Weed PTA Gives Honor

WEED — Mrs. Mary Mazzie was selected to receive the annual PTA life membership presented at the recent Founder's Day meeting at Weed Elementary School. Stephanie Gonzales, chairman, made the presentation.

A clever skit leading to the honorary award was a talkoff by Judy, Phyllis and Sylvia Rollins, who sang two numbers with guitar accompaniment played by Dan Rollins and Ray Moore. Refreshments and a dance followed the installation ceremony. Entertainment was provided by the evening

PTA HONOR — Mrs. Mary Mazzie, right, was given an honorary life membership in PTA at the last meeting of the Weed School PTA. She was cited for her long years of community service, particularly in youth projects. Making the presentation was Mrs. Stephanie Gonzales, left, chairman of the committee.

ginia Bortoli, Bruce Friend and Russell Thorpe. Mrs. Mazzie was cited for her long years in support of youth projects of the community. She was instrumental in establishing the annual PTA Halloween carnivals four years ago which are fund raising projects for the PTA. Mrs. Mazzie, mother of a grown son and a teen-age daughter, helped with the committee to secure land on which the College of the Siskiyous is built, and this summer her seven-year dream of a municipal swimming pool for Weed will become a reality. She has spearheaded many projects each year to raise the necessary funds for the pool.
