Chronology Of Events Shows '63 Was Year Of Many Events

By United Press International

The year 1963 saw the assassination of President Kennedy. It also was the year of other significant happenings—riots in Birmingham, a sex scandal in Britain, a coup in South Vietnam, the election of a new Pope, the birth of the United States' first quintuplets to survive.

A chronology of the year's major events:

Jan. 7 Premier Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province ends secession from the Congo, later flees to Paris.

Jan. 29 France vetoes British entry into Common Market.

Feb. 5 Canadian government falls, Lester B. Pearson becomes Prime Minister.

Feb. 8 Premier Abdul Karim Kassim of Iraq slain in pro-Nasserite coup.

Feb. 12 Forty-three die when Northwest Orient Airlines jet crashes in Florida Everglades.

Boat Attacked

Feb 20 Cuba-based MIG fighter planes launch rocket attack on American unarmed shrimp boat off Florida.

March 25 Davey Moore, 29-year-old featherweight champion, dies of brain injury after knockout in title bout with Sugar Ramos.

March 31 114-day New York City newspaper strike ends.

April 5 Soviet Union agrees to "hot line" communications link between Moscow and Washington.

April 10 Atomic submarine Thresher lost in Atlantic with 129 lives in Navy's worst peacetime submarine disaster.

April 13 Negroes demonstrate against segregation in Birmingham.

April 23 West German Vice Chancellor Dr. Ludwig Erhard named to succeed retiring Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

April 28 Haitian police break into Dominican Embassy at Port-au-Prince, seize Haitians who sought refuge there; Haiti breaks diplomatic relations with Dominican Republic on April 30.

May 2 500 Negroes arrested in demonstrations in Birmingham, Ala.

Rocky Marries

May 4 Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York marries Mrs. Margaretta Fitler Murphy in Poncantico Hills, N.Y.

May 6 William Faulkner receives posthumous Pulitzer Prize for his novel "The Rievers."

May 7-12 Rioting in Birmingham flares. President Kennedy sends federal troops to camp near city.

May 15 Air Force Maj. L. Gordon Cooper Jr., 36, in longest space flight ever made by an American—22 orbits in Faith 7 capsule.

June 3 Pope John XXIII dies at age 81.

June 5 John Profumo resigns as Secretary of State for War in Britain after admitting he had lied to Parliament in denying "impropriety" with Christine Keeler.

June 11 Federalized National Guard troops stand by in Alabama as Gov. George C. Wallace allows two Negroes to enroll in University of Alabama.

June 12 Sniper kills Negro civil rights leader Medgar W. Evers in Jackson, Miss.

June 15 Lt. Col. Valery F. Bykovsky launched as 5th Soviet astronaut.

Space Woman

June 17 Junior Lt. Valentina V. Tereshkova, 26, becomes first woman to journey into space, joining Bykovsky in orbit.

June 17 Supreme Court, in 8 to 1 ruling, decides no state or locality may require recitation of Lord's Prayer in public schools.

June 21 Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini, 65-year-old Archbishop of Milan, elected pontiff, reigns as Pope Paul VI.

July 4 China and Soviets open talks on ideological differences. Relations deteriorate and split widens.

July 7 Five operating rail unions reject plan by Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz to resolve pending national railroad strike. Strike eventually averted by Congress.

July 22 Sonny Liston knocks out Floyd Patterson in first round of title rematch.

July 25 United States, Britain and Soviet Union reach accord on atom test ban in atmosphere.

July 27 Massive earthquake in Skopje, Yugoslavia kills more than 3,000.

Aug. 7 President Kennedy's second son, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, born; dies two days later.

Train Robbery

Aug. 8 Gang of masked bandits rob mail train outside London of $7 million in cash and gems in biggest robbery in history.

Aug. 21 Diem government forces raid South Vietnam pagodas, arrest more than 100 Buddhist monks.

Aug. 28 More than 200,000 in orderly "March on Washington" segregation protest.

Sept. 14 Quintuplets—one boy and four girls—born in Aberdeen, S.D., to Mrs. Andrew Fischer. First quints in U.S. history to survive infancy.

Sept. 15 Bomb in Birmingham thrown at Negro church killing four Negro girls and setting off racial rioting. Two Negro boys shot to death same day.
