

CANT MISS DESSERT — Snow-capped Peach Caprice with diced canned cling peaches in one layer, whipped cream and ginger in the other and a saucy peach slice on top is a delicious party dessert.

Snow-Capped Peach Caprice

1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) cling peach slices
 2 envelopes plain gelatin
 1 can (6-oz.) limeade concentrate, thawed
 1 1/2 cups boiling water
 1/2 cup orange juice
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup whipping cream
 1 tablespoon chopped crystallized ginger

Drain peaches, saving one cup syrup. Sift gelatin in limeade concentrate. Add boiling water; stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Stir in peach syrup, orange juice and salt. Set aside one cup gelatin mixture. Chill remainder until mixture mounds on a spoon. Meanwhile, save six or eight peach slices for garnish; dice remainder. Fold diced peaches into thickened gelatin; spoon into tall stemmed glasses, filling glasses two-thirds full. Chill to a soft set. Chill remaining one cup gelatin until it begins to mound on spoon; whip cream. Fold gelatin into whipped cream with ginger. Mound over gelatin-peach layer in each glass. Top each with a peach slice. Chill until serving-time.
 Makes six to eight servings.

Fight Due Brown's Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's bill to boost disability insurance rates to 4 1/2-million California workers reached the Assembly floor today over solid Republican opposition.

But Assemblyman Howard J. Tulin, R-Glendale, threatened a floor fight unless Democrats accede to his demands to water down the bill (AB341), designed to save the faltering disability fund and prevent lowering of benefits.

Democrats were just as insistent that unless the bill is quickly approved by the Legislature and signed by Brown, disabled workers will suffer by having their payments, now set at an $80 per week maximum, lowered by up to 18 per cent.

Police Find Extinguishers

Oregon State Police have recovered two fire extinguishers which were stolen from Orson Stearns School, 3941 Crest Street, when it was burglarized about two weeks ago, officers disclosed Wednesday.

The extinguishers were found Tuesday near the canal in the vicinity of Eberlein and Alameda avenues by an employee of the irrigation district. They were then turned over to state police officers, who are still investigating the case.

had the flu, the family who takes your son skating with their children, the mother who brings your children from school when there's a sudden snow storm.

This year, Valentine's Day falls on Sunday. How about inviting all these friends and good neighbors in for dessert?

Pale - pink heart tarts appeal to all ages. The delicately-flavored filling is made with a new banana cream pudding and pie mix. (Easy enough for junior cooks to prepare.) Garnish with candied violets or toasted almonds.

Good Neighbor Valentines

VALENTINE TARTS
 1 package (3 1/2 oz.) banana cream pudding and pie filling
 1 package (3 oz.) strawberry-banana flavor gelatin
 1 tablespoon sugar
 2 1/2 cups water
 1 envelope whipped topping mix
 (Or use 1 cup heavy cream; beat just until soft peaks will form)

Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil and is thick and clear. Remove from heat. Chill until mixture begins to set.

Prepare whipped topping mix as directed on package; thoroughly blend into chilled pudding mixture. Spoon into tart shells.

Garnish with additional whipped topping and candied violets or toasted almonds, if desired.

Chill until firm—at least three hours.

QUEEN OF HEARTS — A neighborhood Valentine will show her appreciation for small favors by baking a plate of Valentine tarts and taking them to neighbors who have been thoughtful.
