Club Party

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Lloyd Gift entertained her bridge club on Dec. 11. Luncheon was followed by cards with Mrs. Mabel Pepple winning high score, Mrs. Bill Burnett, second, and Mrs. Mae Gale, traveling.

Later the women exchanged gifts and each was given a red or green "scrubber" which had decorated a table Christmas tree.

Present were Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Harold Williams, Mrs. Doug Smelcer, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Mabel Pepple, Mrs. Bill Burnett and Mrs. Mae Gale.

DKG Notes Anniversary

The second birthday of the chapter set the theme for the Dec. 7 meeting of the Alpha Lambda Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma. President Dolly Bunch presided.

The tables were appropriately decorated with the Christmas motif by Lucille Faus and Blanche Montgomery. The centerpieces had been made by Goldie Peterson, who was unable to attend due to an OEA commitment.

Holiday touches were added by a gold and red money tree and a flower-bedecked birthday

President Dolly Bunch presented Dorothy Greene with her past president's pin in recognition of her work in leading the chapter through its first crucial year.

Vera Oches presented Don Herbig and the Girls Ensemble of the KUBS music department who sang three delightful numbers.

Aura Mitchell, who was chairman for the day, served the birthday cake and led an impressive candle ceremony. Wilma Marvin read the history of the society which had been prepared in rhyme by Aura Mitchell.

Mrs. Geraldine Owsley, a charter member of Alpha Rho State, was guest speaker for the day. She gave the interesting highlights of the events which led to the establishing of Delta Kappa Gamma in Oregon.

Jeanette Jackson gave an informative report of the initiation committee with the recommendations for next year.

All were pleased that Anne Overman, a member now working on her doctorate at Oregon State, and Lotis Joneschiet, a reserve member, were in attendance.

Nell Stewart presented the society with a hand-embroidered scarf to be used in ceremonies.

The next meeting will be held on Jan. 11 instead of Jan. 4 because of Christmas vacation. Frances Stewart, Wilma Marvin, and Lucille Faus will be the hostesses. An interesting panel discussion is planned for the next meeting.

NUPTIAL PAIR — Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gibney are at home in Klamath Falls following their recent marriage. Mrs. Gibney is the former Fay Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts Sr., of Bonanza.

Fay Roberts Recent Bride

BONANZA—Fay Roberts and Vernon Gibney were recently united in marriage in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Laing Sibbet at Peace Memorial Church in Klamath Falls.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gibney, all of Bonanza.

Baskets of lavender and white gladioli were at the altar, setting the color theme for the ceremony.

The bride's gown was floor length of white nylon lace with round neckline and short sleeves. The fingertip veil was held by a rhinestone crown. She wore lace mitts and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations, centered with an orchid.

Maid of honor was Marjorie Thomas and bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Roberts and Leah McFall. The bride's nieces, Marjorie Roberts, Linda Roberts and Cynthia Roberts, were flower girls. Their frocks and those of the bridal attendants were lavender brocade taffeta and were matched by headbands.

Bouquets for the attendants were orchid and white carnations. The three flower girls carried orchid baskets filled with white and orchid petals.

Richard Roberts, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Donald Gibney, brother of the bridegroom, and Alex Sapiens.

Steven Roberts was ring bearer.

Mrs. Ross Ragland was the organist and also the accompanist for Richard Roberts, the bride's brother, who sang "Because" and "O Promise Me."

Mrs. Roberts wore for her daughter's wedding a deep rose brocade street dress with matching accessories and corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Gibney wore a beige brocade taffeta with brown accessories. Her corsage was yellow rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Richard Roberts baked and decorated the three tiered wedding cake which was trimmed in lavender and white and topped with a tiny bridal pair. After the initial slice was cut by the newlyweds it was served by Mrs.

Leon Roberts and Mrs. Charles Roberts Jr.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Condonier of Stockton poured coffee. Linda Gibney, sister of the bridegroom, served punch and Larna McFall was in charge of the guest book and gift table.

For the honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco, the new Mrs. Gibney wore a brown sheath dress with beige accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Gibney are now at home at 2050 Vine Street in Klamath Falls.

Holiday Sleepwear

By HELEN HENNESSY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA)—The bedtime story for the holidays is a long one. For the big news in holiday sleepwear is length.

There is a definite return to sweeping, romantic gowns and robes that have elegance synonymous with the season. And they make handsome gifts, indeed.

You will find co-ordinated gowns and peignoirs in chiffon tricot, appliqued with lace and glimmering with satin trim.

Should you want to send Christmas greetings with flowers, you will find pastel floral prints blooming on darker backgrounds in luxurious nylon tricot.

Reminiscent of the 1930s is a group of jewel-toned robes, trimmed with ostrich feathers or fur. And the ultimate in nightgowns is one done in pale pink crushed velvet.

Fragile though they may look, most of these gossamer nighttime fashions are easily cared for. Synthetics and synthetic blends make sudsing a cinch and an iron just so much excess baggage.

There are Empire gowns, togas, flowing shifts—all pretty styles to dream in. The sleeping beauty should look as regal as a princess this holiday season. So when you choose a gift of sleepwear, keep elegance in mind.

It's not too early to drop a Christmas hint.

REROUTE HOME 'TRAFFIC'

Do you have regular "traffic lanes" in your home? Most homes do—and changing these from time to time will distribute wear evenly on carpets. Shifting the furniture within the room will create a new traffic pattern.

FOR YOUR Protection

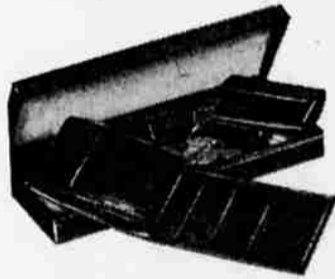

QUESTION: Does the theft insurance under a Homeowners policy apply to the things we take with us on a vacation?

ANSWER: Yes, it does and it applies anywhere you go—even during travel in foreign countries.
