One of the loveliest weddings of the season was the ceremony Saturday, Nov. 30, at First Presbyterian Church in which Andrea Lee Silani, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Silani, became the bride of Victor Lavern Alexander. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Alexander.

Setting the theme for the afternoon ceremony were bronze chrysanthemums, tangerine carnations and yellow pompons arranged in floralabra with oak leaves and yellow tapers. Gold satin bows with oak leaves decorated the pews along the white carpeted aisle.

Officiating at the 4 p.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. Robert C. Groves.

Traditional wedding music was played by Janice LaGrande. Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport sang "O Promise Me," "I Love Thee," and as a part of the wedding ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

The petite brunette bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. Her gown of French imported Chantilly lace over imported net and silk peau de soie was fashioned with scalloped neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. The full skirt and short chapel train were finished at the hem line with scallops. The filmy illusion shoulder veil was held in place by a crown of Chantilly lace edged with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a corsage of white phalaenopsis orchids and roses, was carried on a white Bible, gift of Mrs. Nellie Nicol. In the bride's slipper was the traditional penny of her birth year and a two shilling piece brought from India in 1943 by her father. Other heirloom pieces were a gold bracelet belonging to Mrs. Vernon Durant and a white lace handkerchief of Mrs. Raymond Migliaccio.

Marybeth Solberg was maid of honor, dressed in an ensemble of light gold. Her frock of peau de soie was fashioned with fitted bodice, semi-empire waistline, elbow length sleeves and bell skirt. Gloves, slippers and headpiece of net were in matching gold color. Her bouquet was made of dark bronze and yellow pompons, tangerine carnations and yellow garnette roses.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Borsting, Marianne Gallagher, Karen Leaming and Carla Bartlett. Their outfits, the same as the honor attendants, were a darker shade of autumn gold, and their bouquets featured lighter shades of flowers.

The bride's gift to each of her attendants was a gold chain with jade drop.

Paul Bellm Jr. was best man and ushers were Edward Silani, brother of the bride, Richard Putnam, Ronald Brisson and Dennis Ensor. They wore gold dinner jackets to complement the wedding theme.

Ronald Brisson and Dennis Ensor also served as candle-lighters.

Joy Czmowski, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and Lee Reeves, the bridegroom's nephew, carried the rings.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Silani chose a costume suit of emerald green peau de soie with matching accessories and corsage of green Balkis cymbidian orchid. Mrs. Alexander wore a suit of cranberry brocade satin, matching accessories and white phalaenopsis orchid corsage.

Special guests at the wedding and reception which was in the church parlors were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Othel Lee and Mrs. E. L. Kahl, both of this city.

The four tiered wedding cake was all-white, trimmed with gold leaves and topped with white pearl-studded wedding bells. Around the base were broze pompons and leather leaf fern.

Serving cake were Mrs. Albert Bonotto, Mrs. Levi Reeves, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Vern Czmowski, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. David Barker.

Presiding at the coffee services were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. William Sims and Mrs. Hugh Killmeyer, and Mrs. Raymond Migliaccio and Mrs. Alfred Bonotto.

Pouring punch from a bowl encircled with oak leaves was Kathleen Migliaccio.

Linda Bonotto and Susan Binney attended the gift table and Sylvia Baker, the guest book.

Bags of rice colored yellow, bronze and tangerine were passed to guests by Lee Reeves and Jeff Mitchell.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Robert E. Hinson, Mrs. Clifford Phillips, Mrs. Matthew Christian, Mrs. Loren Binney and Mrs. John Lilly.

The new Mrs. Alexander's going away outfit was a dark teal blue costume suit worn with black patent accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple spent their honeymoon in Rogue Valley and have returned to reside at 3828 Shasta Way. Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union High School. Mrs. Alexander is employed at First National Bank. Her husband is a student at OTI and an employee of Klamath Lumber and Box Company.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson and John McLoughlin, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Czmowski, Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Baker and Sylvia and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kruger, Grants Pass.

Pre-nuptial affairs honoring the bride-elect included a surprise shower given by Marybeth Solberg and Karen Leaming for classmates of the bride at the Elks party room.

A second shower, also at the Elks party room, was hosted by Mrs. Ray Migliaccio, Mrs. Alfred Bonotto, Mrs. Lorraine Bonotto and Mrs. D. R. Baker.

The evening before the wedding, Mrs. Silani and Mrs. Alexander were hostesses at the Alexander home for the rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party.

ANSWER

Can you dye glass fiber curtains? Several people have asked this. There is no home method for dyeing these fibers. Glass fiber fabric gets its color during manufacturing. Since it won't absorb moisture, it won't pick up dye.

the Asilomar conference. The Hi-Teen group will tell of the civic projects made possible by their dances. To date, hundreds of dollars of improvements have been made by the young group to the City Park Army.

Birthday Is Observed

BONANZA — The 79th birthday of Mrs. Mae Gale on Dec. 2 was the inspiration for several affairs in her honor. Mrs. Gale will leave soon to spend the winter months in Southern California and Arizona.

Mrs. Gale was guest of honor at a luncheon on Dec. 2 given by her niece, Mrs. John Sullivan at her home in Langell Valley. Guests were Mrs. Charlotte Fitzhugh, Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Grace Blaser and Mrs. Mildred Campbell.

The same evening, Mrs. Bill Burnett entertained Mrs. Gale

at dinner. Others present were Bill Burnett, Monte and Marla Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt.

Mrs. Sanford Jones and Mrs. Robert Adams were hostesses for Mrs. Gale at a pre-Christmas party of Dec. 4. The holiday motif was carried out in decorations.

Pinochle and bridge were played. Mrs. Cecil Haley was high in bridge and Mrs. Bill Burnett, low. In pinochle, Mrs. Billy Bell held high score and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, low.

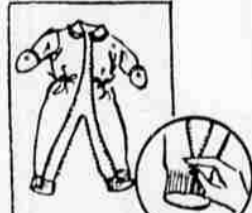

Other guests were Mrs. Everett Jones and Mrs. Clifton Jones, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Don Rice, Mrs. Lester Jones and Mrs. Fred Rueck, Dairy; Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Tex Evatt,

ABET NATURE

Your lips and the delicate skin around your eyes need special attention. Nature, it seems, did not provide as much protective lubrication for these areas as she did for the rest of our skin. Many firms have special lubricating eye creams for use at night and during the day under make-up. One firm has introduced an eye oil stick and lip emollient stick. These are to be applied under make-up and before going to bed. For best results, use these emollient-rich aids with every touch-up.
