

Traffic Violations By Young Drivers Resulted In Four November Accidents

Traffic violations by juveniles resulted in four automobile crashes during November in Klamath County, causing one injury and property damage of $6,338.33.

4 Bridge Tournaments Scheduled

Forty-three juveniles were handed a total of 47 tickets during the month, bringing the year's total to 622. Of the November total, 26 came from State Police, 26 from Klamath Falls City Police and one from another agency.

The department said violations by juveniles this year were the highest since 1963.

The first is slated for 1:30 p.m. today when the Unit Committee conducts its regular monthly MP tournament at the Winema Motor Hotel.

A similar tournament is slated for the Lakeshore Club Tuesday morning at the city library and will be followed by a special Christmas Party at the same club Thursday evening.

The remaining masterpoint is also scheduled at the city library, Saturday evening, when the Klamath Bridge Club holds its first Christmas Party, a special event.

Symphony Members Make Trip

Nine members of the Klamath Union High School Symphony were guests of the University of Nevada in Reno last weekend.

The musicians, under the direction of director Dale Hallack, rehearsed with the university orchestra and assisted with the orchestra's annual production of Handel's "Messiah," which was presented Dec. 8 to an audience of about 3,000 persons.

KU students making the trip were Barbara Cofer and Joe Everly, violinists; Janet Jolly, Gail Pence, Sheila Callison and Maurice Brennan, violists; Joyce Jolly and Sharon Callison, cellists, and Mary Ellen Johnke, flutist.

In addition, Dean Halbert, local violinist and member of the class of 1939 at KU, made the trip. Mrs. Hallack and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cofer accompanied the group.

KU Plans Program

The Klamath Union High School music department's annual Christmas program will be presented at Mills School auditorium next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

M. Dale Hallack, director of music, said that the cappella choir, the symphony orchestra and the Madrigal Singers will be featured in a program of Christmas music, expected to be one hour and 15 minutes in length.

Both sacred and secular Christmas music will be presented. Included will be a combined choir and orchestra selection.

Tickets will be 50 cents per person, available from KU music students or at the door.

Former State Official, Three Other Persons Die In Four Accidents

By United Press International
Former State Board of Aeronautics Director Earl W. Snyder, 46, of Salem and four other Oregon residents were killed in separate auto accidents in the state Friday and early Saturday.

Two other Oregonians died in Northern California.

Snyder was killed early Saturday when his sports car overturned on the Willamette River Bridge and burst into flames.

He headed the Board of Aeronautics from 1954 through 1961 and formerly owned Salem Aviation, Inc. He also managed the Eugene Airport.

Other traffic victims were Mrs. Maude Braught, Lake Oswego; Mrs. Nora Diamond Klinger, 70, Hermiston; Erin Murphy, 17, Salem; B. G. Bryant, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leatherman, Eagle Point.

Mrs. Braught was killed east of Portland Friday in a three-vehicle crash at an intersection.

Joseph Reed, 70, driver of another vehicle, was in critical condition from chest injuries at Gresham General Hospital.

Mrs. Klinger died in a Hermiston hospital several hours after the car in which she was riding hit the rear of a logging truck parked along U. S. Highway 30 six miles south of Hermiston.

The driver of the car, Mrs. Irene Pearl Rauch, 72, also was injured.

The Murphy boy was killed and four other members of his family injured in a crash on Interstate Freeway 5 in Portland early Saturday. City Police said a car driven by Ernest L. Moore, Portland, made a U-turn on the freeway and struck the Murphy car head-on.

Attendants at St. Vincent Hospital listed Edward Murphy Sr. in fair condition with possible internal injuries. His wife, 3-year-old Edward Jr. and 4-year-old Kathleen were in good condition.

Bryant was pronounced dead on arrival at Gresham General Hospital Saturday morning after the car in which he was riding crashed on U.S. Highway 26 eight miles east of Sandy.

The driver, Daryl Lee Collins, 21, of Sandy was held in the Clackamas County jail on a charge of being drunk on a public highway. A grand jury also was scheduled to consider a negligent homicide indictment.

Leatherman, 62, and his wife, Elvira, 60, was killed in a head-on collision on U.S. Highway 99 about 12 miles north of Yreka, Calif., Friday. Jimmie Allen Holder, 39, of Drain was reported in serious condition at Siskiyou County General Hospital.
