

Estes Honored Posthumously In 1965 United Press All-American Cage Team

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cazzie Russell of Michigan, the only junior honored, and Rhodes Scholar Bill Bradley of Princeton led the voting today for the United Press International 1965 All-American basketball team.

The late Wayne Estes, Utah State was the fifth man named to the collegiate team, that was increased to six men for the first time because of Estes' accidental death Feb. 8.

Rick Barry of Miami (Fla.), Gall Goodrich of UCLA and Fred Hetzel of Davidson are the other members of the first team.

The All-American team was selected by the direct vote of 310 sports writers, editors and sports broadcasters from all parts of the country. The voters were asked to select a first and second team.

High Scorers
A prerequisite for the 1965 team seemed to be scoring ability. Five of the members rank among the top eight scorers in the nation and the team average of 29.3 is the second highest of any All-American team. The 1954 team, led by Frank Selvy of Furman with a 22.2 mark, averaged 23.6.

The team not only reflects balance in court positions, but also exhibits great geographical distribution, with five different areas of the nation represented. Russell and Goodrich are used as guards. Hetzel plays center, and Bradley and Barry function as forwards, as did Estes.

Bradley is the only repeater from last year's first team and was second in the popular vote of Purdue. Lee, Schellase and Bill Buntin, Michigan; Bill Cunningham, N. Carolina; Dave Schellase, Purdue.

Third Team
Ollie Johnson, San Francisco; Keith Erickson, UCLA; Skip Thoren, Illinois; A. W. Davis, Tennessee; Dick Van Arsdale, Indiana.

Honorable mention (3 or more votes)—Anderson, St. Joseph's (Pa.), Austin, Boston College; Barnett, Oregon; Bialoskian, Connecticut; Bing, Syracuse; Blair, Providence; Dampier, Kentucky; Daniels, New Mexico State; Ellis, New Mexico; Fairchild, Brigham Young; Finkel, Dayton; Goukas, St. Joseph's (Pa.); Gehring, Miami (Ohio); Haskins, Western Kentucky; Hudson, Minnesota; Humes, Evansville; Isaacs, Iowa; Jarvis, Oregon.

Medford Dips... Klamath Could Capture Title

By DON MCKINNON
Herald Staff News

Medford and Grants Pass are one of two teams to defeat Medford. On the other hand, Medford defeated Medford in one of two games to date, and handed Grants Pass a solid trimming, using five reserves in the process.

All remaining contests for the Pelicans are vital, more so than for Medford. Odds are currently against the Pelicans doing less than second best in the conference, and 50-50 in the conference title race, so even the poorest mathematician can see the sum total of the balance of the race is in the favor of both Medford and Klamath Falls. But it's likely that Grants Pass isn't concerned with mathematics.

Conceivably, Grants Pass, which now has a conference mark of 6.6, could step Klamath, lose to Medford, and still come out on the long end.

It's all quite involved at this stage of the game, but the end result could spell disaster for the Pelis. We feel in this corner that disaster is not going to strike, and that the Pelis will clinch a tie with the Black Tornado for the conference title.

The Pelicans will be participating in the State Tournament at Eugene March 23-27, and will be strong contenders for the state championship trophy.

Reds Sign Maloney, Pete Rose

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds stowed Jim Maloney's contract safely away in their vault today confident that the 1965 National League pennant will be safely there if the big right-hander returns to his 20-game form of 1963.

The 6-foot, 1-inch, 200-pound right-hander is believed to have accepted a $30,000 pact despite the fact that he won only 15 games in 1964 compared to the 21-3 mark he compiled in 1963.

One of the fastest pitchers in baseball, Maloney struck out 214 batters in 216 innings and had a 2.70 earned run average last season. He is regarded as the key man of the Cincinnati pitching staff which is the Reds' chief hope for a pennant this year.

Rose Inks Contract
Signed along with Maloney was Pete Rose, the NL rookie of the year in 1963, who was hobbed by an early-season slump last year in a 6-11 finish with a .269 average.

The two signings left pitcher Jay Jay, first baseman Deron Johnson and outfielder Marty Kousser among the unsigned Reds.

The Pittsburgh Pirates came to terms with an important cog in their 1965 plans when pitcher Don Cardwell signed on the dotted line. A powerful right-hander who pitched a no-hitter for the Chicago Cubs in 1960, Cardwell is regarded as a potential 15-20 game winner.

Tracy Stallard, who had the thrill of being traded by the last-place New York Mets to the world champion St. Louis Cardinals during the off-season, joined the ranks of satisfied Cardinals. The 25-year-old right-hander had a 10-20 record for the Mets last season but is expected to become a starting pitcher for the Cardinals.

Cueball Signs
The Cardinals also announced the signing of Mike Cueball, a left-handed relief pitcher who had a 5-5 record in 52 games with last season. Still unsigned are 20-game winner Ray Sadecki, pitchers Bob Humphreys and Curt Simmons, infielder Julian Javier and outfielder Bob Skinner.

Peppery Finley Going It Alone, Once More

By SAM FOGG
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Peppery Finley, pitcher of the Kansas City Athletics, was all alone again today—usual.

Finley became the first and only pitcher to lead the Senate, anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee that he was unfavorably opposed to the sale of the New York Yankees to the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS).

And if federal action nullifies the sale I would be greatly relieved," Finley said.

Finley, who rarely agrees with the other owners in the American League, and Arthur Altmeyer, owner of the Chicago White Sox, cast the only league votes against the CBS acquisition.

But today, Allyn's protests were muted. In his prepared statement, Allyn said the controversy over the sale led to a meaningful resolution "of all aspects of the transaction from the point of view of the public interest."

In his prepared statement, Finley also told the subcommittee:

Big Wilt Is Helping Wrong Team

By United Press International

When Will Chamberlain helped the Philadelphia Phillies to a 2-0 triumph over the Philadelphia Warriors, dropped the league crown with four wins against one loss, Herman's could tie this figure with a win tonight against Mayfair, but Mayfair is out of the running as far as the title is concerned.

Herman's presently has a three win, one loss record. Eccles Mobile, comprised of Oregon Tech students, dropped its first game of the year, but bounced back to easily handle Bargett and Niles in a 2-1 victory. They boast a season mark of two wins against one loss, with one contest cancelled earlier in the season.

Tough Pickings
National Guard, the team ranked at the outset as the team to beat, found tough pickings despite its talented roster. Three members of this team finished

Sports Film Getting Lots Of Attention

You can get a lot of mileage from a good movie, as evidenced by the usage of the Herald and News sports film, "Sports Year 1964," which has achieved wide circulation in Klamath Basin since its purchase by this newspaper.

The film has been viewed by a variety of groups, including Klamath Union High School students, Bonanza High School, Merrill and Klamath Falls Lions clubs, the Knights of Columbus, Pelican Booster Club, We're Here as a user's company, elementary schools, religious organizations and most recently by participants of a father-son banquet.

Approximately 625 persons have viewed the interesting sports documentary, and many others are requesting it with increasing rapidity.

The film, from start to finish is an action-packed documentary on the highlights of sports during 1964. From action in the Olympics to highlights of the Davis Cup tennis matches, the film provides viewers a more than adequate review of the happenings of an interesting year in sports.

Written by Mel Allen, this 16 millimeter film has, and will be a popular item on any agenda. For reservations contact Don McKinnon, Sports Editor, Herald and News, telephone 862-1111.
