PORTLAND (UPI)—The minority leader in the Oregon House of Representatives, F. F. (Monte) Montgomery of Eugene, has been appointed field executive for the Rockefeller - President campaign in 33 Oregon counties.

The announcement was made Thursday by Rockefeller's state chairman, William E. Walsh of Coos Bay. Montgomery will be responsible for organizing and operating campaign headquarters throughout the state, except in the Portland metropolitan area.

Montgomery did not attend the conference, but released a statement saying he was confident the New York governor would carry the state in its May 15 primary and "provide the Republican Party its best opportunity for victory in November."

Walsh said both he and Montgomery will work without salary.

Walsh, an attorney and radio station owner, said he would resign as president of the State Board of Higher Education sometime this month, before the Rockefeller campaign gets underway here.

Rockefeller will make his first campaign visit to Oregon Feb. 6 - 8, Walsh revealed. He is scheduled to tour the Willamette Valley and Southern Oregon and attend a Portland

Board of Realtors luncheon Feb. 7 and a banquet of the Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce in Salem Feb. 8.

There has been a "terrific response" from Republicans wanting to help the New York governor in Oregon, Walsh said.

Gov. Mark Hatfield and his staff are expected to be friendly to Rockefeller, but nothing more, according to Walsh. He said he does not expect the statehouse to offer any more aid to Rockefeller than it does to any other Republican candidate.

He predicted Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater will be Rockefeller's main opponent in the Oregon primary and credited the conservative leader with being ahead at this stage of the campaign.

Rockefeller's divorce and remarriage will turn out to be minor issues in the campaign, Walsh forecast, and he refused comment on the fact that Mrs. Rockefeller is expecting a child in June.

"I'm a firm believer that the people of the country are so close to their own real problems that they want leadership. The fundamental things the country stands for will be decisive, and the fact that a candidate has been married twice won't enter into it," he said.

These are conclusions reached by Randy Gardner, 17, a Point Loma high school student, who Thursday reached the halfway mark in trying to break a world record for staying awake—290 hours.

Two other students are working with Gardner and plan to submit a report on his reactions at certain times in his total awake period. The report will go to the Greater San Diego Science Fair later this year.

Sleepy Student Struggles For New 'Awake' Record

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Stay awake for 130 hours, and you lose your sense of humor and appetite, but you may be able to dream while awake.

These are conclusions reached by Randy Gardner, 17, a Point Loma high school student, who Thursday reached the halfway mark in trying to break a world record for staying awake—290 hours.

Two other students are working with Gardner and plan to submit a report on his reactions at certain times in his total awake period. The report will go to the Greater San Diego Science Fair later this year.

The proposed amendment would authorize a sales tax of up to 4 per cent and provides that between 60 and 75 per cent of the revenue would be used to reduce income and property taxes.

The tax would exclude food sold in grocery stores or markets and drugs.

Tied to the sales tax plan is a restriction that present income tax rates cannot be increased nor deductions or exemptions altered unless such changes would result in a saving to the taxpayer.

Glenn Faces Long Wait For Marine Promotion

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Unless the Marine Corps relaxes its custom, astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., of New Concord, Ohio, may have to wait another three years for promotion to full colonel.

The Army - Navy - Air Force Journal, an independent publication for the armed services, has triggered a movement that may get him the promotion a little sooner.

In the tradition of the service a Marine isn't supposed to banker after promotion too much because it's enough to be a Marine. No complaint has yet been heard from Glenn who is now a lieutenant colonel.

The journal notes, however, that the Army, Navy and Air Force all have officers in the rank of colonel or its equivalent who are junior to Glenn in both age and length of service.

If no exception is made, the journal said, "Glenn will have to wait at least three more years than contemporaries in other services for promotion."

Glenn became eligible for colonel on a "below the line" basis early in 1963. "Below the line" or "below the zone" in the services means that an officer can be promoted but is not actually in line for it. The Marine Corps rarely reaches below the line.

There were some initial thoughts in 1963 that the Marines might do so in the case of the first American to orbit

Allies Will Draft Strategy For Disarmament Meeting

LONDON (UPI)—British and American disarmament leaders will meet in Washington next week to draft joint strategy for the forthcoming 17 nation conference in Geneva, government sources said today.

The talks, designed to bring allied proposals up to date, will be joined by Italian and Canadian representatives. All four Western powers are participants in the Geneva conference. However France, another member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), is boycotting it.

The Washington talks are expected to begin by Thursday. The British team will leave for the United States in the next few days.

The Geneva conference will resume on Jan. 21. It promises to produce the first East - West confrontation at a conference table since the nuclear test ban treaty was signed in Moscow last fall.

According to diplomatic sources here, the Western nations are likely to give priority to the following three issues at Geneva:

—Proposals for a system of international observation posts to guard against surprise attack, either by NATO or by members of the Communist Warsaw Pact.

—Measures to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons.

—Possible East-West non-aggression arrangements. The West has opposed Russian proposals for a non-aggression pact unless they are accompanied by Soviet guarantees for allied access routes to Berlin.

Rusk Denies Cuba Claim

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk says that Cuban Premier Fidel Castro was "emphatically wrong" when he declared that the late President Kennedy had been contemplating a change in U.S. policy toward Cuba.

Rusk told a news conference Thursday that there could be no change in the United States' Cuba policy so long as the Soviet military presence remained and Castro continued to meddle in the affairs of his neighbors.

The secretary said he had found no evidence that Castro was willing to disavow the Russian penetration of the island nation or to promise to stop trying to subvert other Latin American governments.

Cuba was among the danger points listed by Rusk. Others included Cyprus, where the Greek and Turkish communities are again at militant odds; Yemen, where the United Arab Republic and Saudi Arabia support different sides in the overthrow of the royal government; Algeria and Morocco; India and Pakistan; Indonesia and Malaysia; and Somalia and its neighbors, Ethiopia and Kenya.

PORTLAND (UPI)—A constitutional amendment to enable Oregon to establish a sales tax was proposed Thursday by Norman L. Easley, of Portland, chairman of the Income and Property Tax Relief Committee.

The proposed amendment would authorize a sales tax of up to 4 per cent and provides that between 60 and 75 per cent of the revenue would be used to reduce income and property taxes.

The tax would exclude food sold in grocery stores or markets and drugs.

Switch Engine Smacks Truck

EUGENE (UPI)—Three men were injured Thursday when a Southern Pacific switch engine crashed into the truck in which they were riding.

The driver, Wayne Franklin, 35, was treated for minor injuries at a hospital and released. In satisfactory condition at the hospital were Billy Pinnell, 41, and Wallace Kragenbrink, 43.

All are employees of the Eugene Water and Electric Board. The accident occurred at a crossing near the EWEB plant.

Fisher-Taylor Divorce Near

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Singer Eddie Fisher today awaited word his marriage to actress Elizabeth Taylor was officially ended.

Fisher said Thursday Miss Taylor's attorney has gone to Mexico to complete arrangements for a divorce. The actress, living in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, with Richard Burton, was expected to marry the Welsh actor sometime after Jan. 16.

It will be her fifth marriage.

Another Court Order Sought To Block Possible Mummies Parade Race Riots

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Another court order was sought today to prevent possible "widespread disorder and rioting" if blackfaced comics and minstrel march in the delayed Mummies parade here Saturday.

Mediators attempting to reach a solution to the touchy issue gained a last-minute reprieve Wednesday when the annual New Year's Day parade was postponed because of snow and freezing rain.

A hearing was scheduled before three Common Pleas Court judges today on a suit filed by former State Supreme Court Justice Thomas D. McBride seeking to ban blackfaced marchers and "those who would riot" if the traditional blackface makeup was used in the annual parade in Center City.

The suit was filed before the same court that rejected a request last Tuesday by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to ban blackface from the parade.

The court held at that time that city officials "have been quite diligent in seeing that the Mummies parade is conducted in a manner that is in no way offensive to our city."

Seek Injunction

The suit filed before Judge Theodore L. Reimel late Thursday sought injunctions against the use of blackface and demonstrations by civil rights groups.

Officials of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Committee for Freedom now said they would block the parade "with our bodies" if marchers use blackface.

Pontiff Prepares For Trip

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI today devoted himself to prayer and preparations for his "journey of search and hope" to the Holy Land Saturday.

The 66-year-old pontiff, who began his reign little more than six months ago, will be making history in many ways on his three-day pilgrimage to the places Christ lived, in what is now Jordan and Israel.

He will be the first Pope to visit the Holy Land and the first to fly. He will be the first to leave Italy since 1872.

But since the Pope announced plans for the visit last month, world attention has focused on another first—the first meeting between a Pope and an Eastern Orthodox patriarch in 526 years.

Aim is Unity

Pope Paul will confer twice with Patriarch Athenagoras I of Constantinople. Their aim is Christian unity, but no one looks for a quick or easy end to the differences that have divided the 300 million Roman Catholics and 157 million Orthodox for centuries.

Pope Paul's predecessor, Pope John XXIII, began this drive for Christian unity with the Ecumenical Council. In carrying it a step further, Pope Paul has had to seek neutral ground for his meeting with the Orthodox leader, who declined an invitation to send delegates or attend the council.

In so doing, the pontiff has abruptly changed the tradition of the Pope as "prisoner of the Vatican." Until 45 years ago, no Pope even ventured out on an auto trip into Rome. The exception was Pius XII, forced to go to France by Napoleon in 1904.

The change brings with it unprecedented security risks. Jordan and Israel are technically still at war and there is a long history of religious strife in the Holy Land among the Moslems, Jews and rive Christian sects.

Jet fighters of the nation he is flying over will provide an escort for the Pope's Alitalia jet, and papal gendarmes, a bullet-proof car, and reinforced Jordanian and Israeli police will protect the Pope on the ground.

Rome has planned a great sendoff and an even warmer welcome for the pontiff on his return Monday.

Suggestion Earns $50 For Dodge

Thyre Dodge, a recreation technician of the Klamath Ranger District, Winema National Forest, has received a $50 award for a beneficial suggestion which has improved work methods in the administration of the national forest, District Ranger Bud Twombly reported Friday.

Dodge, 49, suggested that an information check list be put in use to provide faster and more consistent administration for people holding recreation residence permits throughout Region Six of the U.S. Forest Service.

The award was made available through protection and maintenance funds of the district and was issued under authorization of the Federal Civil Service Beneficial Suggestion Program, which authorizes cash awards from $15 to $2,500 in recognition of accepted beneficial suggestions made by civil service employees.

Dodge was born in Big Timber, Mont., and graduated from the Southern Oregon College of Education, after which he taught school in the Ashland-Medford area from 1945 through 1960.

In the later year he went to work for the Winema Forest, where he is currently employed.

1st Negro To Enroll At Auburn

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI)—Alabama state troopers moved into this college town today on orders of Gov. George C. Wallace and began setting up a strict security program for Saturday's scheduled desegregation of Auburn University.

Wallace, ex-officio chairman of the university's board of trustees, said he did not plan another "school house door stand" to block the integration.

But Wallace, who made an unsuccessful attempt to block integration at the University of Alabama, added he planned "to resist this in every way."

The Montgomery, U.S. Middle District Court Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr., was expected to rule today on the demand of Negro Harold Alonzo Franklin, 31, that Auburn assign him a dormitory room, Franklin, who will become the first Negro to enter this land grant college when he registers Saturday, claims the school denied him housing because of his race.
