Spanish Casserole

day.

If your sense of thrift tugs at you this time of year Spanish Casserole is the perfect choice for tonight's dinner. The franks make it extra popular with children; its easy preparation, thanks to the advantages of canned tomato sauce which imparts rich goodness to the franks as they simmer, guarantees its popularity with you, the cook.

The forthright flavors of this easy dish are best complemented by a mixed green salad, hard rolls (or frozen tortillas to be heated at the last moment)

SPANISH CASSEROLE

(Servings - 6)

- 1 pound franks, cut in chunks
- 1 onion, chopped
- 1 tablespoon pure vegetable oil
- 2 (8-ounce) cans tomato sauce
- ½ cup water
- 3 cups cooked rice
- ½ teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper
- 10 pitted black olives, cut in half
- 1 cup cooked green peas or 1 cup frozen peas, thawed
- ½ cup grated Cheddar cheese

Saute franks and onion in pure vegetable oil. Add the tomato sauce and water. Simmer until well heated. Add rice, salt, pepper, olives and green peas. Turn into 1½ quart casserole and bake at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes.

BEANS GOLDENROD

Drain 1 lb. can green beans, saving 1-3 cup liquid. Mix liquid with 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup and ½ teaspoon basil. Heat beans and soup mixture together thoroughly. Turn into serving bowl and top with chopped hard-cooked egg. Sprinkle with paprika.

"Well, we ARE going Dutch, Dad, but it takes my hal and her half just to feed Janie!"

NEW ENGLAND HERO

Want a hearty he-man "sandwich?" Heat canned baked beans with chopped onion and catsup. Lightly mix in drained canned cling peach slices and heat 5 minutes longer. Spoon onto rounds of warm brown bread and top with crisp bacon.
