Bruins Ride On Cloud Nine

Goodrich Hits 28 In Victory

By United Press International

UCLA is on cloud nine and soaring toward another undefeated AAWU conference basketball title.

The second ranked Bruins won their ninth consecutive league game Friday night, 73-55, over Oregon State, but it took the combined scoring efforts of backcourt men Gail Goodrich and Freddie Goss to accomplish the task.

UCLA held a 17 point lead, 36-19 in the first half, but Oregon State closed the game 36-27 at intermission and narrowed it even further at 45-40 with 5:30 gone in the second half.

Then the Bruin guards went to work. The "G" boys wore down State's defenses with Goodrich scoring 28 points and Goss 17 for the contest.

Princeton's Bill Bradley, hobbled by a leg injury, scored 19 points as the Tigers defeated Dartmouth, 93-57, and raised their Ivy League record to 9-1. Cornell raised its Ivy lead to 11-0 by routing Brown, 99-61.

Larry Lakins hit with a jump shot with 44 seconds left to give North Carolina State a 62-61 win over Clemson in the annual North-South doubleheader. North Carolina swamped South Carolina, 76-63, in the opener as Bob Lewis scored 25 points.

Arizona tied New Mexico for the Western Athletic Conference lead by edging Wyoming 78-77 despite Floyd Robinson's 33 points for the losers. New Mexico fell into a deadlock with the Wildcats by losing to Arizona State U., 71-65.

DePaul won its 12th consecutive home game, 77-64 over Portland (Ore.) with the help of Jim Murphy's 24 points.

Charles Maintains Position

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—New Zealand's Bob Charles, frustrated once this season in his quest for a second U.S. golf championship, held a commanding position Saturday as he headed into the third round of the 45,000 Tucson Open with a three-stroke advantage on the field.

The 28-year-old Charles, who lost in a playoff to George Archer in the Lucky International at San Francisco last month, strengthened his position Friday. He tacked a 34-35—69 onto his opening 65 to go 10 under par at 134 after 36 holes at the 7,200-yard Tucson National Golf Club course.

He put together a dazzling 40-yard eagle chip shot, a 15-foot birdie putt and 16 regulation pars for his 69.

Charles drew comfort from the fact that the most dangerous players in the field — Billy Casper and Tony Lema — trail him by six strokes in a 72-player group at 140.

Two young pros were closest to him—26-year-old Tom Shaw of Portland, Ore., in second place at 137 after a 69 Friday, and 22-year-old Jim Ferriell Jr., Louisville, Ky., next at 69-69—138, on his first start on the PGA tour.

Former PGA champion Lionel Hebert, Harold Kneece, and Bob Johnson all tour regulars, and Darrell Hickok, pro at nearby Tucson Country Club, stood at 139. Hickok jumping into the picture with a six under par 66.

Trojans Ramble Over Ducks

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Domination of the backboards and a 24-point scoring performance by the ever - improving John Block Friday night helped power Southern California to a 77-56 AAWU basketball victory over Oregon.

The Trojan win came in the first game of a conference double-header at the sports arena. Second-ranked UCLA remained undefeated in league play against Oregon State in the nightcap.

It was the fourth straight conference win for the Trojans and the sixth in their last seven games as they remained in second place with a 6-3 mark. Over-all USC now is 12-9 for the season.

Southern Cal out - rebounded the Ducks 35-16 in the first half as it broke loose midway through the period and had a 44-28 lead at halftime. The final rebounding statistics had USC ahead 62-31.

Allen Young led the Trojan spurt in the first half with 14 points but added only one more point in the second half.

Oregon's hotshot guard Jim Barnett, led both teams with 25 points.

Oregon was ahead 10-7 with four minutes played but Bill Westphal—who finished with 14 points—and Young opened up to boost USC into a 32-19 lead in the next ten minutes. Then Block took over in the second half with 16 points to keep the Trojans well ahead.

Block and Westphal were the mainstays in USC's control of the boards, grabbing 14 and 13 rebounds, respectively.

Oregon, which had beaten the Trojans 81-74 at Eugene earlier in the season, now has a 3-6 conference record and is 9-12 for the season.

Young's 15-point total boosted him into second place on the all-time Trojan scoring list. He now has 1,078 points compared with 1,484 for all - time leader John Rudometkin.

How Do I Exist? Asks Cager

By JOHN ENGSTROM
United Press International

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) —A father, shocked over his son's alleged involvement in a basketball point-shaving scandal, could only wonder what might have gone wrong.

"It did not sound like the Charles I know," he said.

In that statement the Rev. Luther K. Williams, father of Charlie Williams, Seattle University basketball player accused of participating in a basketball bribery conspiracy, summed up his numbed bewilderment.

"He's my son. I believe in him," Rev. Williams said here Friday. "It is my hope he still has a future scholastically."

Mr. Williams was en route to Kansas City from Phoenix, Ariz., where he is a pastor for the Methodist Episcopal Church, when he heard of his son's arrest by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The younger Williams, 21, Tacoma, Wash., and a teammate, Peller Phillips, 21, Detroit, were arrested Wednesday and charged with conspiring with a Chicago tavern owner, Leo Casale, 24, to control the point spread in a Seattle game Jan. 22 with the University of Idaho.

Williams and Phillips are scheduled to face a preliminary hearing March 1. Casale, whose arraignment in Chicago has been continued until Tuesday, will also be brought here for a preliminary hearing, the U.S. district attorney's office said.

Speaking in his attorney's office Friday, Phillips worried about feeding his family.

"What do I do until (the preliminary hearing)," he asked. "My scholarship is automatically cut off, I have no job and my wife, Deirdre, is expecting soon. What do I live on?

"And how do I complete my education? I feel I'm innocent, but how do I get back in school?"

Henley Wins Matches

The Henley Hornets made it two-in-a-row Friday and Saturday, as they trimmed the visiting Rogue River and Eagle Point wrestling teams on the Henley Court.

In their first effort, Bob Creed's hustling grapplers handed Rogue River a solid 47-17 defeat. On Saturday, Creed turned his Hornets loose on Eagle Point, with a resultant 43-12 decision, favoring the Hornets.

In Friday's contest, the results were as follows:

98—J. Flowers (H) drew with his opponent, 2-2; 115—D. Rodriguez (H) pinned V. Wahley (EP) 5:10; 123—R. Smith (H) won on decision 11-0; 130—J. McPherson (H) drew with opponent 2-2; 136—K. Whittemore (H) lost by decision 3-2; 141—P. Milanovich (H) pinned B. Wilson (EP) 1:47; 148—Bob Farmer (H) extended his record to 10-0-1 with decision over his opponent 9-2; 157—W. Blodgett (H) won by default; 168—Steve Peters (H) pinned Hawkins (EP) 3:08; 178—L. Bergstrom (H) won by decision, 5-1, for his 13th straight win; 191—T. Vassalo pinned L. Carney (EP) 5:16; Heavyweight—Rex Friend pinned Hazelton (EP) 5:08.

In the Rogue River contest: Bob Rodriguez, Gary Wallin, Pat Barrett, Bob Farmer, Kim Hale and Rich Rogers won matches by pins. Flowers drew in his match at 2-2, and Steve Peters won by default. Bergstrom and Grigsby won their matches on forfeits.

Next week the Hornets tackle the Klamath Union High School Sophs at Klamath.

Indian Elimination Meet Features High Scoring

CHILOQUIN — The Sprague River Indians earned the right to play Warm Springs Cougars in the championship round of tournament here Saturday night, after defeating the Shadley Hunters and Nation All-Stars in earlier contests.

Warm Springs handed Toppenish and Beatty solid beatings to also advance into the championship round.

Toppenish and the Red Foxes secured spots in consolation play at Chiloquin High School gymnasium, as they bounced back from earlier losses to win two tournament contests.

The tournament opened Thursday with Nation All-Stars trimming the Red Foxes 62-72, behind the scoring of Don Dexter with 28 points, and Fred Woods with 21. Gene Gentry added 30 to the loser's totals.

In the second contest, Sprague River found no difficulty in trimming the Shadley Hunters, 120-54, behind D. Lytle's 28-point effort. L. Weeks also connected for 28 points for the losers.

Beatty won easily over Winema Sons, 93-69, with Bob Preston hitting 27 points, assisted by P. Delrosa with 23. G. Crane of Winema connected on 23 counters, while assisted by B. Bojorcus with 22.

In the nightcap contest, Warm Springs Cougars bombarded the Toppenish Pappooses by a 123-66 score. A. Smith garnered 23 points in a winning effort.

Friday the Red Foxes opened with an 88-50 decision over the hapless Shadley Hunters, with Gene Gentry collecting 29 points. Toppenish followed the pattern by trimming Winema Sons 85-64, forcing them from the tournament. B. Walker connected for 33 points, while Bojorcus had 21 for the losers.

Sprague River, eyeing the chaplonship berth, eked out a narrow margin win over Nation All-Stars 77-73, in the tournament's finest contest. Ed Case led the Sprague River five with 30 points, while Modesto Jiminez contributed 23 points in a losing effort for the All-Stars.

Once again, the Warm Springs five took control of the situation, sending Beatty to the showers on the short end of an 87-61 decision, as D. Palmer collected 25 points. D. Gonzales hit 24 for the losers.

In Saturday afternoon action, the Red Foxes earned a consolation clash opportunity as they sent Beatty out of the tournament in a 77-50 decision. J. Townsend collected 33 points with Gentry adding 24 to the winners.

Toppenish stayed in the running with a 72-54 victory over the Nation All-Stars, with B. Wahpat scoring 28 points. Fred Woods had 14 for the losers.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

NEW YORK (UPI) — David Newamark, seven-foot Columbia freshman basketball center, underwent surgery for three hours Friday after severely cutting his left hand and wrist in a dormitory accident Thursday night. A school spokesman said it would be six months before doctors determine if he will play basketball again.
