

Barbershoppers To Hold Concert

The Klamath Falls Chapter of SPEBSQSA, Inc. (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America) will stage its 17th annual quartet and chorus concert on May 1, at Mills School Auditorium, where these performances have been held since demolition of the Pelican Theater in 1960.

In addition to local performers this year's program will include the Mt. Hood Timber Tones, a comedy quartet; the Journeymen, a quartet of national fame and highly regarded.

ed from a musical proficiency standpoint; the Bay Shore Four from Coos Bay; the Rose City Four of Portland, and the Gay Blades of Lebanon.

All costs for the performance will be reserved and tickets will be on sale by April 1, at Derby's and by members of the local barbershop chorus.

Current officers of the Klamath Falls Chapter, SPEBSQSA are: Lyle Smith, president; Robert Boyle and Everett Ball, vice presidents; Hub Stone, secretary; Fred Southwell, treasurer; Frank Johnson, chorus director; Pat Wilson, delegate; Homer Amoureux, Vernon Durani, Jim Perkins, executive board.

Klamath Falls Christmas Center and to the Institute of Logopedics at Wichita, Kan. In past years substantial sums were given to local youth groups, the new hospital fund, Oregon Technical Institute Scholarship Fund and the Red Cross.

Judge Delays Seamen's Case

PORTLAND (UPI)—Federal Judge William East has delayed for a month a hearing on motions for two Yugoslav seamen who seek political asylum in this country.

The seamen, Veselin Vucinic, 28, and Veljko Stanisic, 29, are free on their own recognizance and are staying with a relative in Eugene.

Proceeds from the show go to various worthy causes. Recently donors were made to worthy families, through the

British Feel Impact Of American Industry

LONDON (UPI)—British aircraft workers today felt the first effects of the Labor Government's decision to buy American instead of British warplanes. Sixty-five workers were laid off at one big factory and thousands more were expected to be released soon.

The move came just a day after the government defeated an opposition censure motion on the aviation issue by a narrow margin of five votes. A stormy session in the House of Commons, marked by the walkout of Prime Minister Harold Wilson, saw the Liberal party's nine members swing over to back the opposition Conservatives.

Up until now, the Liberal party has sided with the Labor government on every opposition censure motion. Labor party officials feared that a coalition of Conservative and Liberal
