

GOING TO ENTERTAIN? — Ever think of using the glassware in your cupboard as a novel, eye-catching center piece for a guest table? Practically every household has odd and lovely bits of glass that will add color. This arrangement, placed on a silver tray, is backgrounded with ferns. (See Story on Page 7-B)

NEW METHOD — Macaroni Saute is cooked right in the specially spiced handy canned tomato sauce along with salami and green peppers for a fine flavor surprise.

Macaroni Saute

That's right—one whole step is eliminated in the speedy preparation of this dish whose fascinating flavor belies its simplicity.

For this one you do not cook the macaroni separately. Instead, further season the convenient canned tomato sauce with onions and garlic, then simmer everything together gently so the sauce imparts real cooked-in goodness.

This hearty hearty red-tinted dish is specially welcome on a winter evening when you serve it with green brussel sprouts as shown. Hot rolls taste good with it, and so does a cheery gelatine apple salad, garnished with

- MACARONI SAUTE
(Servings - 6)
- 2 tablespoons pure vegetable oil
 - 1 medium onion, chopped
 - 1 clove garlic, minced
 - 1 (7-ounce) can tomato sauce
 - 2 cups water
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 12 ounces macaroni, uncooked
 - 3 ounces salami, slices cut in half
 - 1 green pepper, cut in rings
- Combine first seven ingredients in a saucepan. Add macaroni and stir through sauce. Spread salami slices over macaroni. Bring to a boil, reduce to simmer. Cook covered about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Place pepper rings over top and cook for 10 minutes longer.
