Church Rites Unite Couple

BONANZA—Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church was the setting for the recent wedding in which Verona Carol Dayley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dayley, Poe Valley, became the bride of Chester Ray Schooler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Schooler, Bonanza.

Beauty baskets of apricot and gold colored chrysanthemums were a background for the single ring candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. Laing Sibbet.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her gown of Chantilly lace, studded with sequins, featured a chapel train, scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The elbow length veil was secured by a crown of sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of lilies of the valley. For tradition she wore a blue garter and lucky penny in her slipper.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Jack Ryder of Klamath Falls was matron of honor and Mrs. Mike Dillon, Crescent City, bridesmaid. They wore frocks of apricot and gold with embroidered trimmed bell shaped skirt. Headbands and slippers were matching. Their corsages were a combination of fall flowers in gold, apricot and yellow shades.

Roger Schooler was best man for his brother, Jack Ryder and Gary Williams were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue suit with black accessories. Mrs. Schooler chose a suit in raspberry color with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Walter Ritter sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Ross Ragland, who also played the wedding marches.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The cake was served by Joyce Roberts. Pouring punch and coffee were Barbara Long and Yvonne Moffa. Mrs. Gary Williams attended the guest book and gift table.

Both young people are graduates of Bonanza High School. The bride has been employed by The First National Bank in Klamath Falls since her graduation from Boise Business College. Her husband has just returned from spending two years in Japan with the Air Force.

For the wedding trip which took them to their new home in Maine where he is stationed now the new Mrs. Schooler wore a gold suit with bronze accessories and the bride's corsage.

Among the wedding guests was the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Dan Nix and her son, David, Shingletown, Calif.

To keep your fire screen clean, supplement dusting by scrubbing periodically with hot water and soap or detergent suds.

Pearl Gifts Are Fashion

Fashion may be the rub when it comes to Christmas giving. Styles change. Tastes vary. What's good for one person too often is wrong for another.

What's the answer to this fashion security risk on gifts?

One gem above all others has met the test of time and taste without losing its glamorous appeal. The pearl. Pearls never go out of style. Their variety is infinite. They are equally appreciated by the sophisticated and the naive, the young and the old. They're right for daytime or evening wear in rural or in urban surroundings. And one good pearl can be as welcome as many.

Following a few basic rules in pearl buying provides the fashion security every gift-giver looks for, according to the Cultured Pearl Associations of America and Japan.

First and foremost, a good pearl gift must be made of real pearls—that is, either natural or cultured. The gems should have good luster, a smooth surface, pleasing shape and attractive color. If more than one pearl is contained in a pearl gift, they should be well matched in color, shape and luster.

A couple of style tips from the associations.

If in doubt about color for pearl necklaces or earrings, choose creamy pink. It's the most flattering to skin tones.

When buying necklaces, choose the Debutante Style, a small strand of graduated pearls, for teenagers; the Classic Style, a double or single strand of graduated pearls in either choker or collarbone length if you're not sure of the lady's preferences . . . these suit women of all ages and types.

Matinee Necklaces, from 18 to 24 inches in one or two strands of uniform sized smooth surfaced or baroque pearls is most suitable for dressy daytime or casual evening wear. The Satoir, or rope necklace, from 40 to 50 inches of uniform sized pearls is the most versatile of pearl necklaces; it can be worn long and loose, or looped into several strands.

When buying pearl pins, rings, bracelets or earrings, your guide to fashion security is in simple settings. You can't go wrong if you let the glow of the pearls take the spotlight.

The same rule applies to pearl gifts for men. Good pearls make simple tie tacks, stick pins, cufflinks or shirt studs as acceptable to the man who has lots of jewelry as to the man who usually doesn't wear any.

And finally, a few words of warning. Economize on the size or number of pearls in your pearl gifts rather than on the quality of the gems themselves. Don't ever sacrifice beauty for quantity.

Scholarship To Be Given

LAKEVIEW — The Lakeview Scepticist Club has announced participation in an International Citizenship Award which includes a $2500 scholarship at the international level to a high school graduating student.

Locally, the winner of the contest here will be awarded $15, and will take part in the district competition.

Chairmen of the local committee are Laura Waterman and Mrs. Anne Sprague and they report further details will be made known later. They are now working through the office of W. Christensen, guidance counselor at the Lakeview High School, where applications by the students can be made and must be in by Feb. 1, 1964. While scholarship has its place in the award the student is judged on character and school and community activities.

Orions met Nov. 19 at the VFW Hall for their annual Thanksgiving dinner. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pernigotti, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. "HOME FURNISHING IS OUR BUSINESS"

By BOB CUSHMAN

PUZZLED ABOUT CARPETING? It's no wonder, with so many fine new materials available to you, offered in such a dazzling range of colors and textures.

Here are a few brief pointers to help you choose. Wool is the most luxurious of all carpeting — and the best wool. Lurex is also the most expensive. It is highly crush resistant and you can choose from deep plush piles and handsome sculptured patterns.

Among the modern man-made fibers, the acrylics are especially rugged and easy to clean, and they don't mat. The nylons, which are a current favorite, especially the long fiber continuous filament nylons, are very long wearing and easy to clean, with no shedding or piling. These take to vibrant colors beautifully.

Where economy and service are the most important considerations, there are fine cotton carpetings to choose from, the lowest-priced carpets for comparable quality.

So the choice is wide and colorful . . . just as the selection of fine home furnishings and accessories is colorful and complete in our showroom. Stop in — for the answers to all your decorating problems!
