

MARKETS and FINANCE

Table with columns for Stocks and WALL STREET. Includes sub-sections for NEW YORK STOCKS and LOCAL SECURITIES.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Yuletide spirit entered the marketplace today and prices drifted slowly downward as trading dried up.

Strike Claim Hearings Scheduled Here Jan. 7

Hearings involving the unemployment insurance claims of some 500 local timber workers affected by a lockout at the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company last summer are scheduled for the second week in January.

B-52's Set Low-Level Missions

The Air Force has announced that starting Jan. 2, B-52 jet bombers from Mountain Home AFB, Idaho, will make low-level training flights over Southern Oregon and northern Nevada.

SOC Lists 146 From Klamath

Klamath County is represented by 146 students at Southern Oregon College in Ashland, final fall term enrollment figures show.

Jail Fund Is Stolen

Someone in town apparently doesn't like the idea of helping thieves. So he stole a fund destined for the relief of Klamath County jail prisoners.

Burglars Enter Local Tavern

The Sunrise Tavern, 137 East Main Street, was burglarized early this morning and a coin box from a shuffleboard machine was taken.

Case Nears Completion

The trial of Theodore Brummond on a charge of obtaining money and property by false pretenses was scheduled to go to a jury of six men and six women in circuit court late this morning.

Gospel Spread - Illegally

One of Klamath Falls' holiday shoppers apparently wishes to impart the spirit of the season to local police.

Burglars Steal Meat, Whiskey

Burglars entered the residence of C. F. Icenbice, Box 81, Merrill, between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 p.m., Sunday, and escaped with approximately $50 worth of meat from his refrigerator, Oregon State Police reported Tuesday.

Bacon Taken

Wayne Thompson, 2024 Holabird Avenue, reported to city police Monday the theft of a side of bacon from his home.

CHRISTMAS FUN — Hundreds of children were guests of Klamath Falls Lodge No. 1247 BPOE at the annual Christmas party for deserving children Sunday afternoon, Dec. 22, in the Klamath Auditorium.

Klamath Players Ready Tryouts For New Drama

Tryouts for "Hit the Deck," a nautical musical comedy to be produced locally by the Klamath Players on April 9 and 10, will begin at 7 p.m. Monday, Jan. 6, at Fremont School.

$220 Found In Sock After Man Arrested

A 50-year-old man was arrested for drunkenness in Klamath Falls Monday, and later was found to be carrying $220 in 20-dollar bills in his sock.

Ricochet Hurts Klamath Youth

A 12-year-old boy was wounded Monday afternoon when either a ricocheting bullet or a chip of rock struck him in the left temple near his Weyer's home.

Consolidate Your Small Bills

Advertisement for Suburban Finance, featuring a table with columns for Borrow, No. of Payments, and Amount. Includes contact information for 3670 So. 25th St., Mer., T.V. 4-7759.

Couple Returns Home After Missing Report

The couple who had been presumed missing since departing from Klamath Falls last Dec. 9 to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives in Oklahoma returned home at 319 South Eldorado Avenue late yesterday—well and in good spirits, the Herald and News learned today.

Belts Save 4 Persons In Accident

An automobile was demolished when it went off the highway and landed upside down in a borrow pit near the California - Oregon state line on Highway 97 Tuesday, but police speculated that the four occupants inside the car escaped injury because they were wearing seat belts.

Pair Held In Theft

Klamath Falls police Monday arrested two Kingsley Field airmen for the theft of a set of drums from another airman Dec. 16.

Mrs. Edwards Dies In South

FORT KLAMATH—Word has been received of the death of a former long-time resident of Fort Klamath, Mrs. Frank (Bertha) Edwards, who died Sunday, Dec. 15, in Houma, La.

Insure Your Happy Holidays! DRIVE CAREFULLY!

Advertisement for Southern Oregon Insurance Agency, featuring a logo and contact information for 50 1/2 6th & Shasta Way 2-4671.

Funerals

The body of Jack Gene Owens will be forwarded to Klamath Falls, Ore., by Ward's Klamath Funeral Home for interment at a later date.

Large advertisement for Merry Christmas featuring a large cursive title and an advertisement for Juckeland Motors, Inc., with contact information for 11th & Klamath Ph. TU 2-2881.

Small advertisement for a reward, featuring a photo of a dog and the text 'REWARD!'.