

Sisters Of Sacred Heart Academy Honored At Annual Christmas Tea

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News December 29, 1963

Each year Sacred Heart Academy Parents and Patrons sponsor a Christmas silver tea honoring the sisters at the academy. A beautiful red and silver theme was used in the school auditorium on Dec. 15 for the party. The tea and punch tables were covered with white cloths and red net which was caught at intervals along the sides with sprays of silvered greens and red balls. The centerpiece was an effective arrangement of silvered greens, red tapers and white Madonna. Silver appointments completed the setting.

In the picture above, left to right, are Sister M. Joseph Theresa, Mrs. Oscar DeNault, Mrs. John Novak, Sister M. Victorine, principal superior of Sacred Heart Academy, and Sister M. Alice Ann.

Shown in the picture above is the committee in charge of arrangements. Left to right are Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. Charles L. Johnston, Mrs. Angelo Doveri, chairman, Mrs. Mike O'Connor and Mrs. Angelo Gasperini.

At right, Mrs. Mike O'Connor serves punch to Christine Johnston, left, and Barbara Doveri.

At right, Sister M. Julie Antoinette visits with Mrs. V. W. Phillips and her son, John Phillips, who is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy.

Above, Mrs. Ross Cariaga, wife of the coach at the academy, pours tea for Mrs. Rex Morehouse, left, and Mrs. Mel Amsberry. Pine trees with silver-tipped needles made a pretty background for the serving table.

During the afternoon a musical program was presented by singing and instrumental groups of the academy. At right is one choral group, dressed in winter togs, that sang appropriate seasonal numbers.

— Photos by Glenn Walker