

Klamath County Oldster Still Leads Active, Industrious Life After Fifty Years As Gardener For Basin Area

SUPER GARDENER—Albert Barrett came to the Klamath County to stay, 50 years ago. Today he is 82. Many of those years he has used his "green thumb" to keep lawns and flower borders clipped and weeded for many families in the city and outside the city. His home garden supplies winter vegetables for his grown children and their families with some left over for the neighbors. He lives alone at 3228 Bristol Avenue, since the death of his wife in 1960.

By RUTH KING
 Douglas Mallock once wrote, "He who makes a garden, walks with God." Albert Barrett, tall and slim and 82, has made many a garden bloom, and many a garden produce.

He came to Klamath Falls first in 1913, bought a piece of land, and two years later came to stay. E. M. Chilcote, in the real estate business, took the newcomer to a location on a 2-acre Round Lake in rolling, timbered country, a likely spot to settle, and to raise his family.

There they stayed for 20 years while 11 sons and two daughters, and their mother, Ora Ella Timme Barrett, "tended the ranch and the livestock, gathered the eggs and worked the garden patch."

They waited, too, for the breadwinner to come home weekends with two packs.

"front and back" filled with "staples" for the pantry, a bit canny and the "Evening Herald." It is 30 years or more since they first subscribed, and Albert Barrett is still on the circulation list.

Sometimes the snow was hip deep, sometimes the road was hot and dusty, but there were few weeks that he failed to around, decided where to plant with planning and harvesting the dry land type or earmarking a maverick.

He worked for a time in the Chelsea Mill, and when the late-came by his interest in growing things probably by ancestry, his mother, Narcissus Stark Barrett, was a first cousin to Lloyd Stark, one-time governor of Missouri and founder of the well-known Stark Brothers Nursery, oldest salesman of pippins and peppers.

The grew bulbs for sale for a time on land he owned at Woc, sold it for a trailer park, and as time passed, devoted his energies to keeping a garden s-trimmed and beautified. His wages as a gardener have fluctuated from $1.25 a day to $5 a day during World War II, to built a shirt pocket. He still stoves, and while adding more wood to the garden for some of his early-

U.S. Agreement Seen Aid To Soviets In UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—U.S. agreement to a procedural vote in the General Assembly has strengthened Russia's hand in forthcoming talks on the United Nations financial crisis, diplomats said Friday.

The assembly adjourned Thursday night Sept. 1 after defeating an attempt by Albania to force a showdown on the question of the Soviet Union's right to vote. The issue involves Soviet refusal to pay their U.N. peace-keeping operations.

The United States, through Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, has taken the position that Article 19 of the U.N. charter bans voting in the General Assembly by member nations with two years of back debts.

Albania, apparently acting as a disruptive agent for Communist China, used a combination of parliamentary tactics and political brawling to force a ballot.

Stevenson avoided the showdown by declaring that the United States viewed the vote sought by Albania as a ballot on a procedural question for which Article 19 did not apply. A ballot was taken and it was defeated.

Since last Dec. 1, the General Assembly has been operating under an informal agreement to avoid the more serious issues that would demand a vote. Business has been conducted by taking a "consensus" of members on routine measure.

Thursday, however, Albanian Ambassador Halim Budo called for a return to the regular voting procedure. Then he demanded a vote on his motion to restore balloting.

Had he succeeded, it would have opened fire on rioters.

NEW DELHI (UPI)—Police opened fire Saturday night to quell a mob made up of members of the conservative Hindu political party Jan Sangh who had roamed the streets earlier defacing 2,000 English language signs.

They were the first language riots to hit New Delhi. Scores of persons have been killed in southern India in rioting against the imposition of Hindi as the official Indian language on areas where only Tamil and English are spoken.

U.S.S.R. FAILS
 COLOGNE, Germany (UPI)—The West German Institute of Industry reported Friday that the Soviet Union continues to fail in its effort to raise agricultural output to the level of the yeasty population increase.
