Child Guidance Theme Of Two-Day Workshop

LAKEVIEW — "Child Guidance" will be the title of a two-day workshop to be held in Lakeview on Feb. 16 and 17. Mrs. Roberta Frasier, extension family life specialist at Oregon State University, will conduct the workshop according to Mrs. Barbara Haskins, Lake County extension agent. Schedules for the workshop follow: Monday—Feb. 15, 8 p.m., "Impact of Changing World on Families," high school library—sponsored by AAYW; Tuesday—Feb. 16, 1 p.m., "School-age Child," Presbyterian Christian Education Building, 7:30 p.m., "Teen-agers," Lakeview Junior High School. Mrs. Frasier will emphasize the general principles of guidance in each session with emphasis on specific age groups. Husbands and wives are encouraged to attend each session.

Indian Museum Dates Opening

CHILOQUIN — The Klamath Indian Memorial Museum, headed by Dibbon Cook, made plans at its last meeting to open the doors of the museum to the public for a limited time. The first showing of the museum rooms in the Chilquin City Hall was Jan. 24, from 1 to 5 p.m. The museum will be open the following Sundays: Jan. 31, Feb. 7 and 14. Cook urged the public to visit the museum and get acquainted with the work of the museum committee.

Death Takes Faris Kin

NEW PINE CREEK — Word was received recently by Edwin L. Faris that his half brother, Cecil L. Faris, of Warsaw, Ind., died at his home on Jan. 13, following an illness of several months. Cecil Faris had been a visitor for many times in past years to the community of New Pine Creek. He was born Jan. 18, 1885, in Indiana. Funeral services were conducted on Friday, Jan. 22, in Warsaw with interment following in the Oakwood Cemetery there. He is survived by his widow, Anna, two sons, Everett and a daughter, one daughter, Mrs. Alpha Phillips, and several grandchildren.
