

Shockers, 'Cats Continue Winning

By United Press International
Jeff Mullins, the "other guy" on the Duke basketball team last season, has developed into the Blue Devils' "big guy" this season.

Not that Mullins was any slouch last year, finishing with a 20.3 per game average, but he usually played second fiddle to spectacular teammate Art Heyman. Heyman has since graduated to the pros, leaving the field open for Mullins to fully demonstrate his abilities.

Mullins put on another brilliant show Thursday night, pouring in 30 points to lead fourth-ranked Duke to an 84-73 victory over Virginia at Durham, N.C. It was the second time this season Mullins had scored 30 or more points in a game. He is chiefly responsible for the Blue Devils' 6-1 record.

Turns Back Rally
The burly 6-4 senior was on the spot when needed most and personally turned back a determined Virginia rally by scoring eight straight points after the Cavaliers had narrowed the Duke lead to 40-46 early in the second half.

A well-balanced Wichita team, determined to end Cincinnati's domination of the Missouri Valley Conference this season, came up with another strong effort to overcome Minnesota, 71-65.

In other major games Thursday night Oklahoma City tripped Texas A&M, 80-70. Houston upended Mississippi State, 69-61. Texas Tech whipped Auburn, 83-71. Illinois trounced Butler, 74-53. Marquette beat Iowa State, 67-62, and Eastern Kentucky defeated Syracuse, 90-72.

Wichita, trailing 33-32 at halftime, rallied behind the 15-point second-half production of Len Kelley to boost its record to 6-2. Dave Leach led the Wheatshockers in scoring with 21 points while Mel Northway had 23 for Minnesota.

Tournaments Enter Scene
College tournaments heralding the approach of the holiday season are making their appearance. Indiana Central won the Capital City tournament by beating Earlham, 83-67, and Elon nipped East Carolina, 71-70 for the Camp Lejeune Christmas tournament championship.

The Quantico Marines will meet Austin Peay tonight in the final round of the Quantico tournament.

Elsewhere Thursday night, Boston University beat Seton Hall 79-63; Trinity (Conn.) surprised Harvard, 74-72; Canisius ripped Western Ontario, 92-58; Rhode Island defeated St. John's, 75-65; Boston College topped Colby, 97-80; Miami of Florida routed Collins, 100-90; West Texas State beat Murray State, 79-74; Texas Western stopped Tennessee Tech, 64-48, and Utah trounced Washington State, 107-71.

Rated Prep Teams Play

By United Press International
Eight of the top ranked 10 teams are in action this weekend in pre-holiday high school basketball games.

Only top-ranked South Eugene and fourth-ranked Sunset are not scheduled.

Medford, rated No. 2, plays Willamette in a pair of games in Eugene tonight and Saturday. Third-ranked Grant, eighth-rated Jefferson and 10th-ranked Marshall all have Portland Interscholastic League encounters tonight. Grant is host to Washington, Jefferson is at Lincoln and Marshall is host to Benson.

In other non-conference games tonight, Central Catholic, ranked fifth, plays at Jesuit; seventh-ranked Sandy is host to Oregon City, and ninth-ranked North Eugene is host to Junction City. Tigard, No. 6, is at home against Gresham Saturday night.

Coquille, the state's top class A-2 team in the poll, plays Stiuslaw at Florence tonight and is home against Newport Saturday night.

Knicks' Barrage Fails With Celts

By United Press International
Even a screaming 88 can't demolish the mechanically perfect Boston Celtics.

The New York Knickerbockers loosed weapons of every caliber Thursday night, including an 88-point barrage in the second half, but fell short as the Celtics scored a 143-140 victory and increased their Eastern Division lead in the National Basketball Association to six games.

Committee Working For Rules

ETNA — The fish and game committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Siskiyou County is coordinating its efforts with those of the Northern California Wildlife Conservation Association according to J. D. Proctor, Etna, chairman of the group.

Current objectives of the Siskiyou County committee are the protection of local interests in the formulation of hunting and fishing regulations. Endorsement of election of fish and game commissioners rather than appointment of this body by the governor has been granted by the Inter-County Chamber of Commerce of Northern California representing 17 member chambers in seven counties. The Northern California Wildlife Conservation Association is affiliated with Northern California rod and gun clubs representing a membership of over 5,000. Everett Warren of Weed, president of this group, assured Proctor at a recent joint meeting.

The request of these three bodies for support for legislation to provide fish and game commissioner election was placed under study of the natural resources committee of the Northern California Supervisors Association at the meeting in Redding last weekend.

Proctor, a professional guide, said all three groups are watching developments in Oregon where steps are also being taken to provide for election of the fish and game commissioners.

LEBARON NAMED VP

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Eddie LeBaron, who played 11 years as a National Football League quarterback with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Redskins, Thursday was named an executive vice president of the Nevada Cement Company. LeBaron, 33, retired from NFL play after last Sunday's Dallas game.

Another Honor: Brown Named Player Of Year

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Cleveland Browns fullback Jimmy Brown, named the 1963 National Football League player-of-the-year by United Press International, today credited the honor to "opportunity, luck, my teammates and head Coach Blanton Collier."

"I'm extremely happy to receive the award especially this year because it was sort of a comeback for me," Brown said. In 1962 Brown, who had romped to five straight rushing titles, fell to second place, picking up "only" 996 yards.

Brown, who gained 1,863 yards with a 6.4 average for 291 carries to lead Cleveland to a second place finish in the Eastern Conference this campaign, said "there are many factors involved when a player is so honored."

"I was given every opportunity to run the ball this year and when a runner receives this, he has a chance to do things," Brown said. "I also had many chances to run outside, that's when it's possible to break loose for the long gainers."

The former Syracuse All-American said "Collier expressed confidence in all players and enabled them to utilize their fullest potential."

"Brown is the greatest football player I've ever known and probably is one of the greatest players of the century," Collier said after being notified of Brown's honor.

"Anyone who reads the sports pages or watches football knows of Brown's exploits on the field," the coach said, "in addition, he is a great leader and his leadership helped the team. His attitude in practice undoubtedly had a good effect on all players."

Brown was tapped for the honor by edging New York Giants' ace quarterback Y.A. Tittle, 22-19. The only other vote went to defensive back Dick Lynch of the Giants, who established a record of three touchdown runs on intercepted passes.

A panel of 42 writers who covered NFL games regularly (three from each league city) voted the honor to the Cleveland standout.

Brown said he was lucky because "I wasn't hurt this season. Sometimes a player can't regain his sharpness after an injury."

TEEN-AGE TENPINNER

8--Finish It

By JUDY AUDSLEY (Brunswick Advisory Staff) Written for NEA

Too many young bowlers, and a lot of their elders, too, over-rely in the slide and ball release. This is a big mistake. Control is extremely important.

The slide and ball release can be called the moment of truth. The well-timed and controlled delivery sends a high scoring ball into the pocket. Sloppiness results in an off-target ball regardless of how perfect the swing may be. Use up to 3 gutter balls.

Keep your eye on the target—whether it be spot or pins—and your mind on the business at hand until the ball has left the hand and you have completed the follow through.

Roll the ball. Don't make the common mistake of trying to thrust it at the pins.

DIANE learns from Judy how to go into smooth release with eyes and attention on target.

Mumps End Team Visit

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—For the first time in the 39-year history of the East-West Shrine game, the players were unable to visit the crippled children of Shriners Hospital for whom the game was played.

Two of the children and one nurse have caught the mumps and the hospital was quarantined.

LONDON'S FATHER DIES

BLOCKPOOL, England (UPI)—Jack London, father of former British heavyweight champion Brian London, was found dead in his home Thursday night. The elder London, 40, defeated Freddie Mills for the British and Empire heavyweight crowns in 1944.

Nominees Include Jim Owens

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI)—Jim Owens, University of Washington football coach, was nominated Thursday as one of eight major college coaches for the Eastman Kodak Coach of the Year award.

You meet the nicest people on a Honda

Maybe it's the incredibly low price. Or the fantastic mileage. It could be the precision engineering. Or the safety and convenience features. But most likely it's the fun. Evidently nothing catches on like the fun of owning a Honda. You see so many around these days. And the nicest people riding them. Merry Christmas.

Some people think it never needs service.

It's easy to get that impression. How many other makes have been driven 60,000 miles with the original pistons and cylinders intact? How many ordinarily get 40,000 miles on the same tires?

That doesn't mean the Volkswagen never needs service, it does.

To get the most out of it, have your VW serviced regularly. We call it preventive maintenance. We'll give you a book on preventive maintenance for the first 30,000 miles you drive. And every 30,000 miles after that.

In the book for new VWs, for instance, coupons start you off with two free maintenance services. One at 300 miles. One at 3,000 miles. After that, the coupons remind you to bring your VW in for specified services at regular intervals. It's the best way to keep your VW in top shape.

Service is so important that Volkswagen won't sell cars where they can't be properly handled. By factory-trained mechanics. Like ours.

Parts are economical and quickly installed.

There isn't a Volkswagen made that you can't get parts for easily. Most are interchangeable from year to year. (You can have a 1963 fender put on your '58 model with 10 bolts. It fits perfectly.) We pride ourselves on this fact: Our service is as good as the car. Ask anybody.
