is beat the clock and rarely has there been a more successful contestant than Terry Dischinger.

Tall Terry, a second-year player from Purdue, found his team in the rather unpleasant position of needing a win in the final 12 seconds to tie the Los Angeles Lakers Tuesday night.

Dischinger, who in two quick baskets and then sent the Lakers into overtime, actually had run after time had lapsed out.

That last accomplished, Dischinger settled down to a defensive role, beating the Lakers, Western Division leaders, in overtime. He did so by scoring 11 of Detroit's 15 points in the final 12 minutes as the Pistons polished off Los Angeles 121-118.

Dischinger accounted for 33 points in the game, played at Cleveland, Ohio, to wrest the spotlight from Lakers forward Elgin Baylor who was playing with police officers, surprising Pistons now have won six of their last seven games while the Lakers, playing with police officers, have been sidelined with a heavy cold and fever, had their five-game winning streak broken Tuesday.

In other games, the Philadelphia 76ers rolled to the sixth victory in eight games since they were eliminated from San Francisco with 119-105 conquest of St. Louis.

HARNEY ON TOP

FOOTBALL

Harney remains golf's top money winner with $12,000, according to Professional Golfers Association figures released Tuesday. Bob Charles is second with $9,125 and George Knudson is third with $8,750.

and the New York Knickerbockers whipped the Warriors 113-102 in a Madison Square Garden doubleheader.

Chamberlain, who collected 24 points and 16 rebounds, received considerable help from Philadelphia's supporting cast. Backcourt wizards Hal Greer and Larry Costello scored 24 and 22 points respectively while rookie Lucious Jackson had 23 points and 17 rebounds.

Greer now has scored 22 points or better in his last 10 games.

Veteran forward Johnny Green fused in 15 points in the home contest, and 23 for his first game to help the Knicks gain their home victory under new coach Harry Gallatin. Jim Barnes and Bob Bozer added 21 and 19 points, respectively to the Knicks, who now have a six-game winning streak over the Warriors.
