

Oregon Scores Early, Then Turns Back Late SMU Bid

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—The quesy-turmed Southern Methodist Mustangs had no alibis today for their 21-14 loss to Oregon in the 29th annual Sun Bowl.

SMU officials played down the fact that 15 of their players including six starters, became violently ill the night before Tuesday's game—presumably of food poisoning.

Instead, the Mustang coaches quietly fed their woody players pep pills and hoped for the best. It was almost good enough.

From the stands, the Mustangs definitely appeared sluggish in the first half of the game as Oregon built up a 21-0 halftime lead and outblocked, outran and outkicked their Southwest Conference foe.

It almost looked as if the two teams switched uniforms in the second half as the Mustangs dominated the play. They scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and had a drive stall on the Oregon two-yard line.

Bob Berry Is Cited

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—Oregon quarterback Bob Berry, who completed 12 of 28 passes in his team's 21-14 win over Southern Methodist in the Sun Bowl, was voted the game's most valuable player Tuesday.

SMU linebacker John Hughes, who was credited with eight tackles and eight assists, was named the most valuable lineman.

Berry, only a junior, was ranked fifth in the nation during the past season in total offense.

Oregon jumped to an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a nine-yard scoring run by halfback Dennis Keller, set up by a 49-yard pass interception and run by halfback H. D. Murphy.

Then Oregon quarterback Bob Berry, whom the SMU players feel is almost equal to Navy's Roger Staubach and Baylor's Don Trull, began hitting his receivers.

He drove the Webfoots on two 65-yard marches ended by a 23-yard touchdown pass to end Dick Inwalle and a 20-yarder to end Paul Burleson. The Webfoots got no closer than the SMU 15-yard line after that.

SMU opened the third quarter with a drive that stalled on the Oregon two and another that got to the 21 before scoring on a three-yard pass from quarterback Danny Thomas to halfback John Droderick.

Two Oregon pass interceptions—the Webfoots grabbed off four for the day—stalled two more SMU drives before the Mustangs scored in the last 24 seconds on another pass catch by Droderick, this time an eight-yarder from the arm of quarterback Mac White.

It was the Sun Bowl's first try at major college teams in its 29-year history and officials claimed the near sell-out crowd a success.

It was feared that SMU's poor, 4-6 record might have resulted in a small crowd, but only 3,500 of the stadium's 30,000 seats went unsold. Oregon had a 7-3 record.

Fry Sees Future; Cas Praises QB

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—Southern Methodist coach Hayden Fry saw glimpses of a bright future today despite a 21-14 loss to Oregon in the Sun Bowl.

The Mustangs came back from a football graveyard. This year with a successful season at the gate and their first bowl bid since 1949, when they beat Oregon 21-13 in the Cotton Bowl.

"I am proud of the way the Mustangs came back in the second half after trailing by 21 points," Fry said in the Mustangs' quiet dressing room after the game.

"We lost today," Fry said, "but I see lots of hope for the future in the way so many of our youngsters played."

Oregon quarterback Bob Berry, the game's most valuable player, will be back next year and his coach Len Casanova has solid praise for him.

While his players whopped it up, Casanova praised Berry for coming through despite erratic play from his teammates.

"One reason our passing broke down in the second half," Casanova said, "is that we didn't get any help from our halfbacks and from our ends."

Scoring:
Ore: Keller 9 run (Corey kick)

Ore: Inwalle 23 pass from Berry (Meister kick)
Ore: Burleson 20 pass from Berry (Meister kick)
SMU—Roderick 3 pass from Thomas (pass failed)
SMU—Roderick 8 pass from White (White run)

Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers celebrated the ending of 1963 by turning the number 13 into his own personal "lucky" number.

West, who led the Lakers to a 132-119 win over the St. Louis Hawks Tuesday night, scored his 39 points on 13 field goals and 13 of 13 free throws.

With the win the Lakers increased their lead in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association to three and a half games over second-place St. Louis.

In the only other game played Tuesday night, the San Francisco Warriors, paced by Will Chamberlain's 42 points, rolled over the New York Knickerbockers 101-79.

Berry admitted the SMU line was beginning to get to him in the second half.

night had been on a three-game losing streak, had little trouble handling the Hawks.

The Los Angeles effort was aided by Dick Barnett's 27 points and by the 20 which Elgin Baylor contributed.

High man for the Hawks was Bob Pettit with 26 points. He was followed by Cliff Hagan, who had 23.

The Warriors had a little rougher time winning their game. The Knicks broke into an early lead, and at the end of the first quarter were ahead 20-14. That lead was extended to 23-17 before Chamberlain and Gary Hill began hitting.

At that point, Hill and Chamberlain found the range and San Francisco scored 16 points to New York's 2 to take the lead for keeps.

Grid Star Gun Victim

CHICAGO (UPI)—Tony Parrilli, 24, former University of Illinois football star and later a linebacker with three National Football League clubs, was shot to death early today in a scuffle at a bowling alley owned by Mike Ditka of the Chicago Bears.

Du Page County sheriff's police said the bullet which killed Parrilli came from the gun of Police Chief Robert Winters of suburban Willowbrook, where the bowling alley is located.

Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp.

A former star at the great basketball foundry, Sale developed a young fellow named Terry Mobley into a high school star and then "sent" the boy to his old coach with the advice, "watch this boy—he's good under pressure."

Rupp saw that advice materialize in dramatic fashion Tuesday night when the 6-foot-3 junior guard connected with a seven-foot field goal with four seconds left to give Kentucky an 81-79 victory over Duke in the championship game of the Sugar Bowl basketball tournament at New Orleans, La.

The win also stretched Kentucky's winning streak to 10 games and solidified the Wildcats as the No. 1 team in the nation.

Cotton Nash scored 39 points to be high scorer for Kentucky and also was chosen as the tournament's most valuable player. Hack Tison scored 27 points for Duke in the finale.

Fourth-ranked Michigan beat Detroit, 117-87, at Ann Arbor, Mich., with Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin contributing a total of 65 points. Russell poured in 36 points and Buntin made 29 as Michigan turned the game into a rout in the second half. Michigan's point-total eclipsed the previous school mark of 119 set Feb. 26, 1962, when the Wolverines lambasted Indiana.

Texas won the Charlotte Invitational Tournament at Charlotte, N.C., with a 69-61 victory over Pennsylvania. Paul Olivier dropped in the go-ahead field goal in the second half after the lead changed hands 10 times and the Longhorns went on from there for the victory.

Skip Thoren's 33 points led Illinois to an 87-78 victory over Notre Dame and Jim Caldwell tallied 19 points to lead Georgia Tech to an 88-73 win over Navy.
