

Job's DeMolay Officers Installed

Recent ceremonies have been staged by Job's Daughters, Bethel 6 and 61 in Klamath Falls, and Bethel 51 in Henley together with Lost River Chapter of DeMolay to install new officers for the coming term.

Bethel 51 — DeMolay
Henley Bethel No. 51 and Lost River Chapter of DeMolay officers were inducted in a joint ceremony at Henley High School. Honored Queen Lona Berry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Learning, chose a pretty setting of lavender and pink for her installation as honored queen of Bethel 51. Klamath Chapter, Order of DeMolay, assisted in the crowning ceremony, and the sister of the queen, Ginger Learning, sang two solos, "I Believe" and "Climb Every Mountain."

The queen's gavel was presented by Ruth Holcomb, associate matron of Aloha Chapter of Eastern Star.

Other officers of Bethel 51 are: Pat Lase, senior princess; Eloise Landrum, junior princess; Marguerite Payne, guide; Jan Barney, marshal; Mary Drake, chaplain; Jolene Weber, senior custodian; Lynda Peterson, junior custodian; Susan Hyde, recorder; Doreen Barrett, treasurer; Donna Kettler, librarian; Dawn Revis, musician; Kathy Cook, soloist.

Betsy Cook, Karen Hoyt, Janice Ernst, Linda Nidever, and Mikell Totten were installed as the five messengers; Shirley Reimiller, inner guard; Mary Kellison, outer guard; Barbara Johnson, lady of the lights; Linda Arch, historian, and Barbara Schmidt, assistant recorder.

The installing officer, Honored Queen Sally Bratton, was introduced by Cecil Brown, associate guardian. Other installing officers were Sally Hanville, guide; Susana Whytal, chaplain; Pat Bratton, marshal; Cheryl Eccles, recorder; Alice Horsley, senior custodian; Lona Berry, junior custodian; Annette Fredrickson, musician; Ginger Learning, soloist; Helen Hunsaker, narrator.

Susan Hale was in charge of programs, and Linda Whytal, the guest book.

Among the guests introduced were Mrs. Shirley Eccles, guardian, Bethel 61, Elmer Vinson, past associate guardian, Bethel 61, Elmer Vinson, past associate guardian, Queen Lona introduced her parent and her brother, Don, and sister, Kay. She received red roses from the DeMolay chapter and her queen's jewel.

The retiring queen received her jewel and gifts from Don Johnson on behalf of the Lost River Masonic Club. Such a gift was given also to Kerm Whittemore later.

Dave Faircloth, retiring master counselor, was installing officer for the DeMolay, assisted by Bill Poe, senior councilor; Doug Coddington, junior councilor; Chuck Chahan, senior deacon; Bob Elliott, marshal; Gary Orem, chaplain; John Adair and Dick Faircloth, chair movers.

To serve with Kerm Whittemore are Steve Cheyne, senior counselor; Ross Langhear, junior councilor; John Andie, scribe; Dave Storey, chaplain; Dick Mettler, senior deacon; Luther Horsley, junior deacon; Bob Van Buren, senior steward; Jerry Finchum, junior steward; Doran McBride, almoner; Pat Barrett, marshal; Jim Adair, standard bearer; Randy Balsiger, sentinel; Steve Skinner, orator.

Tom Ferguson, Tom Ogman, Dave Reppe, Eric Haskins, John Elliott, Art Warren and Mike Umbarger are the seven preceptors.

The new master counselor presented coronets to his mother and to his grandmother, Mrs. P. D. Reeder. Dad advisers, Forrest Breitaupt and Clyde Horsley, were given gifts from the chapter.

Kathy Herringshaw provided music for the DeMolay ceremony.

Immediately following installation, the DeMolay's Mothers Club, served refreshments.

Bethel 61
Annette Fredrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fredrickson, was installed in a ceremony with the theme of the cross. Each officer added a light to the cross in the east as her name and office was read by the installing narrator, Susan Hyde, Bethel 6. Each officer carried a white cross on which was a bouquet of red satin roses made by the new queen's mother.

Proceeding the installation march were the crown bearers, Kenny Andrich and Cynthia Fredrickson.

The new queen was presented a bouquet of red roses from her new assisting officers, Cheryl Sassdeth, chaplain; Alice Horsley, senior custodian; Lona Berry, custodian; Sandy Voight, musician; guest book, Jolene Weber.

Soloists for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. William Devenport. Assisting with the ceremony were members of Klamath Chapter of DeMolay. A dance and reception followed installation in the hall decorated with tall snow-sprayed evergreens and deep red satin roses for trim on the long white covered tables. Gold-

HEADS BETHEL — Annette Fredrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fredrickson, was recently installed as honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel 61. — Photo by Ferebee

RECENTLY INSTALLED — Lona Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Berry, new honored queen of Job's Daughters, Henley Bethel 51, is pictured with the new master counselor of Lost River Chapter of DeMolay, Kerm Whittemore, son of Mrs. Charles Whittemore. They were installed at joint ceremonies at Henley High School. — Photo by Ferebee

DATE SET — Feb. 20 is the date set by Margaret Jane Rosalind McWilliams and Patrick Charles Sirgs for their wedding which will take place in the Kingsley Field Chapel. She is the daughter of T. Sgt. J. R. McWilliams and Mrs. Williams of Falcon Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Ervin Sirgs, Northlake, Ill., are parents of the future bridegroom who is stationed at Kingsley Field.

Open House Set
BLY — Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hildes are invited to an open house in honor of their 31st wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 14, from 2 to 5 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Bly School.

Open House Set
BLY — Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hildes are invited to an open house in honor of their 31st wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 14, from 2 to 5 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Bly School.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

By Helen Bechen

Herald & News Klamath Falls, Wed., Feb. 10, 1965 Page 19

NEW!

DOUBLE PAK FOR DOUBLE TASTE TREATS

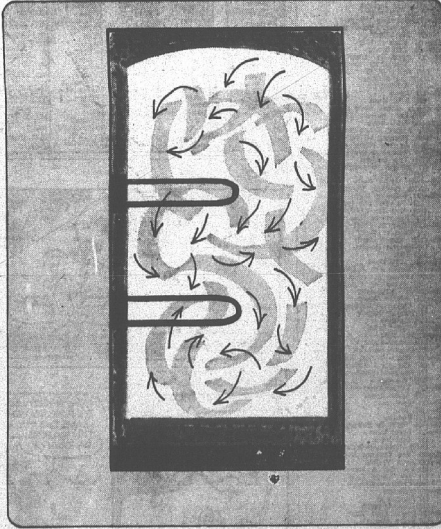

Now you can make a single purchase to satisfy double potato chip preferences. Each new BLUE BELL Combination Pak has a bag of regular chips and a bag of barbecued chips. At your grocers now. Isn't that jim-dandy?!

Electric Water Heating Costs So Little!

NO HEAT IS WASTED UP A FLUE

A flame type water heater spills nearly half its heat up a flue or chimney...to heat the outdoors.

HEAT IS APPLIED IN THE WATER

Inside an electric water heater, it's flameless, so there's no flue to waste heat and carry off fumes.

No wonder...
88% OF ALL NEW HOMES
AND APARTMENTS BUILT
LAST YEAR IN A 5-STATE
AREA WE SERVE INSTALLED
ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS!

Electric water heaters are 100% efficient... the flame type generally is about 56% efficient! Nearly half the heat from a flame is wasted! Add the fact that Pacific Power rates are low and you'll see; electric water heating here costs so little!

But there are other reasons why nearly 9 out of 10 choose an electric water heater. It's flameless and so safe children can play around it. You can put it anywhere. New quick-recovery electric water heaters are 4 times faster—supply all the hot water you ever need.

PACIFIC POWER