Globetrotters To Appear Here Tonight

The fabulous Harlem Globetrotters, international unit, will perform this evening at 8 o'clock at Pelican Court in Klamath Falls.

White ticket sales have been heavy at advance sale outlets. There are still many good seats for the game available, and a lot of tickets will be sold at the gymnasium.

A preliminary contest is scheduled to kick off the evening's entertainment at 6:30. All students claiming student status will be in their seats by that time, officials announced today.

Half-time entertainment during the main game between the Trotters and the New York Nationals will feature Abe Saperstein's top flight troupes of acrobats, pantomimists, the table tennis experts, and a host of other exciting activities.

Fans will be happy to note that J. C. Gipson will be on hand with the touring Trotters, despite earlier announcements that he would not be here.

The Trotters will have their full complement at Klamath Court, and feature a strong, well-balanced opponent in the 11-towering New York Nationals.

Archer Wins Hometown Golf Match

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Long George Archer is a hometown boy who really made good in his hometown.

The six-foot-six native San Franciscan captured his first pro golf tournament, the $87,500 Lucky International, and won $3,500 Sunday night in front of his friends by holing a nine-foot birdie putt to edge New Zealand's Bob Charles in a playoff.

While a partisan gallery shouted, "come on George!" and "go get him, George," the 25-year-old tournament sophomore, on the circuit only 13 months, secured the biggest victory of his career.

He had stormed from far back in the match to tie with Charles in the regulation 72 holes by birdieing the last three holes for a three-under-par 68 and a total of 276 — six under par for the distance.

Charles had a chance to win it all on the final regulation hole but left a 29-foot putt short and had to settle for a tie with his closing 69.

With his wife, mother, father, two sisters, "and so many in laws I couldn't count them," trailing along, Archer missed a 12-foot putt on the first extra hole which would have given him the title.

On the second extra hole, a par four, he rolled a five-iron shot to within nine feet of the pin. Charles' putt from 18 feet stopped six inches short.

Archer, although he missed, was nervous and "scared," then nudged the ball into the hole.

Charles collected $4,500 for finishing in the runner-up spot. Tied for third at 281 were Canadian George Knudson and Gardner Dickinson of Lost Tree Village, Fla., each winning $3,500. Veteran Billy Maxwell of Indianapolis, Ind., and B. J. Holcher, a club professional from Los Angeles, had 282 to share fifth money, each collecting $2,625.

Title Shot At Stake In Match

By JACK CUDDY
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI) — Former world's number one heavy-weight champion Floyd Patterson and Canadian champion George Chivalvo, both very aggressive contenders, will collide tonight in jammed Madison Square Garden for a 12-round elimination fight.

But the betting is 8-5 that the bout does not last the 12 frames, regardless of who wins.

Because of his superior speed, 30-year-old Patterson is favored at 7-5 to beat the 27-year-old slugger from Toronto, whom champion Cassius Clay calls "the white hope."

Cassius will be doing the between-rounds commentary for theater-television.

Last week, Patterson of Great Neck, N. Y., was favored at 2-1; but big, brassy Chivalvo's apparently better condition in the closing stages of training pared down the betting price.

Richest Non-Title Bout
The complete sellout of 18,100 tickets, including those for 700 standees, will bring a "live" gate of about $160,000 at the Garden.

In addition a gross of about $500,000 is expected to be paid at theater-television locations in the United States and Canada.

The live gate plus the theater-television gate should produce a total gross of about $750,000, says Lester M. Maltz, theater-television producer.

The richest previous non-title gross was $392,116, attracted entirely "live" by heavyweights Luis Angel Firpo of Argentina and Harry Mills of New York at Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 11, 1924.

Tonight wealthy Patterson gets 20 per cent of the total net gate; Chivalvo, 20 per cent. Floyd is guaranteed $50,000; Chivalvo, $30,000.

When the fight starts at 10:30 p.m. (EST), Floyd and George will ostensibly be contending for the right to a shot at the winner of Chicago's March 5 fight between Ernie Terrell of while Cozza was a backfield assistant.

Chivalvo is scheduled to meet former world's heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in a 12-round at Madison Square Garden Monday night.

Local Fans Take Good With Bad

Local basketball fans took the good with the bad during the weekend in Klamath Basin, as they saw several favorites turn in one or two which they wanted to see tumble, emerge victorious.

At Pelican Court, the high and mighty Medford Blac Tornado carried a hard-fought overtime victory against the defending Klamath Falls Pelicans, 38-37, but the Pelicans were stopped cold in their tracks Friday night.

The strong Chiloquin Panthers found the Merrill Huskies had just a little too much for them on the Huskies' court, blowing the host club, 55-53, in a rugged contest.

And at the other end of the county, Gilchrist's up-and-coming Grizzlies turned back the Bonanza Antlers twice to emerge victorious in another close contest that saw the Grizzlies win, 66-62, at the final buzzer.

Even the winless Bly Bobcats were backing away on Friday, but they came with too little, and too late as Mallin's victory over Prospect Saturday evening. In this one, Chiloquin took the edge with a 56-51 decision.

Local Fans Take Good With Bad

Mustangs cracked the whip for a solid 63-43 decision. About the only thing that soothed aching spirits in the Chiloquin area was the Panthers victory over Prospect Saturday evening. In this one, Chiloquin took the edge with a 56-51 decision.
