PARIS (UPI) — A French soldier was jailed today awaiting trial on charges described by authorities as "pederastism."
Police said the soldier killed a gay man several times, then hit the driver and his wife when they got out of a car.

Advisory Group Holds Annual Meeting At OTI

The Oregon Technical Institute Advisory Group held its annual meeting Monday at the OTI offices.

The group studied several new resolutions, according to OTI officials.

"The group represents the different geographical areas of our state and many different organizations that are interested in technical education," OTI President Dr. Winston Purvine commented.

"Their advice is very valuable guidance in the development of Oregon Tech's programs."

Members of the committee are William G. Ross, Vice President; Ronald Jones, Brooks, S. E. Broggiani and Allen Leake, both of Hillsboro; A. Bell, Mrs. Albert Powers, Frances McGill and A. S. Teller, all of Portland; and Brandfield, Mrs. Leigh Gustison, Mrs. Moore Hamilton and Claude Haggard, all of Medford; Harley Libby, Jefferson; and Theodore Com, Lakeview.

A reception for the committee, a traditional event, was held Sunday evening in the Oregon Tech cafeteria.

Judge Mulls Venue Plea

Circuit Judge L. Orin Sizemore has taken an advisory motion by Osborne Gallagher to change the venue of his suit against Sheriff Murray "Red" Britton, sheriff's Deputy Alvin Youngblood and district attorney's investigator John Weber.

The motion was presented Monday to Judge Piper and Weber backed up the motion.

However, the attorney for Britton and Youngblood argued against it.

Gallagher is suing the three men for $105,000, charging he was held for 105 days in Klamath County Jail without being charged with a crime.

CHUCK PARKISON

Rodeo Group Picks Dates

Klamath Falls Roundup officials have announced July 2, 3, 4, as the dates for the 1965 event that will return Chuck Parkison of North Hollywood, Calif., to the announcer's stand.

Parkison continued his contract with officials this week.

Parkison has announced at the top of the leading rodeos in this country, including Madison Square Garden and Coney Island.

He also announced he heard him announce the events with a running commentary on man and beast, have requested his return this year.

Cotton Rosser's banner bucking horses and cattle will be returning from the Pinyon U Ranch in Nevada. The same string of livestock and many of the same riders and other performers who appeared here last year, also performed at the 1964 show in the Cow Palace.

July party gave two performances daily.

Negotiations for clowns, for participation in the big Fourth of July parade and other details are now under way.

Bird Losses Topic Of Meet

The problem of wild fowl degradation to private agricultural lands in the Klamath Basin will be the major topic to be discussed at a public meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 10, at 10 a.m. in the Henry Farm Bureau Hall.

The meeting has been arranged by the Klamath County Farm Bureau in cooperation with representatives from the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service to see possible solutions to the problem.

Farmers, ranchers and landowners are urged to attend the meeting. Anyone interested, but unable to attend, has been asked to telephone the Farm Bureau office telling of any experiences with degrading wild fowl.

gation had been considered several years ago and not thought feasible at that time. He called for a truce in the bitter battles being fought over the widening proposal.

"We have not proposed anything," the mayor said.

"Good heavens," Veatch said, "we are going to have to answer for sitting up here and discussing ideas for the betterment of the city."

The mayor told Mrs. Chambers that she and all other affected property owners would be notified about hearings on any of the projects if they are formally begun by the council.

He also told her that in his opinion, many of the streets in the city are in need of widening.

Police Arrest Woman On Prostitution Count

A city policeman Monday night arrested one woman for prostitution and her companion for vagrancy—less than a week after the American Social Health Association reported almost a complete lack of commercial prostitution in Klamath Falls.

Police said both women told them they had been women at Falls only a few days. Both were released.
