

Alturas Pair Are Married

ALTURAS — Judith Lee Larson and Richard Neal Phillips exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony before the Rev. Karl Olson at the Alturas Federated Church Saturday afternoon, Nov. 30.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertil E. Larson, Alturas, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace. The bodice had a Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. The controlled bell skirt had back fullness which flowed into a graceful chapel train. Her veil was of imported illusion tulle and complemented the lovely lace pillbox crown embroidered in seed pearls. Her flowers were blue glameillas centered with a white orchid.

Before the bride came down the aisle to meet her husband-to-be, Mrs. William Goulden sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Chris Starr at the organ, while Mike Mathews lighted the tapers at the altar. The pews during the center aisle were decorated with pom-pom white bows with small bouquets of blue forget-me-nots in the center carrying out the blue and white theme of the wedding.

The maid of honor, Bonnie Hickerson, Alturas, and the four bridesmaids, Suzanne Hoxsey, Yvonne Bowman, Patricia McCunniff and Sharon Chandler, were gowned in identical royal blue brocade ballerina length gowns with scoop necklines and elbow length sleeves. The sheath skirts were overlaid with tunic. They wore matching headpieces of royal blue net roses with floating veils. Their slippers were royal blue matching the gowns. Each girl carried a bouquet of blue glameillas.

Preceding the wedding procession was the niece of the bridegroom, Cheryl French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur French, wearing a nylon tulle frock and crown of flowers in her hair. She carried a white basket of blue and white blossoms.

Carrying the identical rings on a white satin pillow was Randal Bigler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bigler of Yreka.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Phillips, Alturas.

Donald Stinkard of Alturas was the best man.

Ushering the guests were Timothy Baker, John Wistos, Kenneth Phillips, all of Alturas, and Robert Ferber of San Francisco.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace street length sheath dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Phillips wore a rose silk ribbon sheath with matching accessories.

The Reverend Olson read Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Sonnet 43 to the couple and they gathered friends before reading the wedding vows.

Following the exchange of vows, Mrs. Goulden sang the "Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Fellowship Hall of the church. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Bradford Botts, Ashland, and Mrs. Donald Barker, Eugene, presided at the silver tea services.

The four tiered wedding cake was encircled with delicate blue flowers, white doves, silver leaves and white hearts and bells. It was topped with four blue satin bells and an arrangement of bridal flowers. The bride's table was covered with a white cut-work cloth over white satin draping caught at intervals with swags of fern and small bouquets of white rosebuds.

Carolyn Smith served the wedding cake and Nadine Enderlin took care of the guest book.

The bride left for her honeymoon dressed in a black brushed wool dress with a camel's hair jacket and matching hat. She had black patent accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple left for a brief honeymoon in Nevada before making their home in San Francisco where he is attending Heald's Business School. The new Mrs. Phillips is a November graduate of the Dental Nurses School in San Francisco. Both young people are graduates of the Modoc High School in Alturas. She was worthy adviser of the Alturas Chapter of the Rainbow for Girls and he is past master counselor of DeMolay in Alturas.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beardahl and daughter Sherie, Capertown, Calif.; Dr. and Mrs. William Ferber, sons Dan and Bob, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey, Redding; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peters, Mrs. Wayne Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Botts, Monte and Craig, and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Zollman and family, all of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Reinmiller and grandson from Tulelake.

RECENT BRIDE — Mrs. Richard Neal Phillips is the former Judith Lee Larson. She and her husband are Alturas residents and were married there on Nov. 30. They will reside in San Francisco.

BRIDAL PAIR — The former Millie Compton, Alturas, and Roger W. Collis were recently married in the First Methodist Church in Carson City. A wedding dinner at the Nugget in Sparks followed the nuptial ceremony.

Blake-Mapes Vows Recited

ALTURAS — Mary Lou Mapes of Alturas became Mrs. James K. Blake III, at ceremonies at the Federated Church in Alturas Friday, Nov. 8. The Rev. Karl Olson read the marriage vows.

The bride was given in marriage by Randall Collis. Her gown had a Chantilly lace bodice with a sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The skirt was ballerina length, chiffon over tulle. A waist length veil was held by a headpiece trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and orange blossoms. Her grandmother's lavalliere was something old and her shoes were something borrowed.

Mrs. Nancy Sanford was matron of honor for her sister in a gown of white lace over pink tulle with a pink satin cummerbund. Serving as bridesmaids were Mildred Larimore in a pink tulle gown with a bell shaped skirt and Cheryl Stull in blue chiffon with a lace over-jacket. All three attendants carried bouquets of orange blossoms.

Chuck Yancey stood as best man and ushers were Chris Damuser and Jerry Geaney.

The bride's mother wore a green knit suit with black accessories and the mother of the bridegroom was attired in a blue wool dress with a white, beige and blue wool coat. They both wore corsages of tallman roses.

The couple greeted guests at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Damuser. The wedding cake was served by Karen Hart and Suzanne Hoxsey. Carol Armor and Alice Mattson served punch. Cheryl Smith was in charge of the guest book and Dianne Davis was in charge of the gifts.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Randall Collis and Harold Mapes of Alturas. She attended Modoc High School and was 1963 queen of the Modoc County Fair.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Blake

NOVEMBER NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. James K. Blake III are shown after their Nov. 8 marriage in the Federated Church of Alturas. Mrs. Blake is the former Mary Lou Mapes of that city.

Tots And Togs Are Washable

By HELEN HENNESSY, Women's Editor, Newspaper Enterprise Assn., NEW YORK (NEA) — Early Christmas morning the mud-pie set will take on the look of well-scrubbed angels who never soil their tiny hands on anything dirtier than a dusty cloud.

But mom knows better. So should you plan to give clothes for a toddler's Christmas gift, be sure they are food for the automatic washer.

You won't have to sacrifice color, style or fabric in order to choose a gift that's washable.

From vivid reds to plaids and prints and from the faintest of fabrics to thick pile, all can be found in washable styles.

Corduroy is king, teamed with broadcloth or knitted cotton shirts in two and three-piece outfits for both boys and girls.

The styles are a delight. For toddler girls there are diminutive pleated skirts with a jacket and matching turt. Red artist smocks and other flare tops are shown with corduroy or quilted pants.

Matching plaid hat, jacket and pants are featured in costumes for both boys and girls as are hooded pile jackets in two tones.

For the boys alone, there are many versions of dad's sport shirts and slacks.

In the infant department there are applique angels or dolls even on sturdy overalls; and embroidered animals strut across tiny jackets. In fact, a whole brass band is embroidered on one butcher boy costume.

The easy-care qualities of these colorful tiny garments will be a boon to a busy mother who must constantly ride herd on an active brood.
