

PICTURE NEWS
THE WORLD IN FOCUS

PRETTY AS A PICTURE—Al Saudi Gazi of Iraq thought that this scene in San Vito Romano was as pretty as a picture, so he decided to capture it on a canvas. It all made for a pleasant Sunday afternoon in an old Italian town.

GRAVITY RANGE—This helicopter demonstrates a new, but unique concept in an aircraft's center of gravity. It means varied loads without danger of upset.

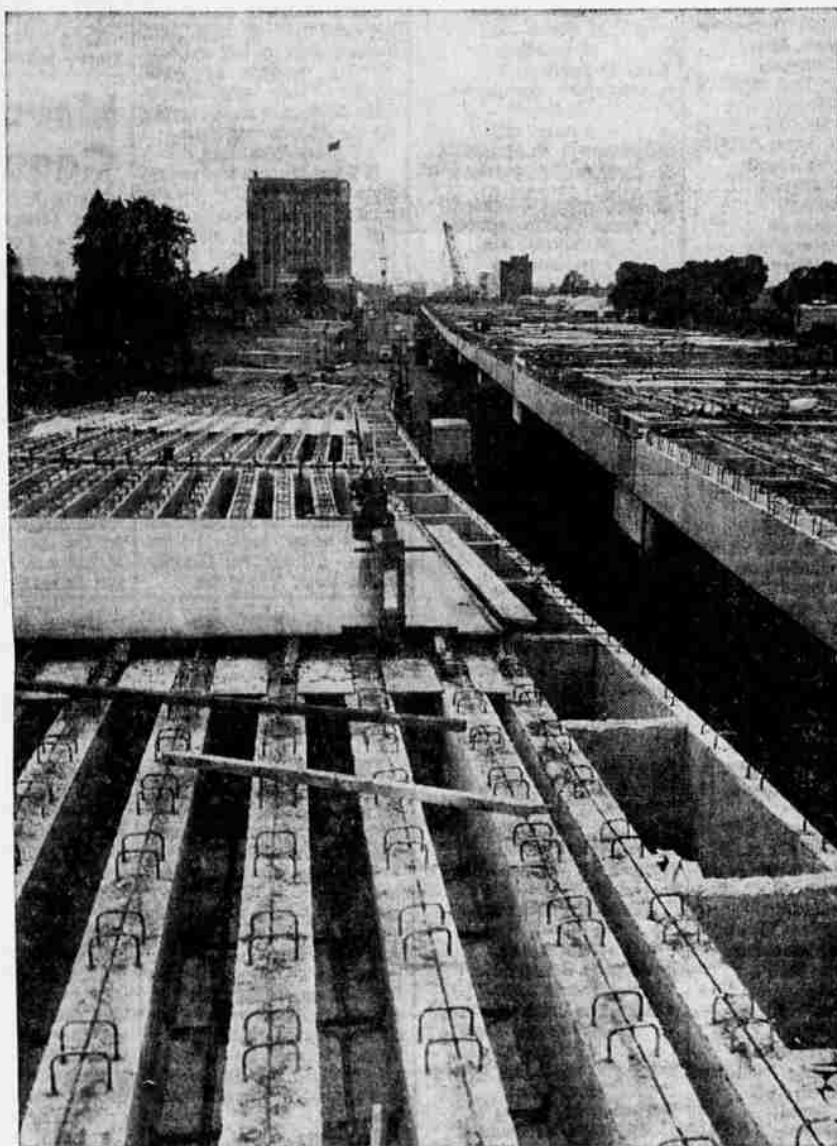

CAT(CH) ALL—Some women can't find a thing in their purse, but if they hide this Las Vegas, Nev., kitten in it, they would have no problem finding her at all.

NOCTURNAL—The new influence of wool flows into evening as seen in this New York creation in muted blue and green woven mohair. Stole is lined in silk.

BEACH BALL—Dottie Rawlings is having a ball with a ball in the surf at Miami Beach, Fla. To warm the play even more, Dottie gives a pretty smile.

OPENING BOTTLENECK—Those who know in London, England, say that traffic, which is generally nose-to-tail going in and out of the capital, will soon be able to tear east and west with gay abandon. This road is built over a present road—the Great West Road—which is considered a serious bottleneck.

PITCHER'S BATTLE—A one-man blitzkrieg is what Warren Spain looks like as he goes before the cameras in his acting debut. Portraying a Nazi officer on a television show may make him wish he were back pitching.

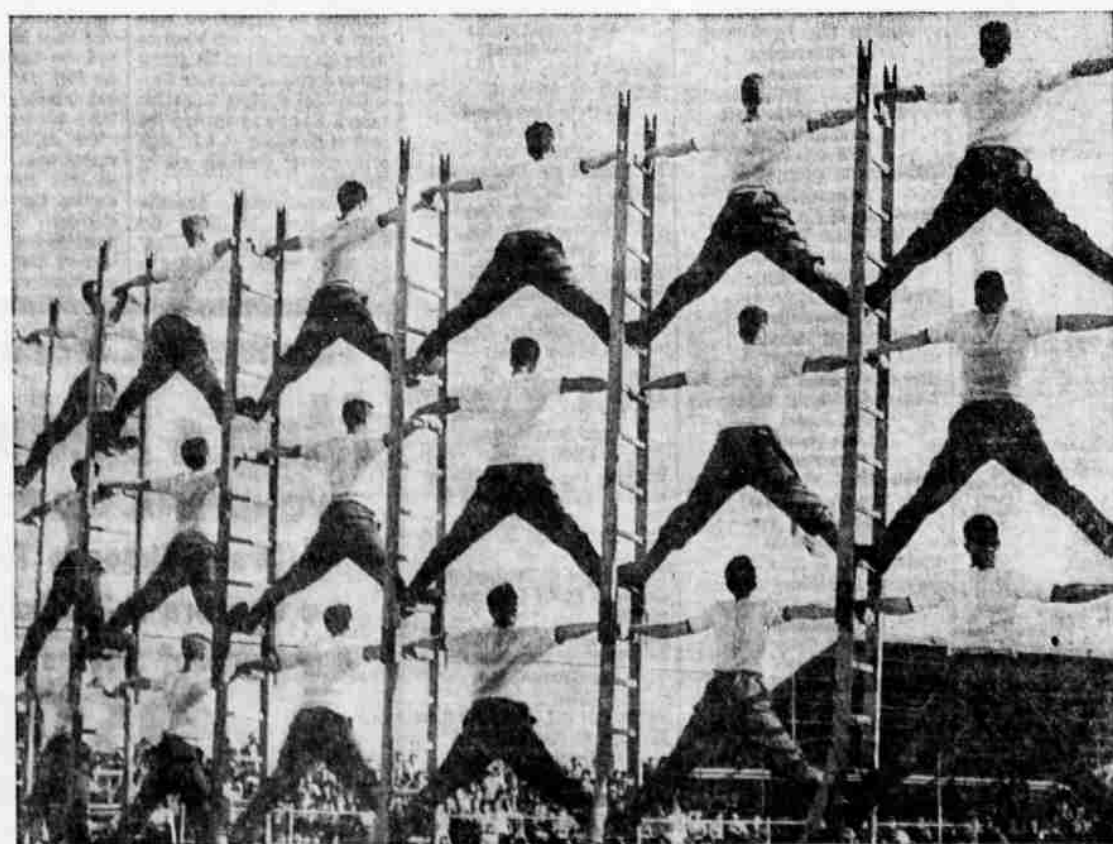

BEAUTY OF SCIENCE—Mrs. Jeanette Grasselli received the 1963 Award of Merit from the chemical profession of Cleveland, Ohio. She was once a school beauty queen.

GREAT FEELING—Wanting to know how it felt to be a winner, all a Macolin, Switzerland, boy had to do was climb the winner's platform to stimulate his imagination.

GETS THE MESSAGE—Jutting through the trees, this new 65-foot tower completes telephone message in Berlin, West Germany.

LATTICE PLAY—Young cadets of the Rome fire brigade show their talents and agility during an annual display of their acrobatic and gymnastic powers at the end of their training course. The young men created a lattice pattern with their bodies and ladders. All in all, it was an impressive sight for Romans to see.

STAR BRIGHT—Yvonne De Carlo was caught primping for the camera as she arrived in New York from Hollywood in connection with the opening of her movie, "McLintock!"