BASIN BRIEFS

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT WISHART and family have moved to Silver Lake where he will work on the Mable Shoemaker ranch. For the past several years, Wishart has been employed at the Fremont Farms, owned by John Withers, Summer Lake.

ADAMS LUMBER MILL in Paisley closed down for the winter months on Friday, Dec. 6.

BONANZA FIREMEN and Bonanza Firebells have arranged for Santa Claus to visit Bonanza at 7 p.m. on Dec. 21. He will have gifts for all, and a party will be held at the decorated living Christmas tree in Bonanza Park, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in memory of Mrs. Walter Casper. All children are invited. Mrs. John Brown is chairman of the party.

MRS. JANE BROWN and Mrs. Lester Jones of Paisley spent a few days in Grants, Pa. with relatives and friends.

ROGER REED was elected to serve five years on the Bonanza Rural Fire District Board. Other directors are Henry Oberlander, Richard Brown, Keith Turner and Agnar Jorgensen. Lloyd Sparks is fire chief.

MR. AND MRS. EDGAR DOWNING had as recent visitors, his father, F. M. Downing, San Jose, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crowder, Big Creek, Calif. Later they enjoyed a visit with their son and daughter, In-law Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Downing, Jr., and three children, Mrs. Gilroy and grandson, Steven Sargent, San Jose.

Checking Bill Not So Dumb

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I am the mother of two teen-age girls. I take violent exception to some of your advice. My daughters read your column regularly and yesterday I had to hide the newspaper so they wouldn't see it.

Why do you persist in telling young girls that they are under no obligation to tell their fiancés about past indiscretions? Such advice encourages them to lie.

Don't you think it makes a more sane suggestion that girls refrain from doing things they may be ashamed of later? If they do not tell their fiancés about past indiscretions, they will be ashamed of later.

Dear Kate: Any person who pays a bill without looking at it is a chump. Inquiries should be pleasant and not sound like the Second Spanish Inquisition.

Waters make mistakes and so do machines. If you have been paying your bills without a purty oath.

I do not tell girls to lie, nor do I suggest that they pose as something they are not. I merely let them know that a real man is willing to accept a girl as she is. He does not demand a purty oath.

Such advice is too late, however, for girls who have already done things they're ashamed of.

Dear Ann Landers: I wish I had a dollar for every mother-in-law who burned the newspapers which carried your column the other day. I refer to the letter from "Miserable" and your superb advice that the third party who undermines a marriage should be removed from the picture.

As a man who was dedicated to family life, I know how right you are. I am compelled to live a lonely life, apart from a wife I adore. My children are forced to bear the burdens of a broken home — and they're growing up with no male influence in their lives.

Please keep repeating your sound philosophy, Ann. I hope that others for whom it is not too late will heed your words of wisdom and profit from your uncommon, common sense. — N. Y. CASUALTY

Dear N. Y.: Thank you for taking the time and trouble to write. A word from one who has been there is always especially meaningful.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store.
