LOCAL DOG TEAM—Eldon Alt, shown here with his five-dog team of Norwegian Elk Hounds, will be one of several Klameth area entries in the Southern Oregon dog sled races slated for Union Creek, near Crater Lake and Diamond Lake Junction on Highway 62, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 6-7. This is open to all racers from Washington, California, Oregon and Nevada. Some 20 dog sled teams are expected to enter.

Liston's Wife Testifies Sonny Didn't Look Drunk

By LEE HAMANN
United Press International

DENVER (UPI)— Sonny Liston's wife, Geraldine, testified Saturday the former heavyweight boxing champion "didn't appear drunk" a short time before he was arrested Christmas Day on drunken driving charges.

Mrs. Liston was one of the first four defense witnesses to take the stand.

The fighter's wife said she and Liston visited her mother's house on Christmas morning and opened presents and had some eggnog. The eggnog, Mrs. Liston said, contained a half pint of cognac in a 24-cup bowl.

Liston, she said, then left to drive over to his secretary's house.

"He didn't appear drunk and acted normal," Mrs. Liston said.

The other three defense witnesses were Richard E. Zepher, an Denver, Jerry Curran of KOA-TV Denver, and Tom Pade of KLZ-TV, Denver. Curran and Pade showed films they took when Liston was arrested about noon on Christmas Day.

The motion picture was taken in police headquarters after Liston was arrested Dec. 25 at an East Denver driveln restaurant, the Holiday, and escorted to the station by a bevy of patrolmen.

Patrolman Edward C. Nelson testified he saw Liston staggering to his car in the restaurant parking lot. But he conceded he only saw Liston drive the auto about 75 feet.

Nelson said he was in his patrol car parked at the restaurant Christmas Day. He said he watched Liston drive into the parking lot with a male companion and attempt to negotiate the parking stall.

After parking the car and ordering soft drinks, Liston walked toward the rear of the vehicle staggering, Nelson testified. He said the boxer had to support himself hand - over-hand along the side of the car on his walk back to the driver's seat.

Three restaurant carhops testified Liston spilled the soft drinks and banged the car door into a call box.

Nelson said after watching Liston at the drivein, he drove off and alerted to the former champion later. He said Liston's companion was driving then.

Nelson said he had to radio for help in getting Liston into the patrol car. Other police officers responded and took him to police headquarters.

Liston, neatly dressed in a blue suit, blue tie and white shirt, sat impassively watching the proceedings.

The crush of spectators after the jury was selected forced Judge Sanchez to move the trial into a larger room.

Schools Enter Teams

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Universally of Southern California, UCLA and Oregon State Saturday entered relay teams in the Los Angeles Times Indoor Games Feb. 13 after their conference voted to permit schools to appear in AAU sanctioned meets until March 1.

Coach Vern Wolfe said Southern California would have teams in both the mile and two-mile relays while UCLA and Oregon State entered only the two-mile event.

In addition, a sprinkling of individual college stars will compete in open events against the field of foreign stars. Among them will be Don Castle of the Trojans in the shot; Theo Viitz and Paul Kerry, USC, and Tom Wyatt, Oregon State, in the 60-yard hurdles; and Dave Blunt, Oregon, in the 60-yard dash.

"We're happy to add the AAWU athletes to the indoor games," said meet director Glenn Davis. "They've been an integral part of our past five indoor meets."

Also joining the indoor games entry list Saturday was Willye White of Chicago, holder of 4 American indoor and outdoor records for women in the long jump. Miss White, a Chicago nurse, will provide competition for England's Mary Rand, holder of the world and Olympic women's record.

Miss White also will run in the women's 60-yard dash as will Chi Cheng of Nationalist China.

Bruins Bow In Chicago

By MICHAEL HUDSON
United Press International

It's been a sad January for Wash. Coast sports fans, who saw their Oregon State Beavers trampled by Michigan in the Jan. 1 Rose Bowl and Friday night saw UCLA's nationally top-ranked basketball team fall before Iowa.

The Bruins lost to the Hawkeyes, 87-82, as part of a Chicago double bill which also saw third-rated Wichita bow to Loyola of Chicago, 93-92.

Things looked pretty bright for the Bruin five Friday after Iowa center George Peeples left with an injury and then Bruin sharpshooter Ken Washington hit three straight buckets. That cut Iowa's lead to 77-76, but transfer student Chris Pervall hooped five straight points and UCLA never caught up as its 14-game win string was severed.

Persell led scorers with 28 and Keith Erickson had 24 for the Bruins. But Iowa held lefty Gail Goodrich to just 13 before he fouled out and that told the story.

The Bruins defeat probably cost them their number one ranking and came just a day after the West Coast's other powerhouse, nationally sixth-ranked University of San Francisco, flopped at Arizona. The Dons try their luck at Arizona State tonight.

More intersectional grief came to West teams Friday when Southern California lost at Denver in the last minute of play, 79-78. Big John Block hit 27 for Troy, but missed a one-and-one free throw that would have tied the score with six seconds to go. Then he fouled Frank Mixon on the rebound and Mixon hit both free throws to ice the contest.

Harlem Globetrotters' J.C. Gipson seems to have Owner-Coach Abe Saperstein entertained.

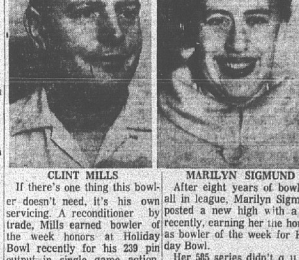
BOWLER OF THE WEEK
MALE FEMALE

T. C. GRIGGS

A modest man, this week's bowler of the week from Lucky Lanes credits his wife for his successes in the sport. Well . . . not altogether. His credit goes mostly to the fact that she started him in bowling.

And if it works that well, most of us will wish our wives had started us. Griggs currently hit a 258 individual game, and posted a 664 series in action with the Griggs Foods team in the Commercial League at Lucky Lanes.

While his 258 is tough enough, Griggs has bowled higher, in fact he holds a 278 in his record book for high game, and a 695 series.



CLINT MILLS

If there's one thing this bowler doesn't need, it's his own servicing. A reconditioner by trade, Mills earned bowler of the week honors at Holiday Bowl recently for his 239 pin output in single game action, and 644 series.

Mills has been bowling only four years now, three of them in league, and he already has a high game of 269 to his credit. This was part of a powerful 689 series he posted.

A tough competitor on the bowling lanes, he bowls in the Masters, Twilite, Double Trouble and Cal-Ore leagues.

VIVIAN COLLMAN

Like Yogi Bear, Vivian Collman keeps pickenʼ 'em up, and layin' 'em down . . . but unlike Yogi, Mrs. Collman does her action at Lucky Lanes where she bowls a mighty mean game.

She earned special honors as this week's bowler of the week for Lucky Lanes with a high game of 232 and high series of 601. Her previous high game output was 226, posted somewhere during her 15 years in league bowling.

Vivian bowls in the Elks and Classic leagues. Her husband is engaged in logging and ranching. They reside in rural Klamath Falls.

MARILYN SIGMUND

After eight years of bowling all in league, Marilyn Sigmund posted a new high with a 269 recently, earning her the honors as bowler of the week for Holiday Bowl.

Her 581 series didn't quite measure up to a previous high she rolled of 604, but it was enough to gain for her special recognition in local bowling circles.

A member of the Classic and Friday Foursome leagues, she bowled her all-time high single game with the Crater Lake Dairy team.

Her husband is employed by Carter's Flea Foods, and they make their home at 307 Lowell, Klamath Falls.

RECALL NORRIS

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League have recalled goalie Jack Norris from the Los Angeles Blades to fill in for the ailing Ed Johnston.

Globetrotters Here Monday

Skilled artisans of several professions will present their wares for the edification and delight of the assembled onlookers at Klamath Union Pelican Court on Monday, Feb. 1, when the great Harlem Globetrotters of basketball headline a program at 8 p.m.

Not only are the basketball players who will be in action, including the New York Nationals facing the Globetrotters, among the finest in the sport, but so are the array of added entertainers Boss Man Abe Saperstein of the Trotters is bringing along.

This is the celebrated international edition of the Globetrotters, who take their montage of cage wizardry, unsurpassed showmanship and all - around brilliance to all parts of the globe, including a third complete swing around the world last year. The team's 38th edition certainly must be classed among the best of all time. It is a unit of outstanding cagers, height, razzle dazzle perfection and speed.

There is the ace fun ringleader, Bob "Showboat" Hall, 6-2, now in his 15th season with the team and sharing this distinction is Bobby Milton, 6-1, player-coach, rounding out the powerhouse are Hallie Bryant, 6-3, Indiana University; 7-foot Bill "The Orbit" Garner from the University of Portland (Ore.); Mel Davis, 6-5, third season; Leroy Gibson, 6-5, a soph in Trotter rank, and Doug Himes, 6-5, Only newcomer to make the squad is 6-5 Manny Oliver. Always an attraction is J. C. Gipson, also appearing.

That's an array that would scare any opponent, but not the Nationals, who are most capable in their own right. Their squad: Tike Karavas, 6 feet, El Camino Junior College, Calif., a three-year AAU star; Bob Combs, 5-10, California State College and All - Army three years; Pat Patterson, 6-8, Bowling Green and voted Most Valuable Player in military tournament held in Verdun, France; Robert Akeo, 6 feet, University of Hawaii; Paul Putnam, 6-7, Fullerton Junior College, Calif.; player-coach Bob Stoermer, 6-8, University of Oklahoma; Troy Collier, 6-8, Utah State College, and Willie Anderson, 6-4, Oregon Tech.

Before the game and between halves will come the great added show, led by sensational one-legged dancing star Peg Leg Bates, and including the international table tennis champions, Richard Bergmann of England, and Lee Dai Joon of South Korea in competition; Chinese hand - balancing expert George Lee; Canada's clever Mike LeMay in acrobatic wizardry; trampoline ace Steve Parry, and Lee Marx celebrated juggler and acrobat.

Tickets for the huge show are on sale at Coast to Coast Store, Hall's Sport Shop and chamber of commerce office.
