Pair Recite Nuptial Vows

ALTARAS — Linda Stewart and Gary Gooch were united in marriage by a double ring ceremony Saturday, Nov. 30, at the Fort Bidwell Community Church. The Rev. Floyd Bailey officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stewart, of Cedarville, Calif., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gooch of Vya, Nev.

For her wedding, the bride chose a bell shaped, floor length gown of satin brocade with three quarter length sleeves. With this she wore a waist length veil belonging to Sally Ayers Curtin, a cameo necklace which her father brought home from Italy after the war, and a handkerchief given her by her grandmother. The lucky sixpence was furnished by Judy Davis Hein. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby pink rosebuds.

The bridesmaids, Lorna and Ruth Stewart, wore blue velvet street length dresses and tiaras. Their bouquets were pink carnations. Janel Stewart, flower girl for her sister, wore a blue velvet jumper dress.

Robert Gooch served as best man for his brother, and John Husa, cousin of the bridegroom, was usher.

Organ music was played by Grace Sweeney. The bride's mother was attired in a royal blue wool dress with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a red suit with black accessories and a gold orchid.

A reception followed at the Civic Club rooms. Ellen Dollarhide made the beautiful cake which was served by Caroline and Burling Bowne. The punch was made by Edna Fee and
