SALEM (UPI)-Public Utility Commissioner Jonel C. Hill to-day authorized Consolidated Freightways to abandon part of its Central Oregon regular scheduled service routes.

Consolidated last May asked the PUC to allow it to abandon most of its Eastern Oregon regulary scheduled routes except for Highway 30 and segments feeding that route.

Hill authorized the company to drop regular scheduled service along the following routes Salem to Bend via Ore22; Allbany to Bend via US20; Eugene to Bend via US128; Portland to Madras, Redmond, Prineville and Bend via US2s and US97; Rend to Burns and Vale via US20; Prineville to John Day and Vale via US25; and Burns to Lakeview vin US395.

Hill told the company it must retain its route between Bend and the junction of US97 with Ore 58 via 97.

Consolidated recently dropped all intrastate service in Mon tana and Utah and is now attempting to do so in Wyoming.
