WALL STREET

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks closed lower today under pressure of profit taking and tax loss selling.

Brokers said that the heavy amount of tax loss selling reflects the fact that next Tuesday is the last day on which profits can be taken and credited to 1963 income for tax purposes under the "regular way." This is delivery which isn't made until the fourth business day following the date of the sale.

MRS. GRACE COLAHAN

Pioneer Resident Succumbs

Mrs. Grace Virginia Clanton Colahan, 74, member of a pioneer Klamath Basin family, died Dec. 18. She had not been previously ill. Death apparently resulted from a stroke.

Mrs. Colahan was born in Sonoma County, California, May 6, 1889, and came to the Oklahoma Valley near Dorris, Calif., when a child.

She was married July 4, 1907, to James W. Colahan and the couple came to Klamath County to make their home.

She is survived by three sons, Clanton W. Colahan, Arnold V. Colahan and James P. Colahan, all of Klamath County; three daughters, Alice M. Thomas, Charlotte J. Detroit, Catherine Bricco, Klamath County; a sister, Gertride Colahan, Hildebrand; a brother, Dave M. Clanton, Tulelake; 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Saturday, Dec. 21, at 2 p.m. from O'Hair's Memorial Chapel, with Rev. Laing Sibbet of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church officiating. Final rites and interment will be in the family plot in Linkville Cemetery.

Two Autos Ransacked

State police are investigating thefts from two autos in the South Suburban area Thursday night.

G. E. Smith reported at 8:10 p.m. that two bottles of liquor —one of rum and one of brandy —were taken from his car parked in the Town and Country Shopping Center. A window was unlocked.

Francis McNealey, 2437 Kane Street, reported at 10:50 that a car was broken into at Lucky Lanes and six books of trading stamps, a blanket and several items of baby and adult clothing were taken. They were destined to be Christmas presents and belonged to Hazel McCullough.

State police urged shoppers to lock their cars so as to discourage thieves. Authorities suggested that packages be locked in the trunks of cars.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, Dec. 21, 2 p.m. in O'Hair's Memorial Chapel. Interment Linkville Cemetery.

Foster Testifies At Murder Trial

Archibald Foster, a 26-year-old Salem man, took the stand on his own behalf today and denied any knowledge of the fatal shooting of Mrs. Eunice Biss, 37, in Beatty April 22.

He was the last of four witnesses for the defense, which rested its case about 10:30. No rebuttal was expected to be forthcoming from the prosecution and arguments were expected to begin this afternoon.

Foster has been indicted for first-degree murder and his case is being tried in the Circuit Court of Judge Donald A. W. Piper.

Foster said he left Beatty in the afternoon of April 22 with Miss Wilma Williams and they drove to Klamath Falls. He said when he left, Mrs. Biss was still alive.

He said he heard about the shooting only the next morning over the radio.

Foster said he and Miss Williams left Beatty after they, Mrs. Biss and James Godowa had made a trip to Bly for liquor. He said he left Mrs. Biss and Godowa in front of the Marvin Thompson residence in Beatty.

Thompson has testified he saw Foster shoot into a car containing Mrs. Biss and Miss Williams that afternoon. Mrs. Biss' body was later found in the car.

Foster admitted to a record of a number of assault and other misdemeanor cases to which he has pleaded guilty in Lakeview, Salem and Portland.

Other defense witnesses who testified Thursday afternoon and today were Mr. and Mrs. Woody Joe of Beatty and Mrs. Bill "Cookie" Walker of Beatty.

The Joes testified they heard shots April 22 and Mrs. Walker testified as to how authorities were notified of Mrs. Biss' death over her telephone.

The prosecution rested its case Thursday afternoon after calling two policemen and a ballistics expert.

The policemen were Deputy Sheriff Lou Bogart and State Police Cpl. Larry Bergmann. They described Foster's arrest April 24 in Klamath Falls and Bogart said the only weapon he could locate in connection with the case was an 8-millimeter Mauser in the trunk of the car in which Mrs. Biss' body was found.

But Ralph Prouty, assistant director of the Oregon State Police crime laboratory, said in his opinion a bullet jacket found next to Mrs. Biss' body came from a 25-35 Winchester, and could not have been fired from the Mauser.

The prosecution has produced no weapon in the case, and police have said they were unable to find one.

The jury hearing the case is composed of six men and six women, with a woman alternate.

Man Booked For Assault

A 32-year-old Lakeview man is being held on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon for slashing a woman on the cheek in a Klamath Falls restaurant.

Police said the woman, 33-year-old Ethel Mae Hood, 805 North Ninth, Lakeview, suffered a non-serious cut on her right cheek.

Officers said the pair entered the downtown restaurant Thursday night and began arguing. Police said Johnson struck the woman over the head and was ejected from the restaurant.

But, they said, he came back and started hitting her again. Finally, they said, he pulled a knife and slashed her cheek.

Meanwhile, police had been called, and they arrived a few seconds later and took the knife from Johnson.

Rider Hurt As Cycle Hits Truck

TULELAKE — Paddy Messersmith, 24, is reported in critical condition in Klamath Valley Hospital with head injuries following a collision between his motorcycle and a diesel semi-truck and trailer at Hatfield in Siskiyou County about 9:30 a.m. Friday. Details are incomplete. Messersmith is from Orland.

It is reported that the victim was on State Highway 139 when the truck and trailer, loaded with potatoes from the Levy & Zentner potato cellar at Adams Point, pulled onto the highway bound for a cold storage cellar in Tulelake.

Driver of the truck was Lou Matteuccia of Orland, Calif. He was uninjured. Matteuccia apparently did not see the approaching motorcycle which skidded for some distance on the slick highway when the rider applied the brakes, sliding into the truck.

He was thrown into the borrow pit. He was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital by the Tulelake ambulance.

Messersmith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Messersmith, now living in Washington. The family former lived here.

Theft Try Fails Again

City police are investigating the latest in a series of purse snatches which have plagued women in the downtown area in recent weeks.

It was reported Thursday afternoon that two teenage boys tried to steal the purse of a woman on Eighth Street Wednesday evening.

Helen Egan, 607 Roseway, said she was walking up Eighth about 7:30 p.m. Wednesday when two boys grabbed her purse away from her when the strap broke, but dropped the bag when she screamed. The pair ran away.

Police said the boys were apparently the same ones that tried to snatch another purse in that same area Wednesday night.

Man Faces Theft Count

Jack James Wilson, 43, was arrested in a Klamath Falls motel room Thursday on a warrant from Siskiyou County charging him with grand theft.

Wilson, arrested by city police, waived extradition and was returned to Yreka to face the charges.

Police recovered all of the items Wilson is accused to have taken from a Tulelake hotel Tuesday. Found in his room here were a pistol, a rifle, a typewriter, six checks worth a total of $75 and $50 in cash.

Police said Wilson had been an employe of the Sportsman's Hotel in Tulelake, where the theft occurred.

Kingsley Field Slates Annual Children's Party

The city - famous Melody Mothers are the featured program at the Kingsley Field annual children's Christmas party, scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 21, at the Officers' Open Mess at the base. The party will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Santa will arrive promptly at 1:30 in a bright red Kingsley Fire Department pumper, and will enter the ballroom, giving away Christmas stockings filled with candy. Children may talk with Santa Claus and give him the proper instructions. Meanwhile, the Melody Mothers will entertain with a program of songs.

All will be treated to free refreshments—ice cream, cookies and punch. The party will end at 3:30, when the base theatre opens for a one-hour color cartoon show. Admission for the special children's matinee is one can of food for the needy, to be placed in the red barrel at the theater door.

All base children, dependents of military or civilian workers, are invited to the party and matinee.

SKATING CLASSES SLATED — The city Parks and Recreation Department this year is offering ice skating classes at the ice rink near Moore Park. Starting times and enrollment procedures will be announced at a later date. Here, the instructor in the class, Mrs. Gail Carter of Klamath Falls, right, shows a few pointers to Ann Favell, a first-grader at Roosevelt School, who will be one of her students. Mrs. Carter taught the class last year. She is a former member of the Sonja Henie Ice Revue.

KF Trucker Escapes Fatal California Crash

FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) — A truck driver believed to be from Southern California was killed early today when he was trapped in the cab of his burning truck following a collision with another truck.

The victim was tentatively identified as Arthur Payne, of Montclair, Calif., a driver for the Western Forest Products Co. of Los Angeles.

The California Highway Patrol said the truck, which was hauling lumber, exploded into flames when it rammed the rear of another truck eight miles north of here on U. S. Highway 99 near the Madera County line.

The driver of the first truck Lawrence Keith Senecal, 37, of Klamath Falls, Ore., told the Highway Patrol the lumber truck was on fire by the time he was able to reach it and the driver was trapped inside the cab, screaming for help.

Senecal and a passing motorist, William Graybeal, a captain in the Richmond, Calif., fire department, eventually freed the driver but he was already burned beyond recognition.

Senecal, who was hauling canned goods, and his 14-year-old son, who was riding with him, were not injured.

Lumber from the dead driver's truck blocked both southbound lanes of the highway for two hours after the accident, which occurred about 4:15 a.m.

Furniture Store Entered; Thieves Get About $1,000

Bush Furniture, 221 Main Street, was hit Thursday night by burglars who escaped with about $1,000 from the cash register.

Jerry Jennings, manager of store, reported the break-in at 12:21 this morning. He said he had gone into the store to use the telephone and discovered the burglary, which occurred sometime after 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

Police found the burglars had pried open a rear door to gain entry. Besides the cash, they also tried to steal a safe, but were unable to remove it.

The safe was empty.

Police also are investigating the attempted burglary of the Snappy Service Cafe, 1008 Main Street, Thursday night. Someone tried to force the rear door of the cafe, but was unsuccessful.

Mother Dies After Illness

Mrs. Devere Helfrich of Klamath Falls was called to Brightwood, Ore., by the death of her mother, Mrs. P. L. Rogan, 76, on Dec. 14, at the Physicians' and Surgeons' Hospital in Portland. She had been in failing health for some time.

Funeral services in Gresham, Dec. 18, were followed by final rites and interment in the family plot at Redmond.

Mrs. Rogan, who came to Oregon in 1905 had visited several times in Klamath Falls.

A second daughter, Margaret Ann Fielding, lives in Brentwood. Also surviving are two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

'Y' Slates Yule Party

The Klamath Falls YMCA will celebrate "Christmas Around the World" tonight, beginning at 6:30.

Foreign students from Oregon Technical Institute will be the guests of the YMCA and will relate Christmas customs in their countries. YMCA families were asked to bring one hot dish, salad or dessert, beverages for children and table service for the "Family Night" program.

After the potluck supper, there will be a program, carol singing and recreational facilities will be available.

Pair Arrested In Theft Of Drugs At Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN — A woman and man were arrested Thursday night as they came out of a Chiloquin drug store with more than 800 Nebutal tablets, and police said the pair is believed to have hit the same store last Friday night and stolen the same drug.

After the pair's arrest, police found a 22-year-old man and a 15-year-old boy passed out in a house under the influence of the tablets, but the man escaped at Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls.

Chiloquin Chief of Police Edgar Robinette said 28-year-old Flavia Cold and 18 - year - old Ralph Wright, both of Chiloquin, had been suspected of last Friday's burglary of the Chiloquin Drug Store in which a bottle of the sleep-inducing tablets had been taken.

Since that time, Robinette said, he and Officer Milo Chamberlain had laid in wait near the store. Thursday night, he said, Miss Cold and Wright entered the store by smashing a window, the same method of entry as of last week, and emerged carrying bottles of the tablets.

They were arrested by the two policemen outside the store.

The officers, after jailing the pair, searched their house and found 22-year-old Charles Reed Jr. of Lakeview and a 13-year-old Chiloquin boy asleep in the house, under the influence of the drug.

These two were transported to Klamath Valley Hospital by Chiloquin ambulance where they were examined.

Meanwhile, Klamath Falls police were asked to hold the pair at the hospital.

A city policeman said that when he arrived hospital attendants told him the two weren't in need of treatment. While the officer was telephoning for further instructions, he said, the ambulance attendants decided to take the two back to Chiloquin. As the attendants were loading the two back into the ambulance, Reed ran away and is still at large today. The boy is in custody.

Charges against Miss Cold and Wright and possibly against the boy and Reed will be determined by the district attorney's office.

Board Holds Closed Meet

The County School Board Thursday afternoon discussed at length in executive session the county court's plan for reorganization of the county's schools, but no announcement of a course of action plotted by the board was made.

It was indicated that a policy had been adopted on the plan, but Superintendent of Schools Cliff Robinson referred reporters to board chairman Paul Fairclo for comment, and Fairclo wasn't available.

Three hearings are scheduled on the plan, Jan. 6, 7 and 8.

In other action, the board reappointed Dwight Kircher of Chiloquin to the budget committee from the northern zone and approved inclusion of Henley High School in the suburban Fire District. The district is undertaking annexation of new areas. It was explained that inclusion of Henley in the district would result in considerable insurance rate savings.

One Injured In Accident

A Klamath Falls man was injured Thursday afternoon when his auto struck a parked car on South Sixth Street, and both vehicles careened 150 feet.

State police said Gerrol Harlin Bjorg, 2425 Summers Lane, suffered a cut on his right arm, and both cars sustained major damages.

Police said Bjorg was driving east on South Sixth when he lost control and his 1962 convertible smashed into the rear of a 1947 pickup parked at the curb.

The pickup was knocked 130 feet down the curb and then up on the curb and Bjorg's auto continued on another 150 feet before stopping.

Santa Plans Shasta Visit

MOUNT SHASTA—The reindeer float with red-nosed Rudolph and his whole gang of reindeer will open Christmas in Mount Shasta at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

The parade will roll away from the National Guard Armory and travel south as far as The Lamplighters. There will be no loop across the tracks toward the elementary school, because of the delay experienced there last year. All children will receive candy from Santa Claus as the parade progresses.

Bulb Thieves Plague Display

Harold Hill is a man to whom Christmas is a time of taking — not giving.

Hill reported to state police Thursday afternoon that for the second year in a row he has been plagued by Christmas tree light bulb thieves.

Hill, 5428 Harlan Drive, said last year thieves stole 43 bulbs from a tree he decorates outside his home and this year the same thing is starting again with the theft of six bulbs so far.
