

Rockefeller May 'Take His Case' Directly To Public Via TV Appeals

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Washington Post said today that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York intends to make a nationwide radio-television speech later this month to ask for "tolerance and understanding" toward his divorce and remarriage.

The newspaper described the planned speech as an impromptu "Edward VIII" appeal on behalf of the "woman I love" by Rockefeller, only announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

The Post, in a story signed by Maxine Cheshire, quoted sources close to Rockefeller as saying the governor had decided he had "nothing to lose and everything to gain" by taking his case directly to the public and "letting them decide whether he ought to be denied the right to serve his country."

The newspaper said that Rockefeller's plan was reported to have the blessing of his first wife, Mary Todd Rockefeller. The first Mrs. Rockefeller is said to still be on very friendly terms with her former husband, the Post said.

The story said that the former Mrs. Rockefeller had given her approval for the governor to say "anything within the bounds of good taste" that would convey an honest evaluation of their parting and the years that preceded it.

Two Cited In Crashes

Two early morning accidents were investigated by the state police Wednesday.

There were no injuries but two persons received citations.

At 2:35 a.m. a vehicle driven by Arthur Charles Freddie, Route 1, Klamath Falls, turned off Homedale southbound onto Shasta Way when the engine died. Another car, driven by William Cecil Block, Route 3, Klamath Falls, came along and was unable to avoid the other car. Both autos were damaged, and Freddie was cited for not using lights when required.

At 2:50 a.m. a car operated by Donald Duane Franks, 2504 1/2 Crest, ran into a parked car belonging to William Robert Brehm.

Franks was arrested for driving while intoxicated.

Gen. Stilwell Wounded In Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—Brig Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, son of World War II Gen. "Vinegar Joe" Stilwell, said today his wounding by Communist guerrillas Monday was minor compared to the tetanus shot he had to take afterwards.

Stilwell, 51-year-old commander of the U.S. Army support group, was creased slightly in the neck by a Communist bullet or a flying fragment of plexiglass from his helicopter bubble during a combat mission 20 miles southwest of Saigon.

He was the first general officer wounded in South Viet Nam's guerrilla war, which has killed 123 U.S. officers and men since the American buildup here in 1961.

Stilwell was flying as an observer in a U.S. helicopter taking part in an assault on guerrilla positions. The helicopter, attacking a guerrilla force estimated at company strength, made nine strikes, and the Viet Cong hit it six times with ground fire.

Accident Injures Woman

A Klamath Falls woman was hospitalized about 4:40 p.m. Tuesday from injuries received in a three-car accident at Eighth and High streets.

Hospitalized is Sylvia Garner Harris, 437 Laguna. Her injuries were described at Klamath Valley Hospital as not too serious.

City police report that a vehicle driven by her struck two other cars, one driven by Launa L. Steele of 406 North Sixth Street and the other operated by Barney June Moen, 443 West Laguna. All autos involved were damaged. Mrs. Harris was the only person injured in the accident. She was moved to the hospital by Peace Ambulance.

Controversial Parade Delayed By Snowstorm

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (UPI)—The colorful Mummers' Parade, which had stirred a racial controversy over blackface makeup, was postponed today until Saturday because of a snowstorm.

Magistrate Elias Myers announced the action as early bird marchers began assembling on street corners in the falling snow, which would quickly have ruined their costly costumes.

The postponement delayed, at least temporarily, threatened Negro demonstrations organized to protest the appearance of comic groups in blackface.

The city's Commission on Human Relations failed late Tuesday night to work out an agreement between the Mummers' groups and civil rights organizations, which have sought to prevent marchers from using burnt cork and black grease paint on their faces.

The 64th annual parade was to have wound through the heart of the city along a six-mile route well-guarded by an emergency force of some 1,800 policemen.

They were assigned to patrol the route after members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) promised to demonstrate against the parade.

Cecil Moore, head of the local NAACP chapter, said his members would picket the parade route. Louis Smith, a CORE official, said members of that group would form human chains to bar the marchers.

Driver Treated After Accident
Peace Ambulance reported a single call over the New Year's festivities. About 1:25 a.m. they were called to the Dorris area. A vehicle driven by Donald M. Ferreira, 22, of 1531 Johnson Street had run off US 97 at the Dorris hill.

Ferreira was treated at Klamath Valley Hospital and released.

Ike Enjoys Bowl Activities, Stresses Role Of Sports

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—Former President Dwight Eisenhower obviously enjoyed his role today as marshal of the Tournament of Roses—and also found time to display enthusiasm for sports competition in preparing young men for life.

Eisenhower, smiling and appearing completely at ease, won over the audience Tuesday at the 34th annual Kiwanis Kickoff Luncheon attended by 3,000 persons, including U. S. Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and others.

A spokesman for the general, whose most arduous role came today along the parade route, said he was highly appreciative of his reception and treatment, as was Mrs. Eisenhower.

Outside the luncheon, Mrs. Ardit Liercke, 34, got a hug from the general when she told him "you've been my hero since I was 12 years old." "Bless your heart," said Eisenhower, hugging the Pasadena woman in a friendly gesture.

In his talk, Eisenhower went all out backing sports in general, and termed "football more of a spectacle now than it ever was."

The former West Point footballer said the sport "never will lose its attraction. It is a contest that pits not only the brawn, but the brain, skill, teaching and morale of the players against each other."

Speaking of sports in general, Eisenhower said every sports contest "means something for the United States."

"It was my painful duty during World War II to sometimes have to relieve commanders from their duty on the front lines because of lack of battle leadership."
