

CDA Enjoy Yule Party

The Catholic Daughters held their annual Christmas party Monday evening, Dec. 9, in Sacred Heart parish hall. Preceding the gift exchange an interesting program was enjoyed by the members consisting of several numbers by the Cecilia String Ensemble of Sacred Heart Academy, a story of "The First Christmas" told by Norma Walrath to three little girls dressed for bed and awaiting Santa Claus, and a group of songs by a new singing group in town, "The Pelican Pipers" under the direction of Alice Michels. They ended their singing with "Jingle Bells" which put the group in a jolly mood to welcome Santa Claus (Janet Derrah) who distributed the gifts to these present.

Refreshments were served by Irene and Ann Hawkins and their committee from a beautifully decorated buffet table.

Much credit is due June Lelli and Lois Kessler for the delightful program and decorations, as well as those previously mentioned who helped make the party such a success. The next meeting will be Jan. 13, 1964.

PLAN FLOOR CARE — Plan for a thorough floor cleaning only when you expect several hours of no kitchen traffic. Floors need thorough cleaning, through drying, then waxing, and again through drying. And this takes time even in the best drying weather.
