COLOR - FAST CARPETS

Because of the excellence of dyes, American-made carpets do not fade easily. Give them the normal protection from direct sunlight which you would give any colored fabric, and you'll find that they hold their color well.

LACY GIFTS BY Henson Kickernick

ALTURAS BRIDE — Mrs. Gerald Ray Howard is the former Sandy Louise Larsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Larson, Alturas. Her marriage was an event of Nov. 16 in Alturas.

Sandy-Larsen Alturas Bride

ALTURAS—The Alturas Federated Church was the setting for the marriage of Sandy Louise Larsen to Gerald Ray Howard Saturday, Nov. 16.

The bride's gown was floor length, fashioned of peau de soie with a detachable train secured to a bow above the waist. The bodice had a scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves. Her skirt, bodice and train were appliqued with embroidered chiffon in a floral design.

Her silk illusion elbow length veil was attached to a cap accented with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of chrysanthemum spider chrysanthemums.

Kathy McKernon was the bride's maid of honor, and Gayle Larsen served her sister as bridesmaid. They wore identical street length dresses of apricot brocade, and carried arrangements of rust chrysanthemums. Short veils were secured by star-shaped head pieces.

Estle Argabright Jr. was best man and Fred Lowes and Johnny Wistos were the ushers.

Coreen Larsen, sister of the bride, was flower girl and her brother, Jeffrey Larsen was ring bearer.

Proceeding the ceremony, Frank Lloyd accompanied Betty Baird in several musical selections.

The bride's mother wore a green silk sheath, with rose-brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The young couple greeted guests at a reception in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Helen King served the wedding cake and Mrs. Betty Acord and Jackie Collis served at the tea table.

Kathy Lowes and Ann Cramp-ton served the punch and Gayle Larsen was in charge of the guest book.

Cheryle Vermillion and Dixie Server were in charge of the gifts and Coreen and Jeffrey Larsen passed out the rice packets.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Larsen and is a graduate of the Modoc Union High School and the California College of Commerce at Long Beach. Prior to her wedding she was employed in San Francisco.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond King of Columbus, Ohio, was graduated from the Columbus Senior High School. He is employed as a field representative for the Title Insurance and Trust Company of Los Angeles.

The newlyweds are making their home in Long Beach, Calif.

PREPARE PROGRAM — Guests at the annual silver tea in honor of the Sisters of Sacred Heart Academy will hear a program of appropriate Christmas music under the direction of Sister M. Faustina, shown with three academy students. Seated is Marlu Costel and standing left, Joanne Holland, and right, Judy Karsen. The tea, sponsored by the Parents and Patrons Club, will be today from 2 until 4 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Academy Auditorium. The public is invited.

Shari Meade Heads Lodge

Shari Meade was recently installed as worthy adviser of Assembly No. 57, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, at a public installation at the Scottish Rite Temple. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Meade.

The new worthy adviser chose a lavender and white floor length formal. Her theme was "solid colors." Her father wrote a poem for the theme. The assembly was decorated with two baskets of lavender and white flowers.

Installing officers were Donna Colahan, worthy adviser; Diane Meade, chaplain; Sue Leiser, recorder; Darlene Gentry, marshal, and Mrs. Lloyd Murphy, musician. Kent Colahan sang "Suddenly There's A Valley," and "May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You." Mary Jane and Janice Britton sang "I'll Walk With God."

Officers for this team are Shari Meade, worthy adviser; Janet Samuel, worthy associate adviser; Donna Cummins, charity; Helen Davis, hope; Janice Britton, faith; Carol Shufelt, treasurer; Rose Marie Woverton; recorder; Diane Gossett, chaplain; Mary Jane Britton, drill leader; Sandra Lawson, love; Teresa Rachel, religion; Geraldine Hartley, nature; Leri Mitchell, immortality; Linda Robinson, fidelity; Linda Green, patriotism; Mary Thompson, service; Lyn Wandell, confidential observer; Debby Shults, outer observer; Sandra James, musician; Jerri Oliver, choir director.

Line officers carried white Bibles with white carnations. Other officers carried rainbows. Jack Moon and members of the Lakeview DeMolay performed the crowning ceremony. Following the installation were refreshments and a public dance.
