
OBSERVE SPECIAL DATE — Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Bourn cut a cake decorated in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary and served to guests at an open house Jan. 20 at their home in Bly.

Statistics on an insurance actuary study recently made of the average weight and life expectancy of American men and women reveal that there is a definite relationship between overweight and premature death. It has also been discovered that, as a rule, the women today weigh considerably less than their mothers did. With the men it's a different matter entirely, but we'll avoid that painful subject. These facts to the contrary notwithstanding, there are a large number of women whose glamour quotient suffers considerably simply because of an overweight problem. Somehow, beautiful features, fine intelligence, and attractive personality are subdued in a woman who is too heavy. The remedy, of course, is diet for most. You should diet wisely, so stick to a diet approved by a competent medical authority.

Bly Pair Note Date

BLY—Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Bourn were honored Jan. 20 at an open house in observance of their 40th wedding anniversary. Hostesses, Mary Hague and Georgie Hall, used a red and white motif to carry out the theme of the ruby anniversary.

A pretty three-tiered cake, baked by the Bourn's daughter, Mrs. Jeanette Ellis, centered the table whose white cloth was autographed by guests during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bourn were married Jan. 20, 1925, in Greenville, Tex. They came to Oregon in 1943 and to Bly five years ago. Four of their six children were present, Mrs. Jeanette Ellis, Dian Miller, Marcella Pizan and Mrs. Ruby Norton. Mrs. Dalene Gallagher and Bill Bourn of Medford were unable to attend.

Investment Talk Slated

H. Gilbert Johnson, representative from the Portland office of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, will discuss "Women and Investments" at the Thursday, Feb. 25, luncheon meeting of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club.

Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, one of the largest securities and commodity brokers with offices in over 100 cities in the United States, has a history that can be traced to the years prior to 1914, when Charles Merrill, its founder, retired a millionaire at the age of 29. Merrill, son of a Florida doctor, was a "college drop-out," a short-time newspaperman, and a man with an avid interest in the stock market and the common investor.

The company, originally Merrill, Lynch, E. A. Pierce and Cassatt, became the familiar Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Beane in 1941, with the merger of four Wall Street firms. Some few years later it acquired its present title.

Johnson will be introduced by Mrs. Charles Larkin, program chairman for the day. Following the discussion, the meeting will be open to audience questions, Mrs. Larkin said.

Guests are very welcome, the attendance committee should be called for these reservations and for cancellations.

DANCE PARTY

BONANZA — Bob and Bill Hartley were hosts to 68 young friends at a recent dancing party. Linda McFall and Judy Terpening assisted Mrs. Hartley with the party plans and Butch Thomas, Linda McFall and the hosts did the decorating. Leah McFall made the "Sloppy Joes" served during the evening.

Mrs. Biehn, outgoing president, received a lamp for her year in office. She also presented gifts to her slate of officers.

A letter of thanks for the club's donation was read from the Christmas Clearing Bureau.

A special prize was won by Mrs. Charles Howard.

PLAN WEDDING — Doris Arlene Barnwell, daughter of Mrs. Hugh Barnwell and the late Hugh Barnwell, is the fiance of Jack V. Whitaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whitaker of Lancaster, S.C. They will be married in March.

Unique Benefit Party Slated For March 6

A title to titilate everyone's curiosity is the "Lion and the Lamb" party scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday, March 6, in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

A few inquiries produced the information that the party will be a benefit for flood victims in Oregon, with proceeds to go to the Red Cross, as official disaster relief agency of our country. Local community leaders point out that over $10,000 has been spent in Klamath County for flood relief, and that this county has had only the tiniest taste of what floods mean to families.

Plans for the party include cards, with reservations being handled by Mrs. Hugh L. Swaney; "Treasures" which will be sold at a silent auction, headed by Mrs. Everett Miner, and "Edible Treasures" will be offered (Addie Walker's famed hot rolls, Clara Moore's divine divinity candy, Edna Dakin's handmade chocolates), with Mrs. C. R. Canine in charge.

Make a juicy hamburger steak by mixing four tablespoons of milk with a pound of hamburger meat.

Mrs. Winston Purvine, general chairman for the affair, states there will be more news of the plans for the party between now and that red letter day, March 6.

CLOSE KNIT CONVENIENCE

You can reduce household chores to simple jobs by grouping many of your household facilities next to the kitchen. A laundry adjoining the kitchen provides functional simplicity. A powder room and shower in the same area can give added convenience for quick clean-ups after working in the yard, garden or workshop. It's a good idea to surface all the seas with durable, easy-to-clean ceramic tile, which also helps cut down on household chores.

What makes a really good credit rating?
We can just hear someone say, "Money in the bank!" But that isn't all there is to it by any means. The point is—you don't have to carry a large balance to merit an A-1 credit rating. It's much more important that you make a habit of paying your bills —and that we know about it!
