Michigan, Kentucky Near Top Of Ratings; Beavers Now 10th

NEW YORK (UPI) — Michigan and Kentucky moved up to challenge top-ranked Loyola of Chicago today in the United Press International college basketball ratings. The weekly standings were jumbled by a series of upsets.

Loyola's high-scoring Ramblers survived a close brush with the upset wave against Detroit and Western Michigan during the week and thus dropped four first-place ballots from last week. The undefeated Ramblers were ranked No. 1 by 28 of the 35 coaches on the UPI rating board this week.

Unbeaten Michigan, an early Big Ten crown, skipped three places to second, receiving three first-place ratings and totaling 245 points, 80 behind Loyola.

Kentucky, which has broken the 100-point mark three times in winning five straight, moved four positions to third with two first-place votes and 202 points.

Duke, one of five members of the top 10 last week to be upset, dropped from second to fourth; Cincinnati gained one position to fifth and UCLA, unbeaten in four tests, jumped from 14th to sixth.

NYU, upset by Toledo, fell to seventh from third and Texas advanced a notch to eighth.

Vanderbilt, another high-scoring outfit which dropped Duke last week, vaulted from 16th to ninth with five consecutive wins; and two powerful smaller universities, Davidson and Toledo, both with six straight victories, tied Oregon State for 10th.

Minnesota, Wichita and Arizona State rated 13-14-15 in order followed by Oklahoma City 16th, Kansas State 17th and Creighton 18th.

Bradley finished 19th and Georgia Tech and Villanova tied for 20th.

United Press International college basketball ratings with first-place votes and won-lost records through games of Saturday, Dec. 14, in parentheses:

49er Coach Awaits Big Decision

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jack Christiansen probably will find out next week if he will coach the San Francisco Forty Niners in 1964.

Christiansen, choice of the players to continue, met Monday with club president Vic Morabito, but the youthful Forty Niner coach said they discussed only last Saturday's 21-17 loss to Green Bay which gave San Francisco a 2-12 record for the year.

The Forty Niners announced that they had signed 210-pound fullback Ollie Ross of West Texas State. He was a 13th round draft pick as a red-shirt in 1962.

Ross gained 950 yards on 182 carries in his college career.

Licenses To Expire

Hunters and fishermen are reminded that a new year is about to begin. As such their old hunting and fishing licenses will expire on the last day of December.

Hunting and fishing licenses for 1964 must be in possession Jan. 1 if outdoorsmen intend to start the New Year with a trip to the duck blind or to a hot-spot steelhead hole.

Waterfowl hunters and fishermen will be affected most by the new license requirement since fishing is available in many areas of the state through the winter months, and the waterfowl season will extend through Jan. 5. The old duck stamp remains valid through the waterfowl season, but steelheaders will also require a 1964 salmon-steelhead punch card.

The game commission said that license fees remain at the same old rate of $7 for combination; $4 for hunting; $4 for fishing. The salmon-steelhead tag remains at $1.

Resident juveniles 14 through 17 may purchase hunting (except big game) and fishing licenses for $2 each. No license is required for juveniles under 14 except for big game.

The game commission advised that all anglers must have the salmon-steelhead punch card in possession while angling for these fish. The punch card, which may be obtained at any license vendor, is issued free to juveniles under 14.

Red Raider Aid Probe Welcomed

ASHLAND (UPI) — Ed Singmaster, president of the Red Raider Boosters, said today he would welcome a full investigation into the athletic scholarship program at Southern Oregon College.

Singmaster said that "in the interest of athletics in general and in order to clarify the situation at SOC, I would welcome an investigation." He also said he would "welcome a complete airing by Oregon Collegiate Conference officials."

The boosters are an organization of business and professional people in the Ashland-Medford area.

Singmaster's statement came following charges last week by Dr. Alex Petersen that there were irregularities in SOC's athletic scholarship program. Petersen said he had resigned as chairman of the physical education department at SOC and that it had been accepted.

Dr. Elmo Stevenson, the college's president, said Petersen would be retained in a teaching capacity as a professor of health and recreation.

Chisox' Top Rookie Takes ERA Crown

BOSTON (UPI) — Gary Peters, a 26-year-old left-hander who had failed in three previous tries with the Chicago White Sox, today officially became the first rookie since 1951 to lead the American League in earned run average.

Official figures compiled by the Howe News Bureau disclose the 6-foot, 2-inch, 200-pound speedballer posted a 2.31 ERA to edge out teammate Juan Pizarro's 2.39 ERA. Camilo Pascual of the Minnesota Twins was third with 2.47 and

Jimmy Brown Unanimous Pro All-Star Choice; Chicago, NY Giants Place Five

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns, pro football's greatest running back, regained his place on the United Press International's 1963 National League all-star team today by unanimous acclaim.

The Chicago Bears, Green Bay Packers and New York Giants each placed five men on the 22-man, two-platoon team; the St. Louis Cardinals had three representatives; the Detroit Lions two and the Browns and Minnesota Vikings one each.

Brown, who set an NFL rushing record of 1,883 yards this season, was the only player to receive the votes of every one of the 42 regular league writers who selected this team for UPI. The panel was made up of three writers from each league city.

The 230-pound Cleveland fullback thus won back the first team all-star berth he lost in 1962 because of a so-so season. Prior to 1962, Brown had made the UPI first team in each of his first five seasons as a pro. Roosevelt Brown, 255-pound

Giants offensive tackle, was honored for the eighth consecutive season; center Jim Ringo of the Packers for the fifth straight year; and offensive tackle Forrest Gregg and linebacker Bill Forester of Green Bay and defensive back Dick (Night Train) Lane of Detroit each for the fourth year in a row.

Jimmy Brown was chosen for the backfield that included quarterback Y. A. Title of the Giants, halfback Tommy Mason of the Vikings and flanker Bobby Joe Conrad of the Cardinals.

Del Shofner of the Giants was selected as the split end, Mike Ditka of the Bears as tight end; Rosey Brown and Gregg at tackles; Jerry Kramer of Green Bay and Ken Gray of St. Louis at guards, and Ringo at center.

Four members of the Bears won places on the defensive team. They were end Doug Atkins, linebackers Joe Fortunato and Bill George, and safetyman Rich Petitbon.

The other defensive players honored were end Jim Katcavage of the Giants; tackles Henry Jordan of Green Bay and Roger Brown of Detroit; Forester at linebacker; Dick Lynch of the Giants and Lane at corner halfbacks, and Petitbon and Larry Wilson of the Cards at safety.

The repeaters from last year's first team included seven players on offense but only five on defense. The offensive players also honored last year were Tittle, Shofner, Ditka, Gregg, Rosey Brown, Jerry Kramer and Ringo. The defensive repeaters were Katcavage, Jordan, Roger Brown, Forester and Lane.

Angeles-Bums Set Spring Camp Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers and the youthful Los Angeles Angels today both announced their spring training exhibition schedules, climaxed by the city series between the two clubs.

The Dodgers and Angels meet April 11 and 12 at the stadium they share in Chavez Ravine. In three previous encounters between the two clubs, the Angels have won all three games, sweeping the two - game series last April and beating the Dodgers in 1962 in a single game at Palm Springs.

The Dodgers open their exhibition season of 29 games with three clashes in Mexico City, March 13-15, returning to their Vero Beach, Fla., training camp for 24 games in Florida before flying to Los Angeles for the city championship series.

During their Florida sojourn, the Dodgers play every team training in that state at least once. This year, for the first time since the Dodgers came west, they are skipping encounters with teams training in Arizona.

The Angels play 13 games at their Palm Springs, Calif., spring camp with a schedule that calls for the club to be at home at Angels Stadium on the desert every weekend except when they meet the Dodgers in Los Angeles.

Immediately after the second game with the Dodgers April 12, the Angels fly to Washington for the presidential opener of the American League against the Senators. The Dodgers open the regular season at home April 14 against the St. Louis Cardinals.

Parseghian Avoids Irish Grid Contract

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ara Parseghian had conferences scheduled today with Northwestern Athletic Director Stu Holcomb and Notre Dame Vice President Rev. Edmund P. Joyce to attempt to resolve whether he is football coach for the Wildcats or the Irish.

Parseghian, coach at Northwestern for eight years, was announced Saturday as the new Notre Dame mentor. But Monday, after a two hour conference with Joyce, he refused to sign the Notre Dame contract and came home.

He had planned to confer with Holcomb Monday night about his status at Northwestern and in search of friendly advice on his situation with Notre Dame.

But at the last minute, he canceled the appointment to attend a sports banquet at Grand Rapids, Mich., an appearance he had attempted to cancel.

"He's mentally and physically exhausted," his wife said. "I don't know why he went."

Failure to agree on terms of the Irish contract did not mean that Parseghian wouldn't accept the new job in the next few days.
