Speedy Chili Bake

Your family's hungry and you're in a hurry—ever wish you could pull a miracle out of your cupboard? Here's a tantalizing main-dish wonder that takes just 25 minutes... even less if some good fairy has given you an electric can opener for the staple ingredients you probably already have on hand. Speedy Chili Bake is easy to make—but it doesn't taste it! Imagine the flavors of zippy chili, savory tomato sauce, smooth cheddar cheese and sweet whole kernel corn blended together... with a dash of crisp, crunchy corn chips sprinkled over the top for texture variety.

To complete your fast-to-fix supper, add a bright green salad with oil and vinegar dressing... and a basket of fresh, crisp crackers hurriedly heated in your oven just before the main dish is ready to serve.

1 cup grated Cheddar cheese
10 large corn chips
Arrange alternate layers of chili, corn, tomato sauce and cheese in one quart casserole. Crumble corn chips into small pieces. Sprinkle over top. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes or until bubbly.

SOMETHING NEW

Please the family with a fancy dress-up for baked squash. Pre-bake squash until tender. Fill centers with finely chopped fresh California dates and nuts. Combine equal portions dark corn syrup and melted butter and drizzle over squash. Bake about 10 minutes longer in moderate oven.
