Size Of The Heart Is What Counts

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Something has been troubling us girls in the office. We decided to ask you to explain the mystery. A certain woman who works with us is in her late twenties. She is highly intelligent, well-read and has a lovely face and stands about 5 feet, 10 inches—in her stocking feet.

Three months ago she began dating a homely little dried up runt who is at least six inches shorter than she is. He is a successful professional man, neat and pleasant, but they make such an odd-looking couple we can't understand how she could have accepted the first date with him. The guy looks like something that should be dangling from her charm bracelet.

When they are together she stands erect, in her high heels, and seems almost proud to be seen with him. What is wrong with her? Is she blind to reality? What can she be thinking? —FLOOR SIX INQUIRY

Dear Floor Six: She is probably thinking that he is a lovely human being with a fascinating mind and an engaging personality and that he is infinitely better company than some of the gorgeous guys who are tall, handsome and boring.

Dear Ann Landers: Someone asked you recently if your teeth were your own. I know good and well they are because of the unsympathetic way you answer people who have denture problems.

It's easy for you to sit there in Chicago with your own teeth and tell a woman in Texarkana that her husband is a stubborn mule because he refuses to go to the dentist and spend another $300 on a third set of choppers.

I've gone through the whole bit and it's murder. I lost 15 pounds while a certain dentist monkeyed around trying to get my teeth to fit. Finally I got disgusted, threw them in the ash can and went to another dentist. I told him he could make me a new set of teeth and I would pay if they fit. He agreed, and let me tell you those teeth were absolutely perfect from the minute he put them into my mouth.

Please tell people, Ann, that this is the way to get teeth that fit. Thank you. — SMILING CLYDE

Dear Clyde: My dental experts tell me that most new teeth need a minor adjustment here and there and that darned few dentists will guarantee a perfect fit from the very first chomp.

I'm glad you had such wonderful luck, however. Thank you for biting—I mean writing.

Dear Ann Landers: The man I am going with was divorced two years ago. Ward's wife was a real swinger and he sued for divorce after he walked in on her and the building superintendent. Ward was given custody of their three children with no trouble.

He does not pay her alimony and she has been supporting herself—(barely).

We plan to be married in about three months. Ward has a housekeeper who is sort of half-baked but she manages somehow to keep things going. I should tell you that I own a business and am definitely not the type who could stay at home.

Ward suggested last night that it might be a good idea to hire his ex-wife as our housekeeper. He said she would love it, and it would be very good for the kids. At first I was sure he was crazy, but after he pointed out all the advantages it didn't sound so bad. What do you think?—MAZIE

Dear Mazie: I think he IS crazy—and if you agree to this arrangement you deserve whatever happens. I can promise you it won't be anything good.

Sybil Burton Divorces Mate

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mrs. Sybil Burton divorced her actor husband, Richard Burton, Monday in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, where Burton and actress Elizabeth Taylor have been living, it was announced here Monday.

Mrs. Burton won the case on charges of abandonment and cruel and inhuman treatment. Miss Taylor was not named in the case.

The office of the Burton family attorney, Aaron Frosch, said that Mrs. Burton obtained custody of their two children, Katherine, 6, and Jessica, 4, the Burton home in Geneva, Switzerland, a trust fund for the two children, and a substantial fund for herself. Burton also retained a fund out of their community property.

Christmas Play Dated

BONANZA — Highlighting the holiday festivities in Bonanza will be the annual Bonanza School Christmas program. The high school and grade school will join forces on Dec. 19 to present "Origin of Our Christmas" at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The program will include the living Christmas tree scene, with Barbara Reid narrating the origin of the Christmas tree. The children will also sing "Jingle Bells" and "Christmas Gifts."

The origin of Santa Claus scene will feature the third grade singing "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" and Nondice McFall reading the origin of the Santa Claus legend.

The fifth grade will sing "The Wassail Song" and the scene will be an English home, pointing up the English custom of caroling. Mike Clark will give the history of wassailing and the Yule log.

The seventh grade will depict the scene of a German home in 1890 and sing "Oh Christmas Tree." Janice Schmidt will tell about a typical German Christmas and customs we have adopted.

The Bonanza High School band, under the direction of Kenneth Ketal, will play the prelude, and the glee club will present several Christmas selections. Charles Dobry Jr. is the teacher in charge of arrangements.

Ann Frank Case Halted

VIENNA (UPI) — Austrian authorities have "postponed indefinitely" a disciplinary investigation into the wartime activities of the Vienna policeman who arrested Anne Frank and her family in Amsterdam, police announced today.

A police spokesman said no reason was given for the decision of the Austrian judiciary. The investigation had been scheduled to start Tuesday.

Police inspector Karl Silberbauer, 52, who recently admitted arresting the author of "The Diary of Anne Frank" in August, 1944, was charged with a breach of discipline in concealing his part in the World War II drama.

Miss Frank died in a Nazi concentration camp to which she and her family were deported after police found their hiding place.

Silberbauer's wartime record with the gestapo was probed in 1954, when he was reinstated in the Vienna police.

Silberbauer was suspended in October when Jewish documentation center investigator Simon Wiesenthal informed the Austrian interior minister of his discovery of Silberbauer's role in the Anne Frank arrest.

He risked losing his job and long-service benefits if it was established that he concealed part of his wartime activities during his 1954 re-instatement hearings.

Yule Program

CHILOQUIN—The Christmas program of the Chiloquin Grade School will be held Thursday, Dec. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the grade school gym. Rosalee Hoback is the general chairman, with Agnes Pfieffer in charge of the music.

New Structure To Use Lumber

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Wood from Oregon will be used for the interior of the new federal building in Medford, Ore., Rep. Robert Duncan, D-Ore., has reported.

Duncan said the General Services Administration informed him of the plans. He also said the GSA reported that local manufacturers of pre-stressed concrete beams and other products would be given an opportunity to submit bids to contractors on the project.
