STUFFED POTATOES

Tuna Stuffed Potatoes have both eye and taste appeal. The hearty fare is fussless to make, too. Scoop out baked potatoes; mash, adding some grated onion, salt, pepper, a beaten egg, butter and milk to make a good consistency. Fill shell with the mashed potato, heaping the mixture up and then indenting the top with the back of a spoon. Top with a mixture of tuna, diced tomato, salt and a dash of cayenne. Heat in a moderate oven and serve.

CITRUS-CRANBERRY PUNCH

(12 punch-cup servings)
 1 pint cranberry - juice cocktail, chilled
 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
 1 29-ounce bottle ginger ale, chilled
 1 California orange, unpeeled, cut into cart-wheels
 1 pint vanilla ice cream or sherbet
 Sprinkle of nutmeg, mace, ginger or cinnamon

In punch bowl, combine cranberry-juice cocktail, lemon juice and ginger ale. Add vanilla ice cream or sherbet. Serve in small mugs or punch cups garnished with half orange cart-wheels. Sprinkle with a spice for additional flavor.

MERRY CHRISTMAS — During the holidays is the most festive time of the year to invite friends in for lunch or dinner and pineapple is a standby in helping plan your menu. The Star Salad is particularly colorful when served on clear glass and it's easy to prepare. Make it ahead of time and store in the refrigerator.

Eggnog is a drink consisting of eggs beaten up with sugar, milk, cream and rum or brandy, sometimes wine. It usually is served cold, flavored with grated nutmeg.

BE READY

Prepare this vegetable casserole ahead of time and avoid last-minute rushing with company dinners. Place lightly cooked cauliflowerettes and drained canned small white onions in baking dish. Cover with dash of Sherry. Sprinkle with slivered or chopped almonds and a dash paprika. Bake in moderate oven about 30 minutes before serving.

Pineapple Salad For Holiday Fare

Get into the holiday mood by planning your party menus now. Canned pineapple, as fragrant and refreshing as the day it left the tropics, comes ready to use in five different forms. It's a favorite standby for adding zip to molded salads and or making beautiful garnishes.

Take a tip from popular hostesses and select festive looking molds to show off salads elegantly. These recipes are designed around a whole can of pineapple—both fruit and syrup. One is rich and creamy with cheddar cheese, lemon and mustard accenting the crushed pineapple. It's a favorite in the Pacific Islands where it is sometimes known as "yum yum salad." And after you taste it you'll know the reason why. A garland of canned pineapple slices with their edges rolled in bright spicy paprika adds a handsome decorative touch.

In contrast the sparkling star-shaped cranberry mold is filled with pineapple tidbits and fresh winter fruits—a pretty salad to garnish with frosted grapes.
