

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The Johannesburg Bridge Club of South Africa publishes a monthly bulletin and is kind enough to send it to members of the International Bridge Press Association.

A monthly feature in an article for students by Ben Cohen of Hove and his November article is a fine illustration of the play known as the "Up-Percut."

Mr. Cohen points out that of the rules of defense taught to beginners is never to play a card that will give declarer a ruff and discard. That is never to give him a chance to ruff in one hand and discard in the other.

Then Mr. Cohen points out that all rules should be broken on occasion.

South's jump to four spades effectively discouraged an idea West might have had about bidding and West has no problem about the first three tricks. He simply cashes three high clubs and then looks around for some place to lead a fourth trick.

A brief review of the bidding will tell him that there:

1. The bidding has been: North East South West
1♠ 2♣ 3♠ 4♠
2. You, South, hold:
♠ A 2 3 4 5 6 7
♥ K Q J 10 9 8 7
♦ A K Q J 10 9 8
♣ A K Q J 10 9 8
