

BETROTHED — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hobson announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Ann, to Gordon Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clive W. Cook of Canby, Ore. No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-to-be will be graduated in June from Oregon State University, where she is affiliated with Winston House. The future bridegroom is a graduate of OSU and is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho. He recently returned from Korea where he went as a member of the Inter-Farm Youth Exchange.

ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Wilford A. Messersmith, Chico, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Kathleen Marie Lehman, to Terrence Michael Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Adams of Tulelake. The wedding will be Feb. 21 in Chico's St. Basil Memorial Presbyterian Church. Both young people are attending Chico State College where she is majoring in vocal music and her fiancé in secondary music.

Club To Hear Priest Talk

The Rev. David Hazen, assistant pastor at St. Pius X Catholic Church in Klamath Falls, will discuss briefly the Ecumenical Council and its implications at the Thursday, Feb. 18, luncheon meeting of the Scourge Club, Mrs. Tom Dunn, program chairman for the day, announced.

Father Hazen, a native of La Grande, Ore., and an alumnus of Oregon State University, is beginning his fifth year of service in the Klamath Falls parish. He has served in various capacities during his priesthood, and brings a wide background of reading to his discussion.

Following his talk, Mrs. Dunn said, Father Hazen will answer audience questions.

Guests are welcome to attend; the attendance committee should be called for these reservations and for cancellations.

PPA To Host Club Meets At Kingsley AFS Students

Kim from Saigon, Greta from Austria, Roger from the Philippines, and Bob from Brazil, foreign students attending school in the United States under the American Field Service Scholarship Program, will all be together on Monday, Feb. 22, to appear on a program for the KUHS Parents and Patrons Association meeting to be held in the high school cafeteria at 7:45 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

Nguyen Thi Kim Zoon, "Kim," of Saigon, Viet Nam, attends Ashland High School; Margaret Schalk, "Greta," from Puerstorf, Austria, attends Tulelake High School; Rogelio "Roger" Rivera Soliva, Iloilo, Philippines, is a student at Dunsmuir High School, and Roberto Marchon Lemos de Moura "Bob," Brazil, is a senior at Klamath Union High School.

Jim Drew, KUHS student body president, will be master of ceremonies. He was an exchange student on the summer program, spending three months in Germany last year.

The Kingsley Airmen's Wives Club met Feb. 2 at the service club to discuss amendments and to plan for a membership drive. At the end of six months, an award and prize will be given the person who brings in the most new members.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Jeanette Newton, Mrs. Pat Payne and Mrs. Paulette Whalen.

A yatchee party is planned for Feb. 18 at the home of Mrs. Barbara Padgett, 423 North Seventh Street.

The highlight of the next meeting will be a cake decorating demonstration by Mrs. Jessie Ploud. All members are asked to bring iced cakes and Mrs. Ploud will demonstrate a how to make various flowers, leaves and designs.

This meeting will be March 2 at 12 noon at the service club. A nursery will be furnished. All airmen's wives are cordially invited to attend.

Sojourners Plan Party

Sojourners will stage their annual couples party on Thursday evening, Feb. 18, beginning at 7:30 in the Shasta Community Hall. Cards and games will be played and coffee and dessert served. A nominal fee will be charged. Members planning to attend are asked to confirm reservations by calling the chairman, Mrs. Paul Meier, 882-5782, by Monday evening, Feb. 15.

At the last meeting of Sojourners, observation was made of Founder's Day, marking the 28th anniversary of the organization. Ellen Jackson, chairman, welcomed the past presidents and read the history of the club.

Past presidents attending were Mrs. R. H. Kitchan, Mrs. Charles Houston, Mrs. John Arnesinger, Mrs. Robert S. Wright, Mrs. R. H. Bowers, Mrs. John Fern, Mrs. Paul Meier, Mrs. Earl D. Nash, Mrs. Charles Dakin, Mrs. Fred Martin and Mrs. E. O. Jackson.

A lovely cake inscribed "Founders Day, 1937-1965" was served.

Sojourners is an organization formed to welcome newcomers to Klamath Falls. For information concerning membership, call Mrs. John Ashley, 884-4552.

Officers Take Posts

DUNSMUIR — The newly installed president of the J. A. Fillmore Division, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is Mrs. Francis Homer.

Other new officers are Mrs. Opal Morgan, past president; Mrs. Phyllis Ingersoll, vice president; Mrs. Carol Livingston, secretary; Mrs. Carol McMillan, relief secretary, and Mrs. Lois Whitlock, treasurer.

Formal installation ceremonies were cancelled early in January due to bad weather. The new officers took their posts at a regular session of the lodge.

OTI Program Is Presented

The home economics teachers of Klamath county and city schools had as their guest at a recent luncheon meeting in the Winema Hotel, Mrs. Katie Lake, instructor at Oregon Technical Institute. Mrs. Lake, assisted by Mrs. Bernice Andrews, presented three of her students, Carol Frei, Helen Stevens and Janet Jo Highland, in a fashion modeling demonstration and technique of handling fashion shows. Mrs. Lake will teach a course in personality and good grooming during spring term at OTI. She has presented many style shows throughout the county, using her own students as models.

Style shows are annual projects of county home economics teachers who present their students modeling clothes which they have made in class.
