

RECENT BRIDE — Mrs. William Joseph Clotera was Rae Dean Marks before her recent marriage at Fort Mason Chapel in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Marks, this city, are her parents. The young couple will live in San Francisco.

Rae Dean Marks Bride In San Francisco Rites

Rae Dean Marks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Marks, this city, became the bride of William Joseph Clotera in a recent ceremony at Fort Mason Post Chapel in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Hyman, Santa Clara, are parents of the bridegroom. Father William Hagen of Alma College, Los Gatos, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Col. D. DeVincent was the organist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza with a pearl doo-see finish fashioned with fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. The Princess Regina neckline was outlined with hand-clipped scalloping and applique of reembodyered Alencon lace enhanced with sea-ee pearls and mother of pearl sequins. The bouquet skirt, designed to appear as a sheath with side panel over skirt, was also trimmed with applique garlands of matching reembodyered Alencon lace down the side panels, tapering to a cascade of chapel length sweep. An Alencon lace-bedecked hood headpiece whose pearl and sequin matched the gown, held in place the fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white cymbidium orchids and stephanotis. Maid of honor for her sister was Vickie Jean Marks, Klamath Falls. She was dressed in a long gown of yellow chiffon over peau de soie made with bouffant skirt and short sleeves. Her headpiece was made of silk organza flower petals and veil in matching yellow shade. She carried yellow roses. Michael Stapleton, San Francisco, was best man. Ushers were Richard Rozzono, Fresno; Robert Keeble and Ed Hoffman, both of San Francisco. Mrs. Marks wore for the bride's wedding a mint green suit with green hat and bone accessories. Mrs. Hyman chose a powder blue suit, matching satin hat and black

'The Road Ahead' Review Heard By KF Library Club

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club met Feb. 8 for a program featuring Mrs. R. W. Egan's review of the book "The Road Ahead" by John Flynn. She was introduced by Mrs. Frank Kohl, education chairman. Following Mrs. Egan's review, Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns, who had reviewed the book when it was written 12 years ago, led a question and answer session concerning the book. Mrs. Dick Henzel presided over the meeting which opened with the pledge of allegiance led by Mrs. Roland Wright, and singing of God Bless America, led by Mrs. Ralph Richardson. Mrs. John Manning, guest soloist sang "Summertime" in "The Still of the Night" and "Loro Let Me Live." She was accompanied by Marie Oberhain. Mrs. Ragnar Carlson, fine arts chairman, reported she has several paintings ready to submit for judging. Miss Pinney, chairman of the April 3 rummage sale, asked members to save items for the sale. The club's board of directors had requested Mrs. Frank Kohl to repeat a study group that was sponsored by the club last year. In that program, a meeting was called each week to review on books already chosen and read or studied. A discussion period then followed each review. This year, Mrs. Kohl also plans to offer a study group in which there would be no advance preparation involved. Mrs. Kohl announced the sessions would begin about the first of March and will continue for approximately eight weeks. These two study groups are open to the public. For further information, Mrs. Kohl may be contacted at 838-3894. The meeting closed with the Collect, led by Mrs. William Boone.

FAREWELL PARTY
BONANZA — Dorothy Faulstich and Christy Carr gave a farewell party at Bonanza Library for Twilla Hubble who is now a friend of Sacred Heart Academy in Klamath Falls. She moved there recently with Vernon Hubble and family. The lounge group enjoyed dancing, games and refreshments.

WOM Meet
Women of the Moose, Chapter 467, observed hospital chapter night Feb. 2 with Doris Oberg, senior regent, presiding. Pro-tem chairman, Pauline Risley, introduced Mrs. Alexis Runyan, who spoke on the Hospital Guild of which she is president. Enrolled as new members were Inez Stewart, Gladys Chubb and Donna Redfield.
