

Widow Of Former Partner Testifies At Baker Hearing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The widow of Robert G. (Bobby) Baker's former partner told Senate investigators Tuesday how she and her husband split a $4,000 stock deal melon with Baker. She said they had no thought that the ex-Senate official used any "influence" in the transaction.

The attractive blonde witness, Mrs. Gertrude V. Novak, also said the death of her husband.

Alfred S. Novak was not attributable to his financial relations with Baker. She said the death was an accident—not suicide as local officials ruled.

Baker resigned his $19,600 job as Senate Democratic secretary on Oct. 7 after disclosure of his wide-ranging outside activities in stocks, real estate, insurance and other fields.

Mrs. Novak opened the first public hearing by the Senate Rules Committee with the testimony that she believes her husband's death was "definitely accidental."

But her initial testimony dealt primarily with a deal in which the Novaks put up all the money, $12,000, to buy stock of the Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Co. (MGIC) of Milwaukee on Baker's recommendation—and then split the profits with the 35-year-old Senate official.

Under questioning, Mrs. Novak testified that:

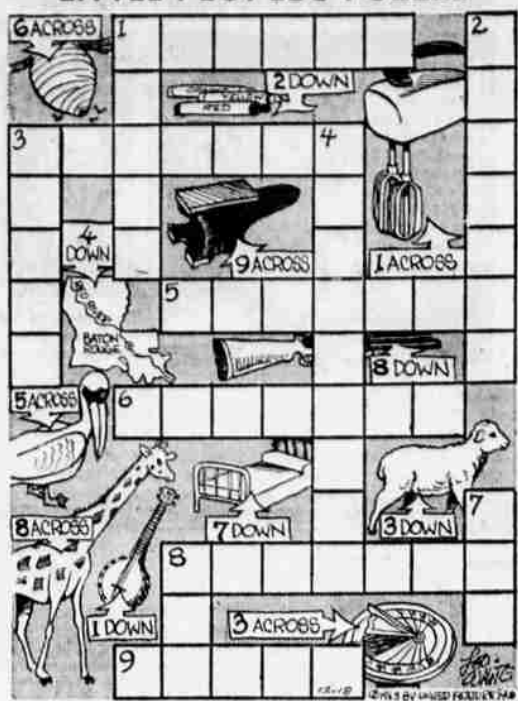

—She and her husband never were involved in any other transaction in which they put up all the money and split the profits with a third party.

—She did not learn until later that Baker had holdings in MGIC stock other than that in which they shared. Part of their profits were placed immediately in an account for construction of the Carousel Motel in Ocean City, Md., another joint venture with Baker.

Novak's death was ruled a suicide by local authorities. He had been Baker's partner in construction of the Carousel Motel at Ocean City, Md. He was found dying in the garage of his suburban Maryland home.

Husband Fears After-40 Sex Life

By AN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: There will be no name or address on this one, Ann, because my husband opens all the mail. Please reply in the paper if you can change the words around and make my letter printable.

My husband's closest friend dropped dead of a heart attack six months ago at the age of 44. This man had always been in excellent health, played a great game of tennis and was a leader in all sorts of civic activities. He had been a bachelor until eight months before his death. His wife was 18 years his junior.

My husband told me the day after the funeral that he is sure his friend's coronary was brought on by his marriage. He claims that sex after a certain age is damaging to the heart.

To come to the point, Ann, my husband hasn't touched me since his friend was buried and I don't know what to do. There has been no discussion, he just finds excuses to stay up later than I do every night. My husband is 41 and I am 38. Please help me.—OUT OF MY MIND.

Dear Out: Your husband's theory is invalid. Some bachelors who marry in their 40's have a far less strenuous sex life as husbands than they ever had as bachelors.

The death of your husband's close friend has obviously had a traumatic effect on him. He should discuss the problem with a doctor at once. Refusal could mean a shattered marriage.

Dear Ann Landers: I was a mother who yelled herself hoarse trying to get my children to do things. One day I woke up to the realization that yelling at children only produces resentment and makes them more hostile than ever.

My husband occasionally would step in and resort to drill sergeant methods. He got surface obedience, but he lost their affection. Finally, together we hit on a totally different technique—and it works!

When punishment is in order our children get it promptly—a swat on the bottom, or the loss of a privilege. We have cut out scolding and nagging and have substituted praise instead. We took the emphasis off the things they did wrong and placed it on things they did right.

It's hard to believe they are the same kids. Instead of bickering and sulking they cooperate with one another and strive for our approval. Anyone who is grumpy and cross is ignored. The cheerful, pleasant child gets to do interesting things and is rewarded with smiles and hugs and compliments.

This is no fairy tale, Ann, it is a method that actually works. Try it.—EX-YELLER

Dear Ex-Yeller: Of course it works, but it takes patience and understanding, and many mothers are too immature and short tempered to try it.

Children respond to approval, affection and suggestion. If a more readily than they respond to yelling and commands. Thank you for saying it so well. I hope the shriekers will follow your excellent suggestion.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a woman in my 70's and have been very friendly for over 30 years with my next door neighbor. Mrs. X says she is 79 but people who are in a position to know say she is closer to 83.

Mrs. X does not see well and she is as deaf as a door nail. She insists on driving her car everywhere and is forever offering me a ride.

I'm afraid to ride with her and my children have begged me not to. Strangely enough she has never had an accident, which I think is a miracle. Please tell me what to do.—D. D. E.

Dear D. D. E.: The kind of driver you describe may not have accidents but she can cause them. Arrange for other transportation whenever she calls to offer you a ride.
