

AAUW Look Forward To Unusual Program

Delicious foreign foods, unique decorations, and a colorful program are awaiting all AAUW members and guests at the coming Foreign Foods Fellowship Luncheon Saturday, Feb. 20. The menu will include numerous tempting foreign dishes which many people have not had the opportunity to taste, such as the authentic German and Chinese foods which will be prepared by people from those countries. There will be an exotic Hawaiian treat, novel salads depicting the different tastes of at least three foreign countries, about 10 casserole dishes prepared from recipes of such countries as Holland and Switzerland, Norwegian pastries, breads, of various countries and types of people, Swiss cheeses, a punch of an unusual blend of flavors, Chinese tea, and also the usual favorite luncheon beverages. Besides this elegant fare, the favorite American style roast beef and ham will be served. A setting appropriate for such a gourmet meal will include decorations dotted with authentically dressed dolls in costumes of our foreign neighbors.

The program for the day will be equal to the elaborate feast. To get into the spirit of promoting interest in the AAUW Fellowship program there will be a presentation by six women. Each will represent a recipient of a fellowship from one of the following countries: Brazil, Thailand, China, Holland, India and Australia. These women have actually lived in these countries and will dress according to their parts. Also, a Sister will represent fellowships won by nuns.

Reservations must be made by Thursday, Feb. 18, because of the crowd expected and the food preparation involved. Call Mrs. Donald Bluminger, 882-5494, or Mrs. Norman Gould, 884-6138. The luncheon will be held Feb. 20, at 12:30, at the First Presbyterian Church, with the proceeds going to the Fellowship Fund.

Church Rites Unite Couple

Mt. Laki Community Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Jan. 16 ceremony in which Marjorie Lorraine Flowers became the bride of Howard Lee Lukens in a single ring service officiated by the Rev. Andrew Jarvis. Altar decorations were white and pink chrysanthemums and carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Flowers, Midland, and was given in marriage by her father. She wore a two-piece rose pink knit suit with pink hat and slippers. Her bouquet of white feathered carnations was centered with an orchid. For tradition she wore a blue garter and lucky penny in her slipper.

Mrs. Louis Hunter, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. WHIP was presented a monetary orchid corsage in a treasure chest and flower garden addendum arranged by officers in East with the help of "garden nymphs" Lena Fowler, Lois Murphy played appropriate background music and accompanied Ruth Geiss as she sang a special arrangement to the tune of "Among My Souvenirs."

She was dressed in a blue fleck two-piece wool suit with white accessories. At her shoulder was a corsage of dark rose carnations.

Another sister, Mrs. Curt Smith, Eugene, was bridesmaid, dressed in a yellow knit suit, white accessories and pink carnation corsage.

Caroline Keylor was the organist.

The bridegroom is the son of Robert H. Lukens, Klamath Falls, Best man for his brother was Robert Lukens.

Mrs. Flowers was dressed for her daughter's wedding in a pink and yellow flowered silk dress with white accessories and corsage of a white orchid and pink roses.

After the church ceremony there was a wedding reception at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hunter, and Mrs. Charles Gray.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Lukens are living in Klamath Falls, where the bridegroom is employed by Southern Pacific Company. Mrs. Lukens is a senior at Hensley High School.

STUDENTS WED — Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fabianek were married recently in the chapel of Palmer College of Chiropractic where both are students. Mrs. Fabianek is the former Betty Lee Overbeck of Greensburg, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. John Fabianek, Klamath Falls, are parents of the bridegroom.

Iowa Rites Unite Pair

Betty Lee Overbeck, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Moore, Greensburg, Pa., and John W. Fabianek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fabianek, Klamath Falls, were united in marriage in a recent ceremony at the chapel on the campus of Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa, where both are students. The Rev. Kenneth Metcalf of St. John's Methodist Church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Neva Lee Kohlhammer was soloist and Mrs. Kenneth Metcalf, organist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her uncle. She wore a floor length gown of white satin fashioned with empire waistline, long pointed sleeves and Sabrina neckline. Floral appliques accented the bouffant skirt with a chapel train. The veil of imported French illusion was held in place by a crown and forehead cluster of tiny pearl and crystal flowers. She carried a spray of red roses and white carnations. A lucky six pence was given her by Mrs. B. F. Argile of Klamath Falls.

Maid of honor was Doreen Overbeck, Greensburg, sister of the bride. Her gown was floor length with Kelly green velvet top and white brocade skirt. Bridesmaid, Diane Kline, Jackson, Mich., was dressed in a gown with red velvet top and white brocade skirt. Both carried bouquets of peppermint carnations.

Gerald Coy, Los Angeles, was best man and Jim Fabianek, Klamath Falls, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsman. Ushers were Gary Moore, Greensburg, and George Zabuty, Madison, Ind.

The bride's aunt wore for the occasion a blue satin dress with black accessories and white orchid corsage. Mrs. Fabianek chose a blue crepe dress and black accessories. She, too, had a corsage of white orchids.

The wedding reception was held in the cafeteria of Palmer College. Assisting with serving were Lee Schlabbach, Beth Rock, Sharon Hudson and a Weather Shadock.

The new Mrs. Fabianek's going away outfit was a blue suit. The newlyweds traveled in Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota before returning to their studies at Palmer College. They are planning to spend a week before the wedding touring the college campus and other points of interest.
