Hawaii Offers Different Fashion Ideas For Spring

BY BETTE KNIGHT

HONOLULU — "Carol and Mary" women's apparel shops in Honolulu have the most original clothes on the island. To view one of their fashion shows at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel is a pleasant and informative way to spend the lunch-hour.

When a traveler has a moment in between models it is pleasing to glance out onto the warm blue Pacific and feel the gentle ocean breezes blowing into the dining room.

An attractive model wearing a long white cotton lace shift over a bikini bathing suit strolled the parade of fashionable and interesting clothes.

Shifts are popular for spring in Honolulu. One of the styles was a lime-colored short afternoon dress, buttoned down the front. Beige shoes and bag were shown with the pastel dresses. Beige is so much smarter than white accessories. However, if you don't like beige, yellow leather shoes are worn with a yellow afternoon shift (and with other colors) and colored leather shoes are smart when matched with the outfit.

Black and white is a popular color combination — and is shown in afternoon cotton suits (with long jackets), beach shifts, and bathing suits. Colors that are compatible with sun fans are being shown. Yellow, light blue, red, white, brown and pink are featured. These colors are all combined

 your poetic license to fly into the blue
 Here's the happiest, most uninhibited flight of color this side of Shelley! Wild, tender Skylark-from-the-skin-out is the joyous new fashion glow with clothes (lights), brights, quiet neutrals and your complexion, too! And it all flies so blithely through the suds, then dries itself so smooth, how could you ask more of nylon, tricot, and Lycra® — even by Vanity Fair?

Next Sunday is VALENTINE'S DAY!
