

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

Herald and News

FEBRUARY 26, 1965

CAVALCADE of PROGRESS

"Winter Splendor at Discovery Point Overlook" is the title of this beautiful show scene taken of Crater Lake by Bruce W. Black. The incredible beauty of Crater Lake has drawn millions of tourists from all parts of the world to view its blue beauty. Ever since it was declared a National Park by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1902, it has been a prime tourist attraction. The history of the discovery of Crater Lake and its subsequent development is contained in this section of the Progress Edition. Tourism is a $12,000,000 industry annually in Klamath County.