

HONORED — Mr. and Mrs. John Sehorn, married 60 years on Nov. 22, were honored by their many friends following Sunday, Nov. 24, church services at Klamath Temple. The Sehorn have lived in this city since 1928.

KF Pair Note Date

John F. and Ruth Sehorn were married 60 years ago, Nov. 22, 1903, in Black Fork, Ark. They were honored at Klamath Temple Sunday, Nov. 24. The Sunday School presented them with a boutonniere and a corsage and they were surprised with a reception following the morning services.

Punch, coffee and cake were served by the deaconesses of the church to friends and family. The guest book was taken care of by Mrs. E. D. Kretzinger. A lovely pink and silver candle and flower centerpiece on the lace covered table was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sehorn as a gift from the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sehorn moved to Klamath Falls June 29, 1928 and have made their home here except for a short time during the war when he worked at Mare Island Naval Yards, Vallejo, Calif. He has been a builder and carpenter here in Klamath Falls for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Sehorn had eight children and three are still living. E. L. Sehorn and Lonnie Sehorn of Klamath Falls, and Martin Sehorn of Portland. They have 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

EXCHANGE VOWS — Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pruett will make their home in Burney following their Nov. 10 wedding in the Alturas Baptist Church. Mrs. Pruett is the former Carolyn Goings of Alturas.

Church Rites Unite Couple

After a honeymoon, the young couple are now making their home in Burney.

ALTURAS—Carolyn Goings of Alturas exchanged vows with Richard Pruett of Burney at a 2 p.m. ceremony in the Alturas Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 10.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a pleated and bouffant, ballerina length satin gown with a Chantilly lace bodice, long sleeves and a scalloped neckline edged with sequins and seed pearls. Her imported French silk illusion veil fell from a hand-made tiara fashioned crown, trimmed with miniature pearls and crystal beads. She carried a white Bible topped with lily of the valley and white satin ribbon. For something old, she wore a pearl necklace which was her great-great-grandmother's, and something borrowed was a blue lace garter belonging to Mrs. Betty Symes.

Prior to the ceremony, Russell Boyd presented several musical selections, accompanied by Mrs. Boyd at the organ.

Emma Pruett, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, dressed in blue taffeta. A blue veil was secured with a small hair piece of pearls. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Judy Goings, bridesmaid for her sister, wore a pink taffeta gown and her corsage was made of blue carnations.

Robert Clark was best man. Norman and Ronald Pruett, brothers of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

The bride's mother was attired in a light green dress with black and beige accessories. Her corsage was bronze pom-pom chrysanthemums.

During the reception at the church, Mrs. Margaret Holloway served a decorated four tiered cake baked by Mrs. Bonnie Jacobsen, sister to the bride.

Punch was served by Dannelle Rouse and coffee by Ella Pruett, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Barbara Burmaster was in charge of the gifts and Sandy Goings attended the guest book. Rice packets were handed out by the bride's brother, Robert Goings.

The new Mrs. Goings is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goings of Alturas and a granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pruett of Burney are parents of the bridegroom.

Questions

QUESTION: How much would it cost us to cancel the existing insurance on our home and buy one of these all-inclusive Homeowners policies?

ANSWER: It's the other way around. Any competent agent can so arrange the conversion to Homeowners coverage that you would have a net gain and would save many dollars over the cost of the various coverages bought separately.

Cow Belles Give Honor

MONTAGUE—Mrs. Nora Hoy of Edgewood was named Siskiyou County Cow Belle Mom of the Year at the annual dinner meeting of the Siskiyou County Cattlemen's Association held at the Winema Hall in Yreka on Nov. 15.

Mrs. Hoy is a life-long resident of Siskiyou County and widow of the late Bert Hoy, one-time Siskiyou County Cattleman of the Year.

Mrs. Hoy makes her home on the family ranch at Edgewood which she and her husband operated for many years and which is now managed by their son, Eldon Hoy.

Also at the dinner, Mrs. George Williams of Montague was the winner of the beef roast. Proceeds from this event were added to the Siskiyou County Cow Belle scholarship fund.
